'Cat Success Is 'Bear' Possibility

By Zipp Newman, Birmingham News Sports Editor

Kentucky can't go any way but up in football. That is if Paul (Bear) Bryant gets anything like his share of the breaks. And he will make a lot of his own breaks with tremendous will power.

This columnist wrote when Kentucky signed the former Alabama star: "Kentucky is most fortunate in obtaining the finest young football coach in America today." That still goes. Here's one former Kentuckian who is much concerned in Paul Bryant's future.

Paul Bryant has every qualification of a great grid master. He was the most fearless football player I ever knew. He has a thorough knowledge of football. He has a flare for imparting the "know how" to players. Bryant is a tireless worker. He has the patience to rehearse a play 100 times. He not only knows how to handle players on the practice field but off the practice field. No coach has more personality. He was always popular with the players as an assistant coach at Alabama.

Coach Bryant was schooled under one of the greatest teachers football has ever known—Frank Thomas. He learned well Thomas' way of running a football team with the pressure on.

As a recruiter—and a football coach nowadays must know how to get material—Paul Bryant is in a class by himself. He could sell gold bricks to bankers and they would like it.

Paul Bryant was one of the finest ends in the history of football at Alabama. He was one end, who could not only catch a pass but rack up a tackle in cellophane. He gave one of the greatest exhibitions of handling a bruising tackle in Alabama's great victory over Stanford in the 1935 Rose Bowl game.

After Don Hutson, who went on to become the All-Time professional end, left Alabama, Bryant was switched to left end. He was switched because he was a good pass receiver.

Bryant played his greatest game on a broken leg against Tennessee. If you don't believe this, there are X-ray pictures in a doctor's office in Birmingham to prove it. Alabama beat Tennessee 25 to 0 and Bryant was the spearhead. "The Bear" got mad and the Vols couldn't handle him. He forgot about himself and what re-injuring the leg might mean to his football career.

Paul Bryant was born in Fordyce, Arkansas 33 years ago. He entered the University of Alabama in 1932 and was a hellion on the freshman team. He lettered in football in 1933-34-35, receiving his B.S. degree in Physical Education in 1936.

Paul married his campus sweetheart, Mary Harmon Black, one of Birmingham's charming belles in 1935. They have two children, May Martin, nine, and Paul, Jr., two. They are looking for Paul, Jr. down at Alabama, counting on him at least making the All-Conference team twice as his Dad did—and playing in a Rose Bowl game.

Paul stayed on at Alabama after graduation. He became a line coach and on the side got some business experience in operating a dry cleaning business with his old side-kick—Don Hutson.

Bryant was a fine line coach. He turned out two All-Americans, (LeRoy Monsky and Tarzan White) and three All-Conference linemen (White, Monsky and Bostick, who coached at Kentucky). Paul went back to the Rose Bowl as a coach with Alabama in 1938.

Red Sanders employed Paul Bryant as his line coach at Vanderbilt in 1940. The next year Vanderbilt beat Alabama. Alabama supporters attributed some of the credit to Paul Bryant talking the Commodores into believing they were better than the Crimson. It was one of the hardest played games in the history of the old series.

Paul Bryant is a man of action. He wanted in the war in 1942. He went to Washington and camped on Tom Hamilton's doorstep for days. He finally talked his way into the Navy—spending 16 months in the European theater. And he loved it.

Paul had a fling at coaching the North Carolina Pre-Flight team. The Pre-Flighters twice defeated Duke, 12-0 and 35-13 in practice games. North Carolina was beaten twice before the team was disbanded.

Maryland signed Paul Bryant to a head coach's contract in 1945. Maryland had won one game in the two previous seasons. Under Bryant, Maryland's football stock took a terrific rise. The Terps won six, lost two and tied one, winning for the first time against Virginia in 16 games.

Kentucky was looking for a football coach for the 1946 season. Kentucky was told by Southeastern Conference coaches, hire Paul Bryant if you can get him.

There's a different spirit at Kentucky. Paul Bryant had his players playing like Wildcats last year. They didn't go into big games with any inferiority complexes. Kentucky is on the way to becoming a power in Southern football. Give "The Bear" a little time and the Commonwealth of Kentucky will again thrill to the exploits of the gridiron.

Alabama will keenly follow the fortunes of the Kentucky Wildcats. Paul Bryant is home folks, destined to become one of the great coaches of football.

