

The Suky Card Section

For lo, these many months, "Why doesn't Suky do something?" has been a standing campus gripe. Now Suky has done something. Its members have put in many hours of hard and often discouraging effort in an attempt to give the students a card section such as those which boost student pep in many other colleges.

Now (we are told) the card section is a success. We hear the director commend the participants on a good job. This week we even saw a picture of one of the formations in a downtown paper. But the student, who must sit on the north side of the stands, thinks of the card section as a confused jumble of lights and noise. He sees the ushers pass the cards and hears the Suky president call out numbers and directions. But he never sees the card section in operation and cannot visualize the good impression it probably makes from the other side of the stands.

The resulting lack of student interest in the card section makes understandable the many complaints that the Suky public address system interferes with the enjoyment of the band at half-time.

These instructions could hardly be dispensed with if the card section is to be successful. But the complaints might not be quite so loud if the students were given a chance to see this card section they hear so much about.

It's probably too late to do anything about it this year, since south stand seats are already sold. But we hope that by next year Suky can arrange with the athletic office to trade a section of seats for at least one game. Suky members deserve the chance to show the students their accomplishment — a successful (we hear) card section.

Hints For The Hungry

It seems there have been complaints (which are quite common at UK) about the time it takes to get served in the Student Union Cafeteria. Frank D. Peterson, University Comptroller, has sent the Kernel some facts, figures, and suggestions which should be of interest to the student who spends from 10 to 20 minutes of his valuable time each day standing in lunch-line.

Being fervent supporters of anything which will help eliminate lines (we shudder at the word), we warmly recommend these suggestions:

Since there is a big rush from 12 to 12:30 and then a lull, a lot of time could be saved if the students would space themselves throughout the hour. Drop into the Great Hall and recuperate from classes a few minutes instead of rushing madly to the cafeteria at 12 sharp. At dinner, you'll find a lull from 5:30 till around 6.

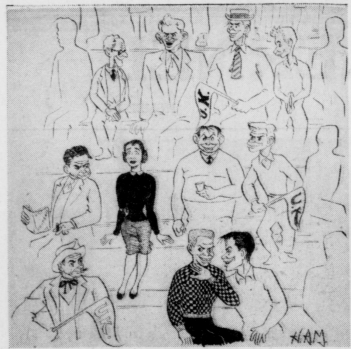

There are 450 seats in the cafeteria for an average of 950 people, so don't linger at the table too long. Eat, don't gobble, but carry on your lengthy conversations in the lounge or grill. This will also help the table clearers to keep up with their work.

The Student Union is a good and handy place to eat and consequently, does a rushing business. Relax and enjoy your meals there, but consider these tips and maybe you'll do away with another line.

Time For Kyrian Pictures

"The 1951 Kentuckian carries the picture of every graduating senior in the University."

That startling statement is one which the Kernel (and the Kentuckian staff) would like to be able to make come next May.

Since all seniors must pay for a yearbook with their graduation fees, it's a shame more of them aren't represented in it. Kentuckian pictures are now being taken in the Y-Lounge. You can help this year's staff give you a bigger and better Kentuckian if you'll sign up for your individual and group pictures now.

Don't be one of those persons who annually wander into the Kentuckian office sometime around the end of February and ask if it's too late to have their picture put in the Kentuckian. We can assure you, it is. All pictures used in the yearbook must be taken by the official photographer before the Nov. 3 deadline. Sign up for yours now!

On The Records

The record player on Becker's Laundry is driving me out of my mind. Every Saturday I and quite a few other residents of the Jewell Hall Barracks am tortured from noon until midnight by a few loud public address system blasting forth the football songs of Kentucky, North Carolina and Georgia Tech. Every 20 minutes the same three songs are repeated. I could sing everyone of them in my sleep. It is impossible to listen to the radio or carry on a conversation under a loud shout, when the PA system comes on.

