Dear John and May -
I think I will write to you this Sunday afternoon while there is time.
It being rather blustery and stormy and not feeling very much like going out - we stayed at home from church to-day.

Thinking it might - prove a lonesome day for Lucinda and Mother - I invited them over to dinner and so made a part of the time pass away
a little more pleasantly and swiftly.