PROSPECTS

'46 Record Will Not Be Equaled

Kentucky will be an improved eleven in the Southeastern Conference chase this fall, but . . .

"We do not believe we will come close to equaling last year's seven-three won-loss record," Paul Bryant, the youthful Wildcat mentor, announced after appraising his squad's prospects for the coming campaign.

"Our schedule is a big factor for this belief. This fall, we play teams of our caliber away from home. That's a big disadvantage in football. Teams like Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee—teams we haven't a prayer of a chance to defeat—we play at home."

Continuing, the 33-year old mentor, who is starting his second season as Wildcat ringmaster, said:

"Our opponents are bound to take us more seriously this fall. They'll spend a lot more time in preparing for us this year than they did last year.

"Our running game should be a little improved, but our passing is bound to be much weaker. We lost both Eral Allen and Phil Cutchin by graduation. They certainly were our two best passers.

"We look strong at center with Jay Rhodemyre and Harry Ulinski. I consider Rhodemyre the best center in the S.E.C. At guards, we have fair strength and we're deep in reserves. Leo Yarutis and Leonard Preston should both have good seasons at that position. We're definitely weak at tackle. We have only three experienced men—Bill Griffin, Wash Serini, and Hut Jones. It's extremely difficult to say how we'll stack-up at ends."

Both ends from last season's eleven are back, however. Wallace "Wah Wah" Jones is back at the right flank and Dick Hensley is back for his junior season.

"In the backfield, we're weak—and extremely weak—at two positions, quarterback and left half," the 'Cat mentor added. "A veteran from last season, George Blanda and a converted halfback, Jim Babb, will be our first two signal callers. We have two fine fullbacks—Bill Moseley and Lee Truman. I believe Jack Farris and Jim Howe will be okay at the right halfback. Don Phelps has been switched from right half to left halfback this fall. At times last fall, Phelps was a great runner.

"We'll be improved, sure that's true. But for that matter so will every other team in the conference. We're still a long ways from being a contending team—or even a reasonably good one—in the Southeastern Conference. That's not a pre-season prediction, I'm sorry to say. That's just some old fashioned truth."

The Wildcat Offense

SYSTEM

Kentucky will use the Alabama box this fall from a balanced line mixed with a liberal portion of the T-formation. Returning from the huddle, Kentucky will line-up in a "T." The play may be executed from the "T" or the backfield may shift into a box.

RUNNING GAME

The Wildcats last fall did not show any particular partiality to either the ground or the air. The opposition usually determined Kentucky's attack. And so it will be again this season. Dopey Phelps, the Nation's leading punt return artist and kick-off return man, has been switched from right halfback to left halfback this year. At right half, there's Jim Howe and Jack Farris. Kentucky will have three hard-hitting fullbacks—Bill Moseley, Jim Parrot, and Lee Truman.

PASSING GAME

Kentucky should have a fairly potent aerial attack this autumn. Last year, Kentucky had Ermal Allen and Phil Cutchin, two of the outstanding passers in the Southeastern Conference. Allen and Cutchin are gone via graduation, but their receivers—Dick Hensley and "Wah Wah" Jones will be back again this fall. When it comes to quantity, Kentucky is well fixed with passers. But their game-tested quality remains a mystery. Here's the pigskin-pitching line-up—Jim Babb, Bill Boller, George Blanda, Don Frampton, Ogden Thomas, Jim Howe, Clayton Webb, and Bobby Brooks.

PUNTING GAME

Kentucky had three fine kickers last fall in Allen, Cutchin, and George Blanda. Blanda will be back and Coach Bryant regards him as his No. 1 booter. Then comes Len Kubiak, Dopey Phelps, Jim Babb, Clayton Webb, and John Chumley.

EXTRA POINTS AND KICK-OFFS

Again it is George Blanda heading the parade followed by Bob Gain, Jack Currence, Bill Boller, and Dick Hensley. Currence, an exceptionally fine freshman prospect, should give Kentucky ample insurance in that all important extra point business.

SAFETY MEN

Coach Bryant will use either his right or left halfback in the safety position. He has no set rule. Dopey Phelps is a tremendous threat. Kentucky has several other good men—Ben Heinzinger, Jim Howe, Bill Boller, Bobby Brooks, and John Chumley.

SIGNAL CALLERS

In the huddle and after the team returns to the line of scrimmage, it will be one of the following quarterbacks who will call the signals—Blanda, Babb, Jerry Claiborne, Don Frampton, Dick Koerber, Ogden Thomas, or Len Kubiak.