The employees of the laundry claim that the University, Mr. Ken Kuhn of the Athletic Publicity Department, the Mayor of Lexington, the City Prosecutor, and the students of UK are loyal supporters of the program. I for one am not a loyal supporter—and I doubt if any of those who so enthusiastically support the plan would be happy with it if they spent several hours in the barracks some Saturday afternoon.

It wouldn't be so bad if the records were turned on at 8 p.m. and played until game time, and perhaps after the game, but 12 hours at a stretch is just too much to take. Perhaps the University will take notice and do something about it. I hope so, for the sanity of a good many girls.

Sincerely,
A Barracks Dweller

Modern Gettysburg?

Ten score and four years ago, our forefathers knew little about Bau-ness English. Now I am engaged in a new study, testing whether that so taught can long endure. I meet in a great classroom for that study. I have come to occupy a portion of this classroom so that this great study may survive. It is altogether fitting and proper that I should do this, but I cannot slacken. I cannot weaken. I cannot fail this course.

The learned men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above my poor power to add or detract. I will little note our long remember what is said here, but I cannot forget what I learn here.

It is for me the student, rather, to be dedicated to the studies before me—that from these honored scholars I take increased concentration to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion; that I highly resolve that these scholars shall not have studied in vain, that this classroom, under instruction, shall have a new impetus for learning—and that this classroom of the students, by the students, and for the students, shall not perish from the University.

Respectfully,
Stanley Masonberg

If the student who wrote a letter to the Kernel on the subject of athletic ticket books and signed it "I" will identify himself to the Kernel, we will print his letter. A fictitious name may be used for publication, but no letter can be printed unless the identity of its writer is known to the Kernel editor.—Ed.

STUDENTS! MAKE MONEY WRITING LUCKY STRIKE "HAPPY-GO-LUCKY" JINGLES!

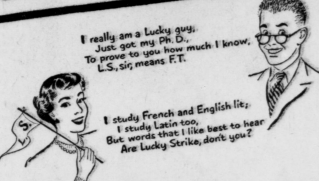

It's easy! It's fun! No box tops to send! No essays to write! Just write a simple four-line jingle, and you may make $25! Start today!

Write a "Happy-Go-Lucky" jingle, like those you see on this page, based on some phase of college life. If your jingle is selected for possible use in Lucky Strike advertising, we will pay you $25 for the right to use it and your name in our advertising. Start today. "Happy-Go-Luckies" will soon be running in your paper. Send in your jingles—as many as you like—right away, and $25 can be yours pronto if your jingle is chosen. Be the first to write a jingle in your school. Watch this paper for more "Happy-Go-Luckies."

READ THESE SIMPLE INSTRUCTIONS

1. Write your "Happy-Go-Lucky" four-line jingle on a plain piece of paper, or postcard, and send it to Happy-Go-Lucky, P.O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y.
2. Be sure your name, college and address are included — and that they are legible.

Every student of any college or university may submit jingles.

I really am a Lucky guy; Just got my Ph. D. To prove to you how much I know, L.S. sig. means F.T.

I study French and English lit; I study Latin too. But words that I like best to hear Are Lucky Strike, don't you?

Clara-fying Campus Capers

Hayrides, picnics, and more hayrides make up the social whirl for this weekend. It looks like cupid will be in rare form when all these couples climb into the trucks for a moonlight ride. Better watch out or that old love bug will get you this weekend.

STREET DANCES are fun too. Many are sponsoring a "real big one" in back of the SUB after the pep rally Friday night. It should be a fine affair.

BUFFET SUPPERS AND OPEN HOUSES steal the scene before and after the football game Saturday night. Never a game should pass without them.

ROYD HALL IS HOLDING OPEN HOUSE Sunday afternoon. Fellows, it's a fine time to meet all those gals you have been eyeing since the first day of school. Don't miss a golden opportunity.

HAVE YOU BEEN TO A SWEATER SWING YET? Fun, aren't they? Any Tuesday when you have finished that load of homework there's lots of good dance music in the Ballroom of the SUB. Remember it's either a stag or drag affair.

