April 21st

The Faculty met at the usual hour.

Messrs. Gaywood and M<sup>r</sup>. Elroy were honorably discharged.

Permission was given to Mr. J. H. Stearns to occupy one of the vacant rooms on the grounds. T. C. Laughlin was reported for inattention in classroom and general disorder. The Sec. was directed to notify his mother of his conduct and to request her cooperation in correcting these errors of her son.

H. H. Calicote was arraigned on charge of attending circus. He acknowledged his crime, but said that he had never heard that the University regulations forbade attending a circus. His excuse was accepted, but he was directed to inform himself with regard to the laws of the University, as ignorance would no longer shield him from punishment.

Messrs. Huber and Jewell were reported for general neglect of duty. Huber's general conduct was reduced 20% and he was required to give promise of good behavior for rest of session. Jewell was admonished that unless he attended to his duties better he would be sent home. Crist gave as his reason for late absence that he was attending to the sick. The Faculty then adjourned.