The Coaching Staff

The combination for a successful University of Kentucky gridiron eleven has been found in the person of a 33-year old Arkansan—energetic Paul Bryant.

Since football was first attempted at the Bluegrass school almost 60 years ago, the Wildcats have never truly been recognized as a gridiron power.

In February 1946, Bryant affixed his signature to a Kentucky contract. The Wildcats last season won seven games and lost three for their most successful campaign since 1912.

In November 1946, Bryant's original five-year contract was extended to cover a 10-year period. Football at Kentucky under Bryant's keen, observing eyes seems to be headed in the right direction.

A native of Fordyce, Arkansas, Bryant starred in football and basketball while attending high school there. From Fordyce, Bryant went to college—and to the University of Alabama.

From 1933 to 1935, Bryant starred for Coach Frank Thomas' Crimson-clad warriors. In 1935, Bryant was the right end on that famous Alabama Rose Bowl eleven. His roommate—Don Hutson, later of Green Bay Packer fame—was the left end. Dixie Howell, a 'Bama immortal, was in the backfield.

That '34 Alabama eleven was acclaimed by old Capstone followers as the most powerful and colorful in Alabama gridiron history.

Following his graduation from Alabama, Bryant remained as Thomas' assistant for four seasons. It was during this period that he absorbed the Alabama system—Coach Tommy's system for football success.

From Alabama, Bryant went on to another Southeastern Conference school, Vanderbilt University, where he was line coach. After working with the Commodores two seasons, the year 1942 rolled around.

The United States was at war. Bryant entered the Navy. His first station was the Pre-Flight School at Athens, Georgia. Then overseas . . . to Africa.

On his return, Bryant was assigned to the North Carolina Pre-Flight School. Shortly thereafter, the war ended. Lieutenant Commander Paul Bryant was released to inactive duty.

The University of Maryland offered Bryant a three-year contract. He accepted their offer a few days before the season opened. Six wins, two losses and a tie resulted—Maryland's best gridiron record in its history. His eleven impressively defeated the University of Virginia Cavaliers, a team which had won 16 straight contests.

Since his arrival at Kentucky, Bryant and his staff—Carney Laslie, Frank Moseley, Joe Atkinson, Mike Balitsaris and Ermal Allen—have worked hard.

Kentucky's impressive 7-3 record last fall substantiates that claim.

CARNEY LASLIE . . . Like Paul Bryant is a University of Alabama product and a former Rose Bowl star for the Crimson Tide . . . Laslie lettered three years at 'Bama, '30, '31 and '32 . . . In '32 he played on the Tide eleven which won a 24-0 decision over Washington State in the Pasadena classic . . . Remained at Alabama as an assistant for one year after graduating . . . Then he became head football coach at the Blytheville, Arkansas, high school . . . His teams went undefeated for three seasons and then Laslie went to V.M.I. as line coach . . . From the Lexington, Va., school, Laslie entered the Navy . . . While in the Navy, he coached the North Carolina Pre-Flight eleven . . . Released to inactive duty after three years service with the rank of Lieutenant Commander . . . Joined Bryant at Maryland a few days before the 1945 season opened . . . Specializes in coaching tackles at Kentucky . . . Married and has an eleven year old daughter.

FRANK MOSELEY . . . A native of Montgomery, Alabama . . . Quarterbacked the Tide elevens in '31, '32 and '33 . . . Played two seasons on the same Alabama teams as Laslie . . . Came to Kentucky in 1934 and served as backfield coach under Chet Wynne and Ab Kirwan . . . Entered the Navy in '42 . . . Served as gunnery officer aboard the aircraft carrier Lexington with the rank of Lieutenant Commander . . . A veteran of practically every battle in the Pacific . . . Joined Bryant a few days before the season opened at Maryland . . . Backfield coach at Kentucky . . . Married and has a three-months old son . . . Called "Mose" by many, but "Bully" or "Chesty" by his old Capstone acquaintances.

MIKE BALITSARIS . . . Another Rose Bowl player . . . But not with Alabama . . . Mike was an end on General Bob Neyland's '39 Rose Bowl team and in '40 Mike played in the Sugar Bowl for the Vols . . . Played both basketball and football for three seasons while at Tennessee . . . A native of Pittsburgh . . . Coached at St. Petersburg, Florida, high in 1942 . . . Knoxville Central in '43 and served in the Navy in '44 and '45 . . . Came to Kentucky as end coach . . . Married and has two children.