The draft, third-term worries, lack of funds, and their laziness are a few of the probable reasons given by the publicity bureau for the University's decreased enrollment this year of 3734 from 3788 enrollees of the last fall session.

Three prominent educators are scheduled to deliver the principal addresses during the 17th annual Education Conference and the 8th annual meeting of the Kentucky Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools to be held jointly Oct. 25-26 on the campus.

The speakers are Miss Florence Brattemeyer, and Dr. Thomas H. Brice, professors of education at Teachers College, Columbia University, and Dr. John Dale Russell, professor of education, University of Chicago.

15 Years Ago
Coach Clint Wynn dismissed the Kentucky Wildcats from their last workout in preparation for their encounter at Columbus, Ohio, with the Buckeyes of Ohio State. This will be the first time a Kentucky team has met a representative of the Big Ten Conference in seven years. Kentucky's first engagement with a representative of the Big Ten was on Oct. 12, 1895.

Deferred rushing, and providing for a special freshman section at football games formed the principal business discussed by the Interfraternity Council at their meeting, held at the Kappa Alpha house Monday night. Profainitease

By Bob Fain
 Pardon us, please, if the introduction is a bit short this week. We have just made the discovery that there are only 41 shopping days until Christmas and are in a great hurry to get to town. Nothing like avoiding the rush, we always say. I plan to be nice to everyone this year, especially to the draft board. If our deal with the Atlas Powder Company comes through, the board will get a big bang out of the present planned for them. But we love 'em.
 A man from a small town was attending a convention in the big city and he and some of his fellow hoodlums took in a burlesque show. The next day he was forced to see an oculist.
 "After I left the show last night," he explained, "my eyes were red and sore and inflamed."
 The oculist examined his eyes, thought a minute, and said, "After this, try blinking your eyes once or twice during the show . . . you won't miss much."
Judge: You are a very young man to give evidence, my boy. Are you sure you understand the full nature of an oath?
Young Witness: Yes, I once caddied for you.
Author: Yes, I'm doing very well. I make jokes and my wife makes pictures for them.
Painter: With me it's the opposite. I make the pictures and my wife jokes about them.
Teacher: "Cheer up, my good man," said the parson to the dying teacher. "You have a bright future ahead of you."
Student: "That's just it," gasped the teacher, "I can see it blinding."
Parent: Little Claude's mother had reluctantly allowed her precious child to attend public school. She gave the teacher a long list of instructions. "My Claude is so sensitive," she explained. "Don't ever punish him. Just slap the boy next to him. That will frighten Claude."
Teacher: The plain, prim little old lady who stood beside a male customer at a department store counter was nervous and embarrassed. Finally she said, "Please, Miss, I'd like two packages of bath room stationery."
Customer: Nice girls don't run after men, but I know some who can get up to a fairly good trot.
Teacher: I always thought she had a face

Careful With Cards
 The members of Sucky Circle wish to thank the students who participated in the card section for their fine cooperation. We have heard many compliments on the candle-light displays and several of the card tricks. In spite of the confusion which always accompanies a first performance, the production was admirable.
 However, we regret that some students who took advantage of the card section privileges failed to realize the cost of the card equipment. Many cards were destroyed or taken from the stadium. This loss is needless and can not be afforded by Sucky. The Circle requests that each student be responsible for the cards in that particular area and be quick to criticize and report card abusers.
 Here's hoping for a better performance this week.

PERSHING RIFLES stand at attention as they drill for prospective members of Pershing Rifles. Membership drive for the organization started this week.

Pershing Riflemen Form Select Group

By Carley Moncre

This UK boys and girls is the Pershing Rifles, a crack drill team founded in 1892 by the then Second Lieutenant John J. Pershing at the University of Nebraska. The UK chapter was organized in 1931. All tryouts for the Pershing Rifles, whose membership drive started this week with an exhibition drill, are carefully watched by their officers for military aptitude and bearing and, from time to time, eliminations are held. Those who are finally approved by their officers are taken into the organization in the early spring.

