SGA Election Today To Fill Vacancies In Two Colleges; Amendment To Be Considered

Students To Vote In 'Y' Lounge Of Union Building

Students in all colleges of the University are eligible for voting today on a proposed amendment to the Student Government Association Constitution...

Candidates Listed Candidates in the contests are Reginald Bowen and M. J. Evans. Arts and Sciences upperclass man; William Jeanne Canada and Betty Lee Fishman, Arts and Sciences upperclass woman; Ann Biggerstaff and Gerry Duggan, Arts and Sciences lowerclass woman...

Representatives thus chosen include: Billy Jackson, Graduate representative-at-large; Roger Yell, Engineering lowerclass man; William B. Wrench, Arts and Sciences lowerclass man; Joseph Covington, Law representative-at-large; and B. Rose, Commerce lowerclass woman...

Shropshire Outstanding In Current Guignol Role

Angel Street Chills Theater-Goers

Playing her most outstanding role in the play is the "Angel Street" actress, Mrs. Manningham in the exciting drama, "Angel Street" gives an excellent portrayal of a woman who is slowly being driven mad. A capacity crowd was present Monday, opening night...

Convincing Interpretation Giving a most convincing interpretation as Elizabeth, the kindly housekeeper in sympathy with her mistress, Opal Palmer is her usual able self in the part. A Guignol veteran, Mrs. Palmer adds much to the play. Jennings Kearby and W. B. Wrench are finer in their roles as the policemen.

Excellent Speaking Voice Not only is Miss Shropshire's speaking voice good, but her gestures and facial expressions are in exact accordance with the role she enacts. El Pops, who has been appearing in the play since the summer of 1930, makes his eighth appearance at Guignol in one of his most demanding roles, that of the madman, the criminal maniac who constantly suppresses his emotions only to lash out at his righteously, he adds admirably to the suspense of the play.

Lieut. McClintic Now On Campus

First Lieut. Virgil McClintic, formerly attached to the 83rd Infantry Division, has arrived in Lexington where he will work with the military department at the University for three months.

Where was he on Thursday February 22, from 1 a.m. until 12 noon? Fewer students came to Memorial Hall on Ponderas Day when Governor Simon Willis, Dr. Frank McCoy, and President Herman Donovan appeared, than have attended regular convocation, and considerable speculation concerning the whereabouts of students has been advanced.

New Students Present Fortunately, enough townpeople and faculty turned out so the distinguished guests were not obliged to occupy empty seats, but where were the students? Locked from natural retreats such as the Union building and the library, they flocked back to the hall, downtown and to favorite haunts near-by.

Parties Arranged Familiar restaurants took the appearance of Saturday nights. The

Cats Seek Eighth Games In Southeastern Games During Three-Day Meet

Big Blue Volts Are Favorites In 15th SEC

By Tommy Gish Seeking their eighth Southeastern Conference championship in 15 years, the Wildcats are slated to meet several strong teams in the tournament which is now in progress, in the Army in Louisville.

At press time on Thursday, Kentucky was expected to win by a comfortable margin over the Georgia from Florida. If this prediction comes true, the Cats will meet a strong team from Louisiana State University tonight at 8 o'clock.

Eleven To Participate Eleven teams will participate in the tournament with Tennessee and Kentucky favored to reach the final. In the lower bracket with Kentucky are Alabama, Tulane, LSU, and Florida. Tennessee, Georgia Tech, Georgia, Auburn and Mississippi are in the upper bracket.

Most serious obstacle in Kentucky's road to the final is Tennessee. Tennessee will have a tough time with Georgia Tech, one of the lower bracket teams to beat them this season.

Kentucky has a record of four conference triumphs and that one loss to Tennessee during the season. The Vols has won eight out of 10 league games, being to the Cats 40-34 at Lexington after shipping them out at Knoxville 34-31.

With advance ticket sales heavier than for any previous Southeastern conference basketball tournament, Tournament Manager Dorcas Slaty predicts that this week's show at the Army will be the greatest financial success in the 24-year history of tournaments among teams of the south.