JOE ATKINSON . . . Was a star guard with Vanderbilt from '39 to '41 . . . Bryant coached Atkinson in '40 and '41 when he was line coach at Vandy . . . Joe captained the '41 Commodore eleven . . . Entered the Navy after graduation in '42 . . . Served 46 months . . . Skipped a PT . . . Came to Kentucky immediately after his discharge in March, 1946 . . . Handles the guards . . . A native of Lebanon, Tennessee . . . Single.

ERMAL ALLEN . . . Joined the Kentucky staff after being ruled ineligible after two games last fall in one of the most controversial eligibility cases in the history of the Southeastern Conference . . . Assists with the backs . . . Was granted four months leave of absence this fall to play professional ball with Paul Brown's Cleveland Browns . . . Will return to the 'Cat coaching staff in December . . . Married and has two children.

LEFT ENDS

Dick Hensley, 19-year old six-feet four-inch 195-pound Williamson, West Virginia product returns for his junior year this fall . . . Ranked by Coach Bryant as his best left end . . . Lettered in both his freshman and sophomore seasons . . . Considered an outstanding pass receiver and a fine defensive player . . . Was an All-Stater in high school . . . Should be one of the Southeastern Conference's outstanding ends this season.

George Sengel, six-feet one-inch 179-pound senior from Louisville, is considered one of the roughest defensive players on the squad . . . Lettered in '42 and again in '46 after returning from the Army Air Corps . . . This being his senior year, Sengel should have a good season.

LEFT TACKLES

Wash Serini, six-feet one-inch 215-pound Tuckahoe, New York native, returns for his fourth season with the Wildcats . . . Played for Kentucky during the war and earned All-S.E.C. honors . . . His sheer determination won him a spot on Coach Bryant's first eleven last fall . . . Voted the most popular man on the campus . . . Serini should be a mainstay in Kentucky's line.

Doc Ferrell, six-feet 198-pound sophomore from neighboring Richmond, displayed great improvement in spring practice . . . He's being counted on heavily to help the Wildcats in one of their really weak spots this autumn . . . Majoring in business administration . . . Could be Kentucky's No. 2 left tackle.

Bob Gain, a giant-like six-feet three-inch 220-pound freshman from Wierton, West Virginia, is rated as one of the best line prospects to ever enroll at Kentucky . . . If he had some game experience under his belt, he would prove extremely valuable to the 'Cats this fall . . . He's fast, aggressive, and extremely agile for such a big young man.

LEFT GUARDS

Leonard Preston, a six-feet 196-pound junior from Louisville, is another one of those boys who was never given serious consideration until Coach Bryant arrived at Kentucky . . . A veteran, Preston last fall had trouble in conditioning his legs . . . He's in top form now and should have a great season . . . Prematurely grey . . . Married and has a two-year old son . . . Should be Kentucky's starting left guard.

Hut Jones, six-feet one-inch 196-pound senior from Corbin, Ky., plays either at tackle or guard . . . And he'll probably see service at both positions this fall . . . Was at Kentucky before the war . . . Strictly the rough type . . . Has a tremendous charge on the offense, and on the defense he is as rough as any man on the squad . . . Jones will play a lot of ball this season.

CENTERS

Jay Rhodemyre, six-feet two-inch 196-pound senior from Ashland, Ky., is the best center in the Southeastern Conference, Coach Bryant claims . . . And Coach Bryant is not one to give undue praise . . . Played a major portion of all Kentucky games last fall . . . Majoring in engineering . . . One of the best team-play leaders on the squad . . . Was never more than a second-stringer until Bryant started to work on him . . . There's no doubt about this former Army Air Corps pilot, he's a great football player.

Harry Ulinski, six-feet two-inch 196-pound sophomore from Ambridge, Pa., gives Kentucky a terrific one-two punch in the middle of the line . . . Never before in recent Wildcat history has Kentucky had two centers as good as Rhodemyre and Ulinski . . . They'll both be in the line-up when the 'Cats are on the defense . . . This boy is just a good football player and that's about all you can say.

