Dear Girlie: Your letter came to hand all O.K. as usual, and I wish you could get mine as promptly as that postmistress a Democrat? If so, she probably has become careless, thinking she will be "ousted" out of office soon anyway.

Didn't I answer all of your last letter? I thought I did. Well, when I come home next summer and we are ~~ie~~ secluded in that "cozy corner" I'll answer all the questions over again and then see if I leave any out. It's very seldom I read a letter over while answering it; but answers from
