YOU AND YOUR AUTO

One of the best cures for spring fever is a congenial drive through the Blue Grass on a balmy day or moonlight night. But there is always the danger that this fever will develop into a delirium of twisted steel, shrieks and blood.

A COACH'S QUALIFICATIONS

When Harry Stuhldehner arrived at the University of Wisconsin to assume his duties as head coach, he was greeted with a list of six requirements which the administration hoped would be fulfilled by him.

the reason that such high qualifications are being set out in such a formal manner. As has been pointed out, the man who can offer such qualifications as those above noted, would be wasting his time coaching football; he should be the head of some million-dollar corporation, or of the nation itself.

CUTTIN' UP THE CAMPUS with "Scoop"

- CAMPUSIGHTS: 1. The iris garden near White Hall. 2. The Kernel news room on Monday or Thursday afternoon.

DON'T LOOK NOW, BUT — your mouth is hanging open. (Yeah, I know. I opened it!)

UNIVERSITYTES: The Campus Griper—There are just a few things he gripes about... among his pet peeves he includes his profs, his classes, his girl friend, his grades, the weather, his health, the food, studying, his debts, the exams, etc., etc., etc.

DON'T YOU FEEL FUNNY WHEN—

- 1. The tags break you at a dance? 2. The tags don't break you at a dance? 3. You walk into a class and the prof greets you with a quiz?

"I am a failure. People have got so they won't pay attention to what I say any more."—George Bernard Shaw.

"I will positively refuse to allow necking in my classes until I come to the subject of sex; even then, only hand-holding will be permitted."—Prof William F. Byron, Northwestern.

Gentlemen farmers are those who seldom raise anything except their hats.—Texas Ranger.

Hoi Pollui

After Friday night's drill meet the Kentucky Pershing Rifles marched out to a popular trough and celebrated their triumph in Foreign Legion fashion. They used the winner's trophy as a prop.

To most girls a campus means hours jarring the window and kicking the furniture; but to roommates Frances Wells and Judie McVean it means orchids. Who the plutocrats are, I don't know—but what gentlemen!

Alphag Dick Sproles had an invitation to the Triangle's trample at the Ashland Country Club last Friday. So with 20 cents he started out for the forum of forms. But he got his country clubs mixed and ended up at the Lexington Country Club where the Kayvays were working. They had a very select mob, so Sproles had to go elsewhere. Bus fare to Ashland absorbed his wealth before he went any farther. Though some of us would walk a mile for a Camel, the journey "the piled" was too grueling for Sproles, and the engineers went spiroless.

Out Phi Sig way, some of the brothers were asking Lloyd Hankins who he escorted to the Lamp and Cross shindig. "Aw," said Hank. "I've forgotten. Kay, somebody or other. I can't think of her last name."

The slump in the beer industry and the gloominess of the Tavern proprietors is attributable directly to a doctor who told Charles Dilley "super-powerhouse" Mades to lay off.

Phi Delta Willie Huston is trying to steal the show from Jim Goff. The victim if his attentions is the interesting Betty Lou Holstein. But win or lose neither boy should be regretful.

From a few in the know we are told to hold a stop watch on the Rice Walker—Lucille Thornton match. He has her planned now but she might not lose her gambit.

Complaints come from swains who are tired of the endless clasp-dish out by Mayme Maddox and Kay Kennedy. Too much is enough.

D. Ray McCammish would keep a detective agency bewildered if they were assigned to cover her courting antics. Friday night she convinced Carl Vannoy, strangely, that she ought to be at the Sigma Nu buffet supper with Reynolds Watkins. After buffet supping herself she had a late date with the captain of Purdue's Zouaves. Rather belatedly, Watkins claims he knew it all the time.

Then at the dance Saturday Miss McCammish had twenty-seven boys tearfully wandering about—for suddenly she was nowhere to be found.

Connie Bisbee and Betty Murphy have 126 pictures and signs on the walls of their room. They want to know if anyone wants to see their etchings.

Tire tracks on the Alphagum lawn show that a madman mistook the front yard for the Indianapolis Speedway. What next?

With summer coming on it's a good idea to renew your writing to the love you left behind. You know, the one you tore yourself away from last September, and then wrote passionately and daily but finally faded to an occasional note.

