

To Editors: The news in this Bulletin is prepared for the press and is released for publication on receipt.

THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY PRESS BULLETIN

PUBLISHED BI-WEEKLY BY THE UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY.

Entered as second class matter at the post office at Lexington, Ky.

December 1, 1919

LEXINGTON, KENTUCKY

Vol. III. No. 4

ROLLERS TAKE IN 37 NEW PLAYER FOLK

Forty-seven new members were added to the Strollers, the dramatic organization of the University of Kentucky at the annual pledging exercise in the Stroller rooms at a re-meeting. The new members shown their histrionic ability primarily by public participation in one-acts and readings in chapel.

The new members are: Adele Slade, Louisville; Louise Connell, Paris; Clarkey, Springfield, Ohio; Myrtle Harrison, Brailsford, Frank Kemper, Mary Elizabeth Down, Dorothy Blatz, Augustus Becker, Louisville; Meta Shrader, Paducah; Moore, Catherine Reed, Marion; Brown, Anna Louise Connor, Anna Downing, Jane Gregory, Anna McClure, Katherine Herring, Lyons, Carolyn Webb, Virginia Emberry, Eugenia Young, and Saunders, Lexington; Sara Mettiper, Carlisle; Georgie Lee Murr, Mayfield; J. E. Williams, Ash-Torrill Corn, Harrodsburg; George Oldham, Hopkinsville; J. W. Lagrange; James Dixon, Bowling Green; Martha Prewitt, Winchester; Virginia Griffith, Ghent; J. P. Greenville; Frank Taylor, Mich-Wright, Lake City, Iowa; and F. Duiguid, Murray.

UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY IN NOTABLE COMPANY

The University of Kentucky is among the 130 of the 600 American universities that have been placed by the National Association of American Universities upon the list of those which confer bachelor degrees with sufficient qualification for entrance upon graduate work leading to advanced degrees at any other university. This will relieve graduates of the University of the necessity of doing further undergraduate work and thus enable them to obtain their advanced degrees in a shorter time after graduation.

HOME ECONOMICS TO HAVE HONORARY SOCIETY

The senate of the University has granted a petition of Home Economics honorary Society promoters for the establishment of the Omicron Nu honorary home economics fraternity at the University. A certain per cent of the juniors and seniors in the Home Economics Department are to be taken into this society each year. Its qualifications are average grade of B, interest in Home Economics work and engagement in some practical phase of the work. The petitioners are: Misses Anna Croft, Louisville, President of the Society; Lucile Blatz, Louisville; Louise Mayer, Louisville; Kathleen Christian, Lexington; Hannah Oakley, Louisville; Kathleen Brand, Mayfield; Marie Barkley, Lexington; Cecelia Maxwell, Thomson; Mary Turner, Louisville; Elizabeth Threlkeld, Lexington; Katherine Bell, Lexington; Annie McAdams, Lexington; Margaret Bird, Shelbyville.

MAKING PHOTOS FOR ANNUAL.

A representative of the White Photographic studios, New York City, arrived at the University of Kentucky December 24 in order to take individual photographs of senior class members and organization pictures for the forthcoming annual. A studio has been organized in Alumni Hall and all photographing will be done on the University Campus instead of at a downtown photographic studio which has hitherto been the case.

MOVABLE SCHOOLS FOR FARMERS' WIVES STARTED

Under the auspices of the Extension Department of the College of Agriculture, University of Kentucky, a movable school for farmers' wives was held in Paducah, November 18 and 21. Actual class work was given in Home Economics supplemented by lectures by Miss Dora Sonnenday, Miss Maybelle Cornell, A. S. Chapin and Dean Thomas P. Cooper. Miss McCheyne, of the Extension Department, gave demonstrations.

This is the second of a series of such schools held by the Agricultural Department. The first was for farmers alone, however, and was held in Paducah last spring. The College of Agriculture plans to have eight or nine of these movable schools conducted in Kentucky this year.

OTHER STATES CALL FOR KENTUCKY'S MINING COURSE

As a further indication of the benefits to the State and elsewhere of the extension department of the University of Kentucky, several hundred men employed in the mines of Kentucky, Virginia, and West Virginia, have made application to take the extension course in mining engineering given by the Department of Mines at the University through the Extension Department.

This course was intended primarily for men in Kentucky mines, but mine officials have asked that it be extended to men in other states as well. Not only the mines have made application for this course, but a number of mine superintendents and general managers have also applied for it in order to increase their technical knowledge.

SENATE GIVES SANCTION TO 30 ENTERTAINMENTS

At a meeting of the University of Kentucky Senate the schedules of dates for a series of thirty student entertainments was approved. This series begins December 6 with the cadet hop and ends May 7 with the Stroller play. It provides for all fraternity and class dances and for theatrical activities and debates held at the University on week end days throughout the year. Its purpose is to avoid conflicting dates and to regulate the number of such entertainments held.