THE UK UNIT of Pershing Rifles, Co. C-1, engages in a competition every spring with other units from seven Ohio schools. At this meet the Kentucky Conspirator Squad, composed of juniors in advanced ROTC, also presents an exhibition drill, using Civil War uniforms and maneuvers.

Kentucky has won 12 of the 15 meets in which it has competed. Last year, however, Ohio State's Pershing Rifles came in first, and the UK boys are more anxious to recapture their former supremacy this year and bring home the victory.

WHEN SECOND LIEUTENANT Pershing, later General of the U.S. Armies, founded the Pershing Rifles, Dr. Stephen Corey, president emeritus of the College of the Bible here in Lexington, was a student at Nebraska. Although he had to work his way through college and thus excused from active ROTC participation, he knew all the boys in the Pershing Rifles and he also knew Pershing, for whom he has a very high regard. He believes that Pershing's disciplinary ability was the secret of his success, both as a military instructor and as a soldier and leader.

Dr. Corey especially recalls an incident when Pershing was drilling the cadet battalion and had his cadets running, dropping, and then firing against an imagined enemy. However, the cadets were not supposed to fire until Pershing gave the command, "Ready, aim, fire!" Pershing stood beside a cadet and told him, "Shoot off your gun." The cadet fired, and all the other cadets followed suit. Since he had not yet given the "Ready, aim, fire" command, Pershing gave his cadets a stiff dressing-down for not obeying orders. Forever afterward, the Nebraska cadets never fired without first hearing "Ready, aim, fire."

DR. COREY ALSO remembers the great celebration at Nebraska when their Pershing Rifles won the National Competitive Drills in 1936. Pershing was sitting in a hotel lobby conversing with Charles Dawes, later the vice-president of the U.S. when Coolidge was president. It was the custom to toss the commandant of the victorious unit into the air three times, and the Nebraska boys burst into the hotel lobby to get Pershing. Pershing was a god sport but it was a very daring thing to do, as Dr. Corey admits.

In 1897, Pershing left Nebraska to fight in the Indian Wars out west. In 1898, he participated in the Spanish-American War, and he later became world-famous as "Black Jack" Pershing of World War I brilliance.

DR. COREY GRADUATED from Nebraska in 1908 and went on to Rochester, N.Y., where he studied for the ministry. He was later very active in the Foreign Christian Missionary Society and, in 1938, he came to the College of the Bible as President. After retiring several times and always being called back, he finally permanently retired last July, and is now chaplain at the U.S. Public Hospital here.

Twins Sought For Roles In Guignol's First Play

Tryouts for the Guignol Theater's first major production for the 1950-51 season will be held Sunday, from 2 to 5 p.m. in the main theater, Fine Arts Building, Director Wallace N. Briggs announced Tuesday.

This production, Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" comedy, to be presented the week of Dec. 4-9, calls for a cast of four women and 10 men. Several of these parts require singing.

Brother-sister "twins" are needed for the roles of Viola and Sebastian. These pseudo twins should have similar height, weight, mannerisms, voice characteristics, and features necessary for associative identity.

Mr. Briggs also said that Guignol needs costume, stage, and office personnel. Interested persons may get additional information at the Guignol office, first floor, Fine Arts Building.

College Of Pharmacy To Observe Week

The College of Pharmacy in Louisville is making preparations for National Pharmacy Week which is observed annually from Oct. 29 to Nov. 4.

The secretary of the American Pharmaceutical Association, Miss Gloria Hartman, suggested that students take part in observing this week by helping to disseminate health information to the public.

Various radio stations in Louisville will allot ten minute programs for talks on specific diseases or timely topics relating to the pharmacy profession.

Philosophy Club Meet Will Plan Activities

The Philosophy Club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Monday in Room 106, Frazer Hall, John Allard, president, announced.

This meeting is for old and new members and will concentrate on planning the year's activities. Short talks will be made by student and faculty members of the club and refreshments will be served.