Speaking of racquets reminds me that the University has a Grade A tennis team. By beating Indiana, Purdue, Notre Dame and Wayne, and dropping an exciting match to Michigan State, 5-4 the Wildcat netizens established an unprecedented respect for Blue Grass tennis in the North. And if you think professors are inhuman, Professor Downing would have routed any such thought. He is really a prince.

T-men George Tulloch and Bobby Evans spent lots of their time in Detroit "shooting high" with elevator girls.

The Clinic, Patient No. 3 This time Martha Alexander was captured. She is as popular on the dance floor as home runs are to a slinger. The trim Tri-delt's writes this character inventory as to why she likes her head man:

You're expecting a lot of a mere freshman. Every girl has her own opinion about what the boy she goes with is like. Here's mine, but what's my opinion about the rest of femininity? I endeavor to describe a mighty senior. Naturally, a girl can only sit back in awe and admiration at the dignity displayed by a senior. Am I right? (Ed. Note: No!) He has a great and valuable combination of blue eyes, curly hair, cute smile, and cargoes of personality. He has very good judgment and doesn't expect too much of my mental endowments. He never gets jealous, which is very unusual. He's thoughtful and respects my feelings—and he's the way, in blue, my favorite color. Need I say more?

The Alphagums report that since Stevens whooped it up three weeks ago the Stevens vs. Coyte romance has sunk to a verbal bout.

Rhythm Ramblings By BOB YOUNGBERG

We've all heard of the atrocious and extraordinary huge amounts of mammas put out for orchestras, but I don't think any of us have taken much stock in these unseemingly exaggerated statements. In order to further disillusion you jazz hounds, I would like to submit a few typical prices at which bands are currently being booked for one week engagements in various theatres, cafes, hotels, etc. These figures are first hand and from a reliable source, but don't hold them against me. At the top of the heap is the Rudy Vallees unit which demands $12,500, and not far behind is the Waring Pennandians outfit willing to play for $10,000. Then priced at $8500 are the bands of Eddie Duchin, Wayne King and Paul Whiteman. Ray Noble, Jack Hylton, Ted Fio Rito, Guy Lombardo and Glen Gray are willing to settle for $7500. While Bab Calloway and Hal Kemp are satisfied with $6000 and so on down to Ina Ray Hutton for $4,000 and Little Jack Little more than pleased to entertain for $3,000. Oh mama, why didn't you make me practice on my violin!

One program that none of you should miss is the entertaining as well as educational Baker's broadcast on Sunday evening at 5:30 either over WCKY in Covington, or WSB, Atlanta. Besides Robert Ripley's fascinating "Believe It or Not," facts which are put on in the form of short playlets, ultra sweet rhythm is administered by Ozzie Nelson's orchestra, ably assisted by the lovely Harriette Hilliard, the collegian's favorite.

Hal Kemp, currently broadcasting over WLW, played "I'd Rather Lead A Band" and interpolated some pertinent remarks about preferring the baton to any other line of endeavor. Subsequently, he received approximately 500 letters from college students who confessed to the same urge. Kemp estimates that out of the total number of school boys who speak to him concerning this captivating subject, that at least 25 per cent aspire to conduct an orchestra.

Here and There... Clyde Trask put on a fine show for the patrons of the AGR formal last Saturday night with his unusually adept siphonist and attractive songbird in the person of Carol Grable. Bob Crosby with his newly-acquired New Orleans swing band has certainly reached the top in a hurry. These Lucky Strike Sweepstakes seem to be arousing considerable interest among the Hill Parade addicts. The Great Maximilian Adelbert Baer of ring fame has gone into the music racket and is now waving a baton in front of a group of musicians in California. Guylum Bardo, our Royal Canadian friend, declares, "We who play and sing are fortunate. Our material is brought to us on a silver platter. The problem is to choose wisely. Comedians, on the other hand, have to struggle and labor for their material, which is the script."—Andy Anderson sounded like big time from the Senior ball at the University of Louisville last Monday night; here's wishing you and your fine orchestra a world of success, and I know that you'll be right up there shortly... Horace Heldt returns to WLW and MBS tonight at 9... Tommy Dorsey and his Clambake Seven are stopping 'em cold at the Hotel Lincoln in New York. Isham Jones' old stand if you remember. He's left for the West Coast along with Henry King, Buddy Duchin, Little Jack Little and Jan Garber... Perry Como, vocalist extraordinary with Ted Weems' orchestra, is constantly keeping that aggregation from being just another band... Personal prediction: You'll hear plenty of "Mary Had a Little Lamb" before the summer's over.