RIGHT GUARDS

Leo Yarutis, "The Little Tiger," is one of Kentucky's best vest-pocket guards in the school's history . . . Five-feet eight-inches . . . Leo is a master of his position . . . He weighs but 180-pounds, but he can mix it up with the biggest and best of them . . . A fiery player, he's a great leader in the 'Cat forward wall . . . Majoring in pre-med . . . An exceptionally fine student . . . Broke his arm in last year's opening game . . . He should have a fine senior season.

Charley Browning, five-feet ten-inch junior from Montgomery, Ala., won a spot on the squad because he has the desire to play . . . Weighs 190-pounds . . . Suffered a back injury last summer and was counted out . . . The doctor prescribed corrective exercises and Browning faithfully followed his advice . . . As a result, he played a lot of ball for Kentucky last fall, his sophomore year . . . Majoring in electrical engineering.

RIGHT TACKLES

Bill Griffin, six-feet five-inch Mayfield, Ky., man-mountain, is the No. 1 performer in this position . . . Played at Kentucky before entering the Army . . . Hit his stride after returning last fall for his junior year . . . If Kentucky had several more like Griff, the tackle position wouldn't be such a weak spot in the forward wall . . . Recently married . . . Plans to coach after his graduation in June.

Frank Smotherman is another player who showed possibilities in spring practice . . . If he continues to improve, he'll be of immense aid to the line . . . Smotherman has the physical qualifications to be a good end . . . He stands six-feet four-inches and weighs 215-pounds.

RIGHT ENDS

Wallace "Wah Wah" Jones is the pride and joy of all Kentuckians. . . . Jones will probably be regarded as Kentucky's greatest all-around athlete if he continues his fine work . . . Lettered in football, basketball, and baseball both his freshman and sophomore years . . . Was an All-S.E.C. end last fall . . . Jones was named to the All-S.E.C. basketball five in both his freshman and sophomore seasons . . . Considered one of the best pass receivers in the Nation without question . . . Has a tremendous amount of competitive spirit. . . He's one boy whose desire to win could never be questioned . . . Called "Wah Wah" by his host of friends and admirers, but just plain Wallace by Coach Bryant . . . He's six-feet four-inches tall and weighs 195-pounds . . . A native of Harlan.

QUARTERBACKS

George Blanda, a six-feet one-inch 190-pound 19-year old junior from Youngwood, Pa., was Kentucky's regular quarterback last fall when the Wildcats were using the single wing system exclusively . . . Now Coach Bryant plans to mix-up some single wing with some T-formation . . . And Blanda, despite the fact that he is ranked the No. 1 man, remains much of a mystery . . . He has never been tried under game conditions . . . And that's what they pay-off on . . . He's a fine kicker and a fair passer . . . Lettered in his freshman season . . . This position is a really big question mark.

Jim Babb, 177-pound five-feet eleven-inch sophomore from Lebanon, Tennessee, was a left halfback last fall . . . Has been switched to the signal calling spot this season . . . Possesses a tremendous amount of native ability as a kicker, passer, and runner . . . If Babb develops into the player that he is capable of being, then Kentucky should have a good quarterback . . . A veteran, Babb was in the Coast Guard during the war . . . He's the strong, silent type . . . A physical education major.

LEFT HALFBACKS

Bill Boller, five-feet ten-inch sophomore from Beaver Falls, Pa., is placed ahead of Dopey Phelps by Coach Bryant as Kentucky's No. 1 left halfback . . . Phelps is remembered as the freshman last season who led the Nation in punt returns and kick-off returns . . . This seems to be an indication that Coach Bryant has complete confidence in Boller . . . He passes well, kicks well . . . And runs hard for a 177-pound back . . . He's another one of those boys who's playing because he has the desire and determination . . . This should be the season he receives the experience for being a fine player in his junior and senior seasons.

Dopey Phelps, called Don by only his immediate family, stands five-feet eleven inches tall and weighs only 172-pounds . . . Led the Nation in punt returns and kick-off returns last season, his freshman year . . . Has been switched from right half to left halfback this fall . . . Has that initial burst of speed to blaze his way around end or dart through a hole which is open for only a split second . . . As a runner, Phelps hasn't an equal on the 'Cat squad . . . Hails from near-by Danville.

RIGHT HALFBACKS

Jack Farris was a fifth string halfback before the war . . . Last fall, Coach Bryant used Farris as his starting right halfback until he received a severe knee injury against Georgia in the fourth game of the season . . . Farris hasn't scrimmaged since being injured . . . His physical condition is still a mystery . . . Farris isn't particularly speedy, but he has an elusive style of running which makes him hard to stop . . . He stands five-feet eleven-inches tall and weighs only 175-pounds . . . Another one of those determination players.