UNIVERSITY SELECTS DES MOINES DELEGATES

At meetings of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. of the University of Kentucky, ten students were selected to represent the University at the Eighth International Convention of Student Volunteer Workers to be held in Des Moines, Iowa, from December 31, 1919, to January 5, 1920. The purpose of the convention is to bring together representative delegations of students and professors from the important institutions of higher learning in the United States and Canada and leaders of Christian enterprise throughout the world.

The following delegates were elected to represent University of Kentucky: Jesse Tapp, Corydon; J. Burton Prewitt, Mt. Sterling; J. P. Barnes, Bardstown; John Davis, George Zerfoss, Lexington; Victor Barlow, Ballard; George Gregory, Hardinsburg; Adele Slade, Ludlow; Margaret Woll, Hawesville; Fannie Heller, Paris; and Lillie Cromwell, Cynthiana.

PRESS ASSOCIATION TO EXPLOIT STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The Press Association of the University of Kentucky, whose activities were suspended during the war, has been reorganized with Frances Marsch, Maysville, chairman, and Harry Cottrell, Owensboro, secretary.

This is an organization of students of journalism for the purpose of collecting news about students and of sending it to their home newspapers in the hope that they will see fit to print it and thus give the "folks at home" news of the boys and girls at the University.

The plan of the organization is to have a student from each of the 101 counties represented at the University to handle news about students of their respective counties. At present seventy-eight of the counties are represented by a correspondent and it is hoped in a short time to obtain representatives for the remaining counties.

Another feature of the association is the selecting of Adele Slade, Ludlow, to correspond for certain eastern papers that carry general educational news, thus keeping the out-of-state papers in touch with affairs at the University of Kentucky.

MISS WHERRY TAKES CHARGE OF RESEARCH WORK

Miss Pauline Wherry, assistant director of the Bureau of Research and Education, Lake Division, Red Cross, arrived in Lexington Monday morning to be supervisor of field work for the Red Cross Institute, University of Kentucky. Announcement has been made that Dr. Harry Best, formerly in charge of this work will devote his entire time to class work.

With the arrival of Miss Wherry, the second Red Cross Institute opened at the University. Five students enrolled, as follows: Miss Catherine Tucker, Lexington; E. E. Gotherman, Williamsburg, Ohio; Miss Margerite Welsh, Lexington; Miss Sue Pendleton, Winchester; Miss Mattie Reid, Taylorsville.

"WILDCAT" CLAWS ARE CLIPPED BY COLONELS

By a score of 56 to 0 Centre Colonels won the annual football contest played Nov. 15 at Danville with the University of Kentucky. The game attracted spectators from all over the state.

The following men played during the game on the Wildcat eleven: Dishman, Server, Henderson; Colpitts, Shanklin, Fuller, Muth, Heber, Lexington; Combs, Nicholasville; Murphree, Culp, Louisville; Green, Everett, Massachusetts; Lavin, Paris; Pribble, Butler; Burnham, Paducah; Thompson, Falmouth; Faulconer, Zerfoss, Lexington; Clark, Somerset; Baugh, London.

STOCK JUDGES WIND UP MEETING WITH DANCE

A livestock show and judging contest, followed by a dance and refreshments, were features of the formal opening of the new stock judging pavilion on the Experiment Station farm of the University of Kentucky. Students in charge of the show were: L. E. Steinhouser, Mossville, president; Edward Parker, Maysville, in charge of hogs; Goebel Porter, Dixon, in charge of cattle; Grover Creech, Pineville, in charge of sheep; and Jesse Tapp, Corydon, ringmaster.

LITTLE THEATER OPENS WITH IMPRESSIVE OUTLOOK

The long looked-for "Little Theater" which has been in process of construction at the University of Kentucky is in use. The stage is thirty-one by fourteen feet and the proscenium arch opening is eighteen by eight and one-half feet. The stage is equipped with all necessary lighting effects. The auditorium seats 112 persons. E. C. Mabie, professor of English, in direct charge of the theater, expects to produce the following one-act plays during the year: Lord Dunsany's "The Tents of the Arabs"; Nicholas Evriev's "A Merry Death"; John Redford's "Wyt and Science"; Alice Gerstberg's "Overtones"; Susan Glaspell's "Trifles"; William Butler Yeats' "The Land of Heart's Desire"; Maurice Materlinck's "The Intruder"; Stanley Houghton's "Dear Departed"; and E. F. Farquhar's "Apocryphal," a clever original play by Professor Farquhar, head of the Department of English. Artistic designs for the play will be designed and made by the theater workers.