The primary purpose of this undergraduate organization is to give students a chance to present and discuss fundamental issues and ideas of philosophy. Every student in the University is eligible to participate in the club's activities.

Agriculture Council Sets Date For Show

Officers elected at the first meeting of the Agricultural Council are Herb Brown, president, Dorothy Smith secretary, and Arnold Taylor, treasurer.

At this meeting the date for the fall festival sponsored by the Black and Bruile Club was set for Nov. 17. Booths will be set up by the various organizations connected with the College of Agriculture and Home Economics. Money from the festival will go for scholarships for the judging team.

Cars Parked on Main Drive Will Be Tagged Says SGA

Parking tickets will be given to all cars parked by the yellow lines on the drive in front of the Student Union Building from Limestone Street to Frazer Hall, according to L. G. Smith of the Judicial Committee of the SGA.

Since parking in this zone creates a hazard, the no parking law will be strictly enforced.

Algie Reece Named UK Swim Coach

To Head First Team Here In Eight Years

By Lewis Donohew

Alfred M. (Algie) Reece, head of the Physical Education and Health Department at Transylvania College, has been appointed swimming coach for the first UK swimming team since 1942. Athletic Director Bernie A. Shively said this week.

Reece has been with the Transylvania athletic department since his graduation from there in 1923 except for a brief interval as an instructor in physical education at UK in '42 and '43 and a stretch in the Navy during the war.

Shively also said the Southeastern Conference will be invited to hold its meet in the Coliseum pool this year.

For the first time in history there will be a home pool for the swimming team. The old UK teams of '27-'42 were forced to hold their practices at Richmond and Berea and have all their meets in enemy waters.

The former teams were further handicapped by rarely having a professional coach, Sherman Hinkbein.

In 1939 the team acquired a professional coach, Lloyd B. Ramsey, and went through their first and only undefeated season, winning nine meets.

The new swimming coach, who received his Master's Degree from the University of Kentucky in 1946, has been an instructor for the swimming courses sponsored in Lexington each year by the Herald-Leader.

Reece, a native of Lexington, is a member of the Lexington Exchange Club, and the Kentucky and American Associations of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

During his stay at Transylvania, Reece has served as freshman football and basketball coach, varsity basketball coach, and director of physical education.

As part of his duties while at the University of Kentucky on his previous stay, he was athletic director and coach at University High school.

Home base for the UK paddlers, the Coliseum pool (75' long and 42'-6" race lanes wide) meets full Olympic specifications and any records established there will be official.

A featured innovation at the UK swimming hole is the portable observation system which allows coaches to watch their men as they appear underwater. The underwater lighting system for the pool has lights which shine through these portholes, from rooms behind each side of the pool. These lights may be removed, leaving only the glass portholes, when coaches wish to study the techniques of their swimmers.

The UK swimming team plans to take part in six meets this season. Definitely on their schedule so far are three old rivals, Cincinnati, Vanderbilt, and Georgia Tech. These along with three other meets, will comprise the full schedule for the initial season of the revival of the sport at UK.

The schedule: — Away Jan. 13—Cincinnati — Home Feb. 10—Vanderbilt — Home Feb. 26—Ga. Tech — Away Tentative—Tennessee and Xavier (one other team to be added).

PINEAPPLE—Hawaiian-born Leroy (Pineapple) Ka-Ne is expected to give Wildcat goal-guarders a rough time when he performs here Saturday night for the University of Dayton Flyers.

Dayton Flyers Feature Hawaiian Backfield Ace

A hula-hipped Hawaiian named Leroy Ka-Ne may do what no other ball carrier has been able to do—score on Kentucky—when the Cats take on the Dayton Flyers for their weekly football engagement Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

Ka-Ne—pronounced just like it's spelled—looks as one of the most serious threats to the Blue and White double stripes that has appeared on Stoll Field this year.