Seats Available Despite pessimistic rumors that Saturday night's game will be a sell-out, Daddy Dells, ticket sales manager, says that there are still plenty of good seats available for the game.

Unannounced plans to broadcast the semi-final games Saturday morning and the championship game Saturday night. Fred Koster, one of the leading basketball officials in the south, will be on hand to expert all three games.

The Wildcats will be sparked in the tournament play by Captain Jack Tingle, Wilbur Gehr and Jack Parkinson. The line-up in the Cats as announced is: Tuesday by Coach Adolph Rupp will be Jack Tingle, Wilbur Gehr, Bucky Butler and Almon Nelson and forward; Kenneth Campbell and George Vukich.

Scholarship Board Appoints Donovan As Committeeman

Dr. Herman L. Donovan, president of the University, has been appointed to the National Administrative Council for Peppi-Cola awards.

This board has been organized for the purpose of presenting college scholarships to eligible students who are seniors in high school and who also meet certain requirements set up by the board. The members of this board are several heads of universities and representatives of the Peppi-Cola Company.

A non-profit group interested only in the sending of college those who are eligible and could not do so without some financial aid. This program was recently announced by Prof. Fred W. Reeves, president of administration at the University of Chicago, who is also the chairman of this board. It is being sponsored by the Peppi-Cola company and will provide for two students from each state in the Union.

The program will provide for complete payment of a four-year college education at any university for the student who qualifies, and may wish to attend. Also there will be $250.00 a year to the student because most of his friends were going and they had persuaded her to go with them. She was glad I went and I did enjoy it," she said.

Interested In Tradition Students who did go, whether it was to the student body or the faculty, were urged to push along with the crowd of alumni, wanted to get out of the wind storm, or were interested in the history of the creation of a tradition at the University, said they enjoyed it and hoped there would be one next year.

A sleight which seemed particularly to impress students was the citation of Dean Don Johnston, Pierre Whitley, for over 62 years as president of the University.

Examiners See UK Progress

Visiting demonstration schools all over Kentucky, representatives of a materials experiment in food, clothing, and shelter instruction, this week examined the progress of the Kentucky portion of the experiment.

Under the direction of Dr. Maurice F. Seay and Dr. Leonard E. Meece, director and assistant director of the project, the visiting deans and college presidents investigated the extent to which new instructional methods devised in the experiment stations in the universities of Kentucky, Florida, and Vermont were being employed in Kentucky schools.

Leaving Tuesday after a two-day tour of Lincoln, Athens, Stamping Ground, Scott county and Lenoex schools, the board members planned to visit each of the other two universities of the south, which are on hand to expert all three games.

The Wildcats will be sparked in the tournament play by Captain Jack Tingle, Wilbur Gehr and Jack Parkinson. The line-up in the Cats as announced is: Tuesday by Coach Adolph Rupp will be Jack Tingle, Wilbur Gehr, Bucky Butler and Almon Nelson and forward; Kenneth Campbell and George Vukich.

Fighting moisture and fungus—communication's jungle enemies

Ever-present dangers to military communications are the twin enemies of the jungle—moisture and fungus. By improving the efficient working of telephones and radios, they can halt vital messages as effectively as cutting the wires.

The long experience of Bell Laboratories engineers in designing telephone equipment for use under all climatic conditions has helped the Signal Corps in counter-attacking these enemies of the jungle.

Lessons learned in this wartime emergency will aid in building better communications equipment for war and peace.

By Mary Lillian Davis: A survey of "Who's Who in America" made recently by the Students enrolled in Education 33, Introduction to Education, at the University revealed that for an interval of ten years, teachers, professors, and educators have ranked first in this honor.

Students Poll Lists: Students who enrolled in the course were asked to select a different section of "Who's Who" and take one hundred consecutive names and tabulate the profession or the position they represented.

Over the ten-year interval, from 1934 to 1944, many of the professions have shifted positions. In 1934 educators and professors, lawyers, clergymen, authors and writers ranked first, second, third, and fourth respectively. In 1944 journalists were in second place, lawyers third, and clergymen fourth.