EMINENT SPEAKERS TALK TO UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

Among men of national reputation who have spoken before University of Kentucky audiences recently are: Hamilton Holt, New York, editor of the Independent; Dr. Harry L. Southwick, Emory School of Oratory, Boston; and Doctor Bell, well known missionary, who spent twenty-five years in Korea.

Mr. Holt was the chapel speaker on November 11, when the University celebrated the first anniversary of the signing of the armistice. Mr. Southwick was making his third annual visit to the University, and while here read some Shakespeare readings to the students and delivered lectures on Dickens and Shakespeare. Doctor Bell came under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

STOCK JUDGING TEAM GOES TO BIG SHOW

The University of Kentucky stock judging team, accompanied by Professor Horlacher of the Animal Husbandry Department, College of Agriculture, left Lexington October 23 for Chicago where it is entered in the judging contest at the International Live Stock Show that meets there November 30. The team did preliminary judging for practice at the University of Illinois and Purdue University before going to Chicago. Members of the team are: E. S. Godbey, Middleburg; H. H. Bennett, Mayfield; Goebel Porter, Dixon; W. D. Salmon, Cork; and H. G. Sellards, Prestonsburg, alternate.

UNIVERSITY MEN DISCOVER UNIQUE SPECIES OF SPIDER

Professor C. R. Crosby, Cornell University, authority on spiders, reports a rare spider captured by Professor W. D. Funkhouser and Grover Creech, of the University of Kentucky. Several specimens of the spider were found in a shallow cave on Pine Mountain, near Pineville, Ky., last summer, and are the first of their kind recorded for Kentucky. Very little is known by scientists of this spider, its webs, or its habits, and Professor Crosby pronounces the discovery unique.

JUNIORS NAME LEADERS FOR CLASS OF '20-'21.

George Zerfoss, Lexington, College of Engineering, was elected president of the Junior Class of the University of Kentucky at a class meeting by a strictly college vote over Anthony Dishman the "A. B. Law" consolidation candidate.

The other officers elected were: Mildred Porter, Lexington, vice president; Lillian Cromwell, Cynthiana, secretary; M. G. McWhorter, Yoramite, treasurer; J. P. Barnes, Bardstown, class orator, and J. T. Stevens, Kevill, junior cheer leader.

Zerfoss is a member of the Phi Delta Theta fraternity and has won athletic letters in football, baseball, basketball and tennis. Miss Porter and Miss Cromwell are both members of the Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity and are members of the basketball squad. Barnes is a member of Kappa Alpha and Alpha Delta Sigma fraternities and Keys Mystic Thirteen class societies.

UNIVERSITY SENIORS ELECT CLASS OFFICERS.

Ed. Dabney, Hopkinsville, was elected president of the Senior Class of the University of Kentucky at a class meeting in chapel last week. The other officers elected were: Vice president, Mary Turner, Louisville; secretary, Dorothy Middleton, Lexington; treasurer, Everett E. Elsey, Lexington; class orator, Emery Frazier, Lawrenceburg; prophet, Louise Will, Louisville; historian, Margaret Woll, Hawesville; poet, James Dixon, Bowling Green; grumbler, U. V. Garred, Louisa; gitorian, Thomas Groman, Lexington; editor-in-chief "Kentuckian," Jesse Tapp, Corydon; business manager "Kentuckian," J. Ed. Parker, Maysville.

It was then suggested that certain old traditions of the Senior Class be revived and a motion was made and carried that at the first football game of the season the Senior men "bosom forth in corduroys, canes and what mustaches can be cultivated in that time," and that the Senior women, appear clad in trim corduroy skirts, brown in color but unlimited as to style and cut.

HOLLAND BRYAN MADE LAW SOCIETY HEAD

Holland G. Bryan, Paducah, was elected president of the Henry Clay Law Society of the University of Kentucky for the ensuing term at the first meeting of the society for this year, which was held last Thursday night. The other officers elected were: Neville Moore, Marion, vice-president; Bailey B. Baxter, Richmond, secretary; O. C. Walker, Stithon, treasurer; Herbert Haley, Grayson, attorney general; E. D. Dabney, Hopkinsville, chaplain; Sylvester Woods, sergeant-at-arms; Dean Slagle, Bakersville, N. C., critic. By a unanimous vote of the society Mr. R. W. Owens, the University Y. M. C. A. secretary, was elected an honorary member.

LAMED PE ELECTS.

At a recent meeting of Lamed Pe, the Masonic Club of the University of Kentucky, the following officers were elected for the remainder of the year: president, O. C. Gartin, Louisa; vice-president, Henry Beam, Covington; secretary and treasurer, Robert W. Mitchell, Jr., Paducah.