Jim Howe, an even six-feet tall, he lettered in '44 . . . Returned from the service too late to play last fall . . . Has shown a lot of possibilities in practice since then . . . Like Farris, he isn't particularly swift, but he possesses the ability to pick his holes . . . And away he goes . . . He could aid Kentucky immensely this year . . . Weighs 175-pounds and served in the Army . . . Hails from Fort Thomas, Ky.

Dick Martin, 170-pound six-feet freshman from Chicago, is one of the few first-year players you see who is capable of playing a lot of ball in his initial season . . . On the defense, he's something for the boys to write home about . . . He's destined to see a lot of action in a Wildcat uniform.

FULLBACKS

Bill Moseley, five-feet nine-inch 178-pound senior from Montgomery, Ala., typifies a boy who wants to play football . . . Mose hasn't a lot of native ability, but he has more courage than a dozen ordinary players . . . And he usually manages to churn his way for good yardage . . . An honor student, Mose is president of the K-Club, the letterman's organization . . . Plans to coach following his graduation . . . An Army veteran.

Jim Parrot, 185-pound five-feet nine-inch junior from Springfield, Ky., arrived back from the Army in time to participate in spring practice . . . He's a hard-hitting, line-splitting carrier . . . And his defensive play is nothing to be ashamed of . . . Lettered in '44.

Lee Truman, 188-pound six-feet sophomore from Owensboro, is a fast, hard-driving fullback who needs only seasoning to be a top-notch performer . . . Played with the "B" squad last fall and gained valuable game experience . . . He's a high-stepper with a nice change of pace and plenty of speed . . . Truman will see action this fall, and plenty of action before he graduates.

You're Solid, Mr. Bryant!

Paul Bryant has the personality to put over his program and his apprenticeships seem solid enough as far as coaching ability is concerned . . . He doesn't appear to be the type who will miss on his opportunity . . . The 32-year-old youth appears to be a comer, not this season, but before his contract is over . . . Keep an eye on him.

The University of Kentucky

Located in Lexington, an urban community of 90,000 population, it is a state supported institution which operates under the direction of the Board of Trustees. Membership of this Board includes the Governor, the Superintendent of Public Instruction, and the Commissioner of Agriculture, ex officio, and twelve members appointed by the Governor, three of whom are alumni of the University and three members of the State Board of Agriculture. It is one of a number of institutions known as land-grant colleges, which were established by the Morrill Act of 1862, and which will continue to receive federal assistance under the provisions.

The University is on the approved list of the Association of American Universities, and is a member of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools and the Kentucky Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools. It is accredited in its respective colleges or departments by the Association of American Law Schools, the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business, the American Association of Schools and Departments of Journalism, the American Library Association, the National Association of Schools of Music, and the Engineers' Council for Professional Development.

The major function of the University is that of instruction. For the performance of this function it is organized into the College of Arts and Sciences, the College of Agriculture and Home Economics, the College of Engineering, the College of Law, the College of Education, the College of Commerce, the Graduate School, a Department of University Extension and a College of Pharmacy, located at Louisville. Residence instruction is given through four quarters, the summer quarter being divided into two terms.

In addition to giving instruction to its student body, the University contributes to the welfare of the state through research, experimentation, and public service. While all departments make important contributions along these lines, certain divisions and bureaus have been established specifically for these purposes.

The University began as a part of Kentucky University under a cooperative plan authorized by the legislature in 1865. The purpose of this plan was to unite sectarian and public education under one organization. This experiment was tried for a number of years. In the meantime, the Federal funds authorized under the Morrill Act were used to develop agriculture and mechanical arts in Kentucky University. In 1878, when the people of Kentucky decided to establish a state institution of higher learning, the College of Agriculture and Mechanical Arts was separated from Kentucky University and reestablished on land given by the City of Lexington and the County of Fayette. Thirty years later the legislature changed the name of the institution to the State University of Kentucky, and gave it additional financial support. In 1916 the name was again changed, this time to the present title, and additional maintenance was arranged by legislative act.

The President is Dr. Herman L. Donovan, one of the most sports-minded university executives in the United States. Under Dr. Donovan's direction, the University has launched on a building program a feature of which will be the construction of a $2,500,000 field house.
