FOREWORD

This Number of the Bulletin is prepared annually by the Bureau of Instruction in the State Department of Education. The purpose of this publication is to give pertinent information regarding the public and private high schools of the state.

In Kentucky, both public and private high schools are accredited annually by the State Board of Education. The official accredited rating of each high school is set forth in this Bulletin. The official rating given each high school by the State Board of Education is made on recommendation of the Commission on Secondary Schools of the Kentucky Association of Colleges, Secondary, and Elementary Schools.

It is hoped that superintendents and principals will study the material found in this publication.

KENTUCKY HIGH SCHOOLS—1954-55

There are 581 public and private high schools in Kentucky. Last year, the number was 582. Of the 581 high schools now operating, 526 are complete organizations in that they offer work through the twelfth grade. The remaining 55 high schools, because they do not offer work through the twelfth grade, are approved as incomplete feeder schools. Of the 55 incomplete high schools, 48 are separate junior high schools organized as one distinct unit offering work exclusively in grades seven, eight, and nine. The remaining seven high schools are incomplete organizations that offer work only through the tenth or eleventh grades.

Of the 526 complete high schools, 305 are operated by county boards of education while 145 are maintained by boards of education in independent school districts. The remaining complete organizations are either private secondary schools or schools that are maintained entirely by the state.

This year, the six-year high schools (grades seven to twelve) number 223. Last year, they numbered 236. This year, the traditional four year high schools (grades nine to twelve) number 252. Last year, they numbered 258. The remaining 51 complete high school organizations represent modifications of the six-year and the traditional four-year plans.

Eighteen high schools operated last year that are not operating this year. This does not mean that the total number of high schools was reduced by eighteen because seventeen new high schools have been organized; hence the loss of only one in the total number of high schools for this year as contrasted to the total number of high schools that operated last year. Eleven of these new high schools are junior high school organizations (grades 7-9). Two of the new high schools are complete organizations. They are county high schools representing in each case a consolidation of all the high schools in their respective county systems. The two new centralized high schools are the Boone County High School, Florence, Kentucky, and the Henderson County High School, Henderson, Kentucky.

The following table presents data regarding the various types of high school organizations to be found in the state.

Information Concerning High School Development. For a number of years the Division of Supervision has carried three tables in this bulletin showing the development of high school education in Kentucky. This information has proved helpful to students of Kentucky education.

Table IV shows that there was a continuous growth in the number of high schools from 1915 to 1935. In 1935 there were 848 public and private high schools in the state. This represents the largest number of high schools that the state has ever had. Now that we have 581 high schools, public and private, it is clear that there has been a decrease in the number of high schools of 267 since 1935. This decrease has come about very largely through small high school organizations being merged into larger school centers.

Table V presents an interesting picture in total high school enrollments in different types of high schools (public white, public Negro, and private) since 1915. High school enrollments increased rapidly until around 1941, then enrollments began to decrease on account of the second World War. The lowest total high school enrollment was for the school-year 1943-44. Today, the total high school enrollment is 170,520. This enrollment includes seventh and eighth grade enrollments in schools that incorporate these grades in

To better provide for these needs and capacities, a broader and more varied high school program is demanded. High schools should not only assist some pupils for work in higher institutions, but they should also assist a larger proportion of the pupils to prepare for entering directly into business, industry, agriculture, and homemaking. It is at once apparent that small high schools cannot possibly offer an enriched program to meet the needs and capacities of all high school pupils unless it is done at excessive cost, hence the justification of requiring increased enrollment for accreditation of high schools.