In 1949, he carried the oval 99 times for 777 yards of an average of 7.8 per try. He can drive like a diesel, but is as shifty as loose sand in the open field.

And the Flyers, who seem to have little hope of upsetting the nation's sixth-ranking team, will be trying to spring their 196-pound loose on a 712 punt just to be able to say they scored.

But that will be a man-sized job, even with Ka-Ne.

Dayton was whipped, 46-14, last Sunday by St. Bonaventure, a team that hardly ranks with the major powers of the country. The Flyers, trailing 20-0 at the half, scored early in the third period on a 17-yard pass and climaxed a late drive of 92 yards by getting their second touchdown with only 45 seconds left in the game.

Perhaps the best gauge on the relative strength of Kentucky and Dayton comes from the 1949 campaign. The Flyers lost each time by two touchdowns in two scraps with Xavier, while Kentucky beat Xavier by two, winning 21-7 at Cincinnati.

The main hope of Coach Joe Gavin this year is a sophomore contingent to bolster a 15-man returning letterman group. Heading the list of second year men is Bobby Becker, a 150-pound halfback; Paul Collins, another breakaway runner and an excellent pass receiver, and Frank Singula, a quarterback.

Gavin said earlier this week that he was toying with the idea of starting his sophs against the Cats. Ka-Ne has been handicapped somewhat with a back injury since the opening game with Youngstown, which the Flyers won, 6-0.

On the Kentucky side of the picture, this week's game may see the return to action of Co-Captain Shorty Jamerson, who has seen action in only the opening game. Jamerson and Emery Clark, who also has been on the shelf with an aggravating injury, may get the opening bids for the halfback posts if they haven't mended satisfactorily.

The other members of the squad who were banged up in the Ole Miss fracas—Bob Gain, Bill Leskovar, Doug Moseley, Harold Woodfill, Bill Schaffrik and Clayton Webb—also will be ready to see action.

Gain and Moseley were the most seriously hurt of the quintet, Gain receiving a painful laceration of some ribs he cracked this summer in an auto accident, and Moseley suffering a severely twisted knee.

Leskovar, who was knocked out as he was tackled after a 28-yard gallop, got a cut lip from his own teeth, and received a severe jar of the brain, but has recovered fully.

The other three received minor injuries and saw action later in the game.

Thus, it seems the contest boils down to a question of whether the Cats can stop Ka-Ne and how much of a score they care to run up against the Flyers.

After years of painstaking research, historians have made the world-shaking discovery that it was Confucius who threw the overalls in Mrs. Murphy's chowder.

Cat-Vol Frosh Scrap Tonight

UK Squad Includes 26 State Men

By E. T. Kirk
Twenty-six Kentuckians, largest collection of home-state talent in UK football history, form the bulk of a strapping 50-man Wildcats yearling team which will be unveiled against the Tennessee frosh Friday night at 8 o'clock on Stoll field.

Assistant Coach Ernal Allen said that the starting line-up is undetermined because the Freshman squad did not start practicing as a unit until this past Monday. Allen, who along with Bill McCubbin and Dick Hobeay coaches the Freshies, did reveal that Tommy Adkins, a 185-pounder from Corbin, would be the defensive center. The Kentucky line will average better than 200 pounds; the backfield, around 170 pounds.

The coaches haven't been too impressed with the squad through early drills. Allen said. But he added, "The lack of practice is definitely a factor."

Fifty-four graders are out for the Freshman team; two are injured. Every player will get a chance to show his wares.

"Since about 20 of these boys will be moving up to the varsity next year, we want to see who can play football," Allen said.

Cosch Allen, a star Wildcat half-back before the war and in 1946 while he was eligible, said that the improved football standard set by the University has been conducive to better high school football in Kentucky.

In 1948, the first year of post-war Freshman ball, 18 of 50 men were Kentuckians. Last year some 15 of 41 hailed from the home state.

Kentucky's freshmen have compensated in part for the varsity's perennial ineptness against Tennessee. The Kittens have beaten the baby Vols of Col. Bob Neyland for the past two years: 7-0 in 1946 and 21-7 at Knoxville last year.