Ruppmen Annex Bearcats 65-35 In Season's Last Scheduled Game

Wildcat Record Is 17 Out Of 20

By Dick Love

The Kentucky Wildcats triumphed in the Cincinnati Bearcats 65-35 for the second time this season at the Xavier Fieldhouse Saturday night in the feature game of a twin-bill. The game was a typical Kentucky win as they played a slow first half and then romped away, leaving only their dust for the Bearcats to play with.

The Wildcats showed their usual fighting ability and controlled both backboards after the intermission. The passing of the Cats was superb and the ball-handling was so fast that many times the home-team was bewildered in keeping up with the fast-breaking quintet from the Blue Oms.

The first half was rather close with the Bearcats fighting with all the vigor that the Cincinnati fans had claimed them capable of, and it was doubtful that the game would end in such an easy victory. Kentucky took an early lead, but after a few minutes of play the Cincy quintet had tied the score at 9-all and then it was nip and tuck throughout the remainder of the first half. Then as play resumed the Cats began to show the Cincinnati fans the brand of basketball the Wildcats were used to playing. They rebounded both boards, hit their shots, and took the ball away from the Bearcats whenever they tried to break their defense. Coach Adolph Rupp used his substitutes freely in the latter part of the game, giving his first team a rest after it was evident that Kentucky had matters well in hand.

George Vulech and Deward Compton scored four and six points respectively at the pivot position. Bill Sturgill's long shots amazed the fans with their accuracy and his style of shooting from the distance. Kenton Campbell played his ever-better game at center and set up several plays for Kentucky scoring. Jack Tingle paced the attack of the Cats with 13 points and Jack Parkinson helped with the scoring with his shots from the distance.

The Bearcats fought gallantly, but were a whipped team before the end, and didn't live up to the expectations of the home fans. Penno and Schneider played the best ball for the defeated team with Mueller adding a bit of extra trimmings to the game with very fancy shots.

The game was a predicted tough one for the Wildcats, but turned out to be a tune up for the Southeastern Conference.

Suky Grooms Team

Suky and the University band are planning a reception Sunday at the L. & N. station for the returning basketball team, according to an announcement by M. V. Dan Horn, Suky president.

Urging every student to be at the station to greet the Kentucky squad on its return from Louisville and the Southeastern conference, Van Horn says, "We're counting on you to be there—don't disappoint us, for with your spirit and backing the team may go on to the National tournament to win."

Kentucky SEC Wins

Kentucky announced the conference championship title in 1933, 1935, 1937, 1939, 1940, 1942 and 1942. Eleven teams will vie for the 1945 title.

The semi-finals are being played Saturday morning instead of Saturday afternoon in order to give the winners more rest before the championship game.

Over all opposition this season, Kentucky has won 18 games and lost only three. Kentucky lost only to Tennessee, Notre Dame and Michigan State.

Georgia Tech had a great late comeback by whipping five conference opponents in a row, but finished fifth in the regular season with seven triumphs against four losses.

Two afternoon and two night games are carded for today. In the 2 p.m. game, Mississippi state, which drew a first-round bye, will oppose the winner of the Georgia Tech-Georgia game. At 3:30 p.m. the Mississippi-Tennessee winner will tangle with Auburn, which also received a first-round bye. Alabama and Tulane, both recipients of first-round byes, will clash at 7:30 p.m. and Louisiana State, another first-round bye, will take on the Kentucky-Florida winner.

'The Lowe-Down'

By Dick Love

The Wildcats are in the thick of the fight again, at the Jefferson County Armory in Louisville as they seek their second straight Southeastern Conference title and the eighth since Coach Rupp has been head mentor at the University. This year's team, the highest scoring in the history of the school, is the favorite after piling up 17 wins out of 20 games during the regular season. The big game of the tournament will be Saturday night at 8:30 when the Cats will probably meet the Tennessee Volunteers or the Georgia Tech Engineers, if the rest of the games go according to the prediction of the well-versed prognosticators. The Cats are in the bracket with Florida, Alabama, Tulane, and L.S.U., all expected easy victims for the Cats. The final outcome will depend on the last game after Georgia Tech and Tennessee have fought out the other bracket.

