About UK...

How It All Started

The school was started as part of Kentucky University under a cooperative plan authorized by the legislature. In 1878, when the people of Kentucky decided to establish a state institution of higher learning, the Agricultural and Mechanical College was separated from Kentucky University and reestablished on land given by Lexington and Fayette County. To provide a separate campus for the new institution, the City of Lexington had donated its 50-acre fairground and park which had been utilized as a bivouac area for Union troops. Lexington and Fayette County contributed $50,000 for the construction of buildings, and President James K. Patterson, whose service to the institution began in 1869, lent his personal savings to supplement the building fund. Thirty years later the legislature changed the name of the institution to State University, Lexington, Kentucky, and gave it additional financial support. In 1916 the name was changed to the University of Kentucky.

A Small City

The University of Kentucky is a small city in itself. It has its own post office, bookstore (basement, Student Center), closed circuit television network, radio station (WBKY 91.3 FM, third floor, McVey Hall), newspaper, printing plant (basement, Journalism Building), cafeterias (Student Center and K. Lair Grilles open to campus visitors on a cash basis), theatre, libraries, Public Safety Division (building on northeast corner of Rose Street and Euclid Avenue), and hospital (Albert B. Chandler Medical Center).

Free Bus Service

The University operates a free bus service continually throughout the day for all students, faculty, staff and visitors. Those who do not wish to park on campus may do so free of charge in the Cooper Drive Lot and ride the bus. Bus schedules are available on the buses, from the Student Center Information Desk or Public Safety Division.

A Place to Park

Visitors may park in areas marked "Visitor" and in any areas with parking meters. A guest pass, which may be obtained from the main gate, South Limestone, must be displayed on the windshield of cars parked in "Visitors" areas. "A" areas are reserved for vehicles with "A" permits only; "B" areas for vehicles with either "A" or "B" permits; "C" areas for "C" permit holders only.

UK Publications

Many publications provide specific information about the University. Some of these are:

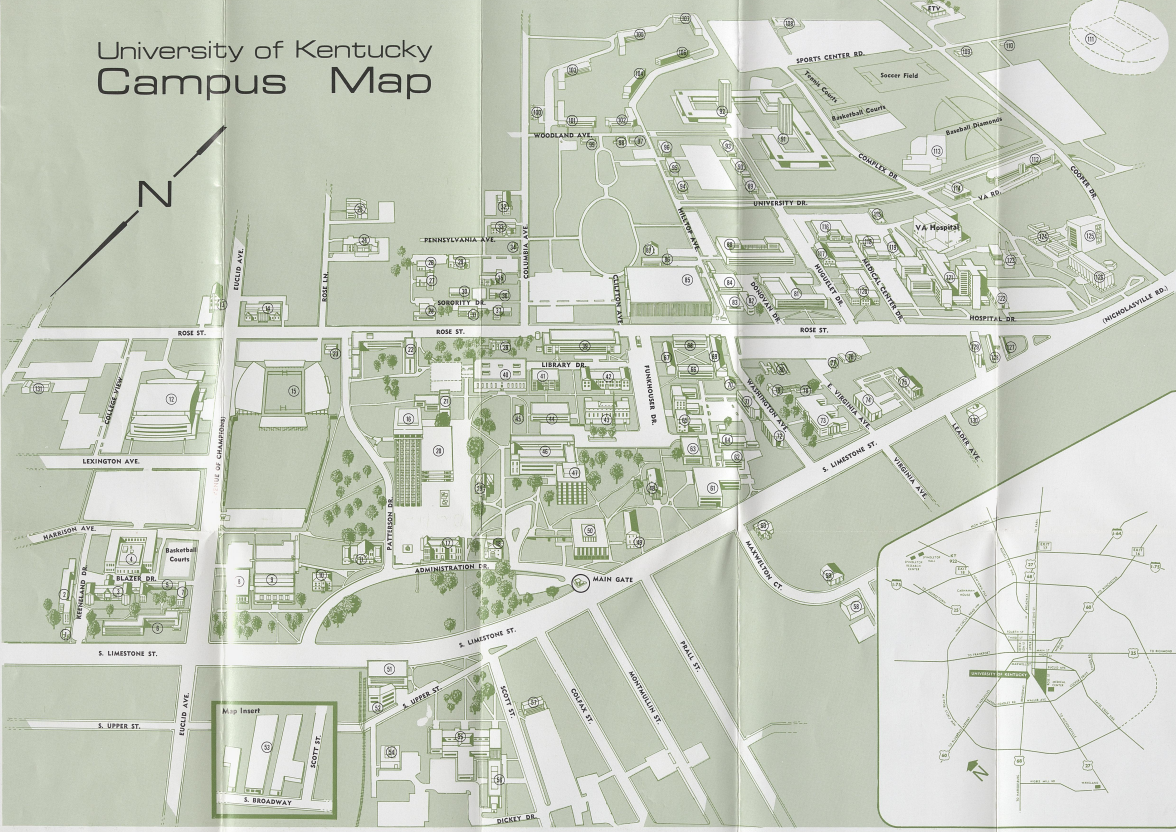

- UK FACTS—small, pocket-size leaflet with general information
- UK TODAY—brochure portraying campus life and including general information
- CAMPUS MAPS—large and small maps of the campus
- UK PREVIEW—primarily an admission brochure
- CROSSROADS—UK student handbook (Dean of Students Office)
- COLLEGE BULLETINS—various fields of study (Deans' Offices)

For information about these and other publications available, contact Publications Bureau, Rm. 101, Old Agr. Bldg. Phone: 257-2808.