The Kentucky frosh lost to Vanderbilt and Alabama after beating Tennessee in 1948. The 1949 squad downed Vanderbilt and Tennessee, and had a game with Cincinnati raised out.

Remaining games on the Kittens schedule finds Vanderbilt here on Oct. 28 and Cincinnati playing host on Nov. 3.

Wildcats Wallop Mississippi 27-0 To Stay Unbeaten, Unscored Upon

Kentucky Margin Is Surprise To Many

By Fred Lawson

Kentucky's powerful Wildcats, gaining momentum with every game, rolled over a game, but out-chased band of Ole Miss Rebels, 27-0, last Saturday night on Stoll Field.

The triumph, witnessed by 22,000 fans, was the second straight Conference victory and firmly established the Cats as a Southeastern Conference power. It was win number three for the season.

Mississippi, rated one of the country's finest offensive eleven, failed to score on Kentucky for the second straight year. Last year the Rebels were beaten 47-0. The Wildcats have yet to be scored on this year.

Kentucky took the opening kick-off and marched 64 yards for the first score. The Cats scored again in the first quarter, then added a touchdown in the second and third quarters.

The fans had hardly settled down before Kentucky had its first score. Webb took the opening kick-off and ran it back to the Kentucky 36. Parilli passed to Zaranika for 15 yards to the Mississippi 49. Leskovar carried twice for 18 yards making it first down on the Rebel 31. Then Parilli faked back and threw a long pass to Bruno on the Mississippi 4. The pass was incomplete, but the officials ruled interference on the play and Kentucky had a first down on the 4 yard line.

In two plays Leskovar took the ball to the one yard line. On the third play Leskovar rammed over with the first touchdown. Bobby Brooks failed to convert and Kentucky led 6-0.

The powerful Kentucky attack struck again in this quarter. Late in the period the Cats had the ball on their own 20 yard line when Hart kicked out of bounds. Leskovar started the 80 yard scoring drive by blasting up the middle for 28 yards to the Kentucky 48. Leskovar was injured on the play and had to leave the game. Lawson, who came in for Leskovar, made six yards to the Rebel 46.

Parilli passed to Bruno on the Ole Miss 30, then Bruno took another pass to the 13. Lawson and Webb took the ball to the one yard line and Parilli went over on a quarterback sneak.

Brooks converted and the score was 13-0.

Ole Miss now looked like a beaten team. But the scrappy Rebels refused to quit. Mississippi took the kick-off on their own 25 and with Dottley doing most of the rushing, drove to the Wildcats 42. But Kentucky held and took the ball here as Dottley failed to pick up a first down.

Fumbles, which hurt Ole Miss all night, set up the third Kentucky touchdown. Dottley fumbled and Wannamaker recovered on the Mississippi 20 yard line. It took only four plays for the Cats to mark up the third score.

Fucci picked up five yards on an end-around.

Parilli then tossed to Fucci and he was stopped on the 4 yard line. Martin took it to the two and Lawson drove over tackle for the score. Brooks kick was good and now the Cats led 20-0.

Kentucky struck explosively at the start of the third quarter to mark up its last touchdown.

Three plays after the start of the third period Ole Miss fumbled again and McClendon recovered for the Cats on the Rebel 24. On the first play Parilli faked back, spotted Zaranika in the open on the south sideline and threw a long one to him. Zaranika made a beautiful catch as he went high in the air for the ball and fell over the goal line.

Kentucky made 19 first downs and Ole Miss 10. The Cats ground out 224 yards rushing to the Rebel's 179. Parilli completed 5 out of 7 tosses for 88 yards and 1 touchdown.

Leskovar's injury stopped the ground-gaining duel between the Wildcats fullback and the Rebel's John Dottley. Leskovar only carried the ball 7 times but he gained 53 yards. Dottley carried 29 times for a net gain of 88 yards.