IMPOSSIBLE?—not at all. Year after year Long Distance telephone service grows longer in reach—shorter in the time needed for making connections—higher in quality of transmission—lower in cost. Since the first of this year, Long Distance calling has been made cheaper in two ways. 1. Rates are now reduced after 7 P. M. each night on person-to-person calls to most points. As formerly, station-to-station rates are lower after 7 P. M. 2. The same low night rates now apply all day Sunday on both types of service. Just another proof that the Bell System is constantly striving to fit telephone service more closely to your needs in every possible way.

Why not take advantage of these "Bargain Hours" to keep in closer touch with home? BELL TELEPHONE SYSTEM

HALF & HALF MAKES ONE SWELL SMOKE!

You'll like a wife that's a mother-in-law's wire: "Arrive Friday." Sweet as the news that she's changed her plans. Fragrant, full-bodied tobacco that won't bite the tongue—in a tin that won't bite the fingers. Made by our exclusive modern process including patent No. 1,770,920. Smells good. Makes your pipe welcome anywhere. Tastes good. Your password to pleasure!

Not a bit of bite in the tobacco or the Telescope Tin, which gets smaller and smaller as you use up the tobacco. No bitten fingers as you reach for a load, even the last one.

day morning at the Green Tree tea room. Mary Walker Flowers was toast-mistress and a trio composed of Martha Warren, Mary Cullen, and Margaret Whalen sang several numbers.
 Short talks were given by Dean Sarah Blanding and Dean P. K. Holmes. A reading, "My Girls and I," was given by Mrs. Marylee Collins.
 The room was decorated with purple and yellow iris in crystal bowls.
 Guests included Dean Sarah G. Blanding, Dean P. K. Holmes, Mrs. Marylee Collins, Mrs. Ina MacMonie, Miss Elizabeth DeShea, Miss Dora Berkeley and the following seniors: Emma Lou Carroll, Martha Hall, Martha Christian, Daisy Cain, Matty Lee Redwine, Mary E. Collins, Pauline Wilmot, Mary Fox, and Mary Potts.

Chicago Publisher To Assist Writers

Carlyle Straub to Compile Anthology of Unknown Poets' Efforts

Announcement has been received by the department of journalism of the compiling of a contemporary poetry anthology to be called "Muse," under the direction of Carlyle Straub, publisher, of Chicago. The purpose of the volume is to assist unknown writers of verse in finding more responsive and remunerative channels for the publication of their work. Poems of more than two thousand contemporary poets will appear in the first edition. Prizes in individual work for the first edition will be awarded as follows: for the most original verse, $50; for the most original sonnet, $15; and for the most original quatrain, $10. The awarding of prizes will be governed by the consensus of opinion of reputable literary critics in association with an able editorial staff.

 Those interested in competing for the prizes or contributing to the anthology may write D. Wilford Wine, managing editor, care of Carlyle Straub, publisher, 20 East Jackson boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, for further information.

Tour of Blue Grass Made by Students

One hundred students in the College of Agriculture under the direction of Prof. W. J. Harris, assistant professor of animal husbandry, made a sixty-five mile tour of the Blue Grass region in and near Lexington last Saturday morning. The students visited such farms as Walnut Hill, seeing the greatest of all sires of thoroughbreds, Peter Volo; Faraway farm,

Let Your Baggage Go Home by the LAUNDRY ROUTE

Arrange to ship it off this June by your old friend Railway Express and when Commencement Day dawns, be fancy free to board the train for home. Anything — trunks, bags, books, golf clubs, cups, even your diploma—Railway Express will pick them all up on your phone call, forward them at passenger train speed, deliver them safe and sound at your home. And it's economical. Railway Express rates are low, and you pay nothing at all for pick-up and delivery service. There are no draymen's demands, no tips, no standing in line, and sureness is made doubly sure by Railway Express's double receipts, with $50.00 liability included on every piece you ship. Besides, you have the choice of forwarding your things either prepaid or collect, and they'll be home as soon as you are. No other way of shipping gives you this kind of service, as you probably know, and to get it you have only to phone the nearest Railway Express office.
