

47-M-61

COPIED FROM THE
WOODWARD & LOHMEYER PRINT CO., ST. LOUIS

BIRDSEYE VIEW OF THE BUSINESS SECTION OF ST. LOUIS, FROM THE ILLINOIS BANK OF THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER.
EADS BRIDGE IN THE FOREGROUND.

LOUISIANA PURCHASE EXPOSITION, ST. LOUIS, U. S. A., 1903.

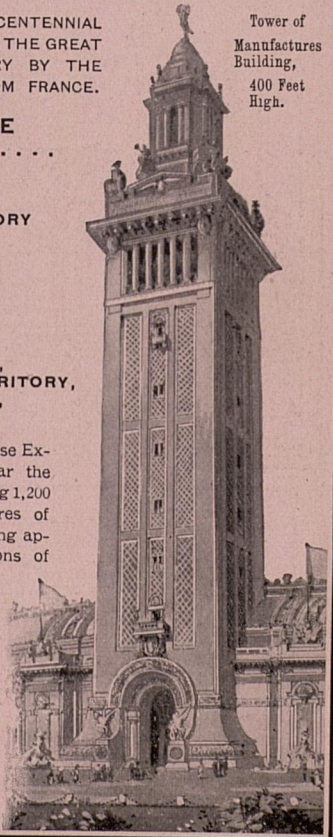

TO CELEBRATE THE CENTENNIAL
OF THE PURCHASE OF THE GREAT
LOUISIANA TERRITORY BY THE UNITED STATES FROM FRANCE.

STATES OF THE PURCHASE

- ARKANSAS,
- COLORADO,
- INDIAN TERRITORY
- IOWA,
- KANSAS,
- LOUISIANA,
- MINNESOTA
- MISSOURI,
- MONTANA,
- NEBRASKA,
- NORTH DAKOTA,
- OKLAHOMA TERRITORY,
- SOUTH DAKOTA,
- WYOMING.

The Louisiana Purchase Exposition will be by far the greatest ever held, having 1,200 acres of land, 200 acres of exhibit space, and costing approximately forty millions of dollars; all nations,
States and provinces to participate, and show
the achievements of modern civilization in all arts and industries.

F. J. V. SKIFF,
DIRECTOR OF EXHIBITS.
J. A. OCKERSON, CHIEF, DEPARTMENT OF LIBERAL ARTS.

Tower of Manufactures
Building,
400 Feet
High.