Coach Rupp was so pleased with the fighting spirit of the team in the last two games that he claimed the boys know how to take care of themselves and are able to handle the situation.

The team left at 3 p.m. Wednesday in preparation of last night's game with the Florida Gators, and the game with L.S.U. tonight. Since only 10 men are permitted to make the trip, Coach Rupp had difficulty in selecting those who would do the team the best good. All of the boys have played well and made the team outstanding in the eyes of the sporting world. The 10-man squad included Captain Jack Tingle, Wilbur Schu, Buddy Parker, and Alton Nelson, forwards; Kenton Campbell and George Vulech, centers; and Jack Parkinson, Bill Sturgill, Johnny Stough, and Ed Allin, guards.

This year's Wildcats have scored 1,145 points in 20 games which is an all time high for teams that have played for Kentucky. The nearest any previous team came to the record was the 1941-42 squad which scored 1,161 points in 25 games. With the conference and the N.C.A.A. (that one with a big IF) will run the points to a possible 1300 or maybe 1400 as the team has averaged 57 1/2 points a game.

Jack Tingle was high scorer for the team and top man of the Southeastern Conference as he tossed in 247 points. He was followed by Jack Parkinson with 205 totals. These two Jacks were the sparkplugs of Kentucky's attack during the regular season and should carry the team through the Conference and on to New York.

The Ping-Pong Tournament will begin Monday with a good representation from the school and the AST. The favorites among the entrants are Bill Buckler and Paul Sands, but the AST's, not to be outdone, have the Chicago and runner up in the National Championship. So if you want to see the Champions and like to watch a good game, don't forget the tournament in the Poolology room.

He's Not Rough 'n Tough When Coaching At Home

By Pat Haley

The Baron of the University's athletic department, the tough Coach Adolph Rupp who has a national reputation for not taking anything off referees or anybody else, is no hard-boiled Baron when he is playing on the home court at 175 Eastover drive.

There he takes orders from a small basketball player not as high as a dribble.

"The basketball coach's boss is Adolph Rupp, Jr., who has never been called anything but 'Herkie'—short for Hercules, of course Herkie, 4%, was playing with a basketball before he could walk. As soon as he got old enough to stand up and throw a ball higher than his head a basket was fixed to a dining room door—what matters a few holes—and he began learning to shoot good. He's pretty good at it now.

Herkie accepts advice from the man who is recognized as one of the best teachers in the country, but the UK players probably would be surprised to know that he calls his own practice sessions and ends them when he pleases—and that the hard-boiled coach lets him get away with it.

In fact, the rough and tough Rupp, terror of the gymnasium, is a gentle creature—almost meek at home. Good humor takes the place of the sternness that he wears like a uniform when he is at the Euclid Avenue gym.

University Band To Be Heard In Special Program

The University's "Best Band in Dixie" will be heard at 1:45 p.m. Saturday afternoon in a special broadcast over WHAS.

A war-time casualty last year, the band has been reactivated under the leadership of Dr. Alexander Capurso, head of the University's Music department. Composed of a membership of sixty-five, one-half of which are coeds, the musical organization has played at all home basketball and football games, and also cheered the Wildcats forward at the UK-Notre Dame basketball game a few weeks ago in Louisville.

Tomorrow's broadcast will consist largely of familiar marches by such well-known band composers as John Philip Sousa, Henry Fillmore, and E. E. Bagley.

Lieut. Oaks Caldwell Killed In Action

Lieut. Oaks Caldwell, 22, former journalism student at the University, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Caldwell, Louisville, was killed February 6, while flying his 25th mission over Germany.

A bombardier-navigator with the Eighth Air Force, Caldwell had earned the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters. He enlisted in the Army Air Forces reserve in August 1942, and was called to active duty in February, 1943, after attending the University.

Also surviving is a brother, P. LeWayne Caldwell, an aviation cadet at Napier Field, Dothan, Ala. August 1942, and was called to active duty in February, 1943, after attending the University.

Church Notes

The Maxwell Street Presbyterian young people will meet for supper and evening song at 6:30 p.m. Sunday. It will be followed by a "Home town" musical under the charge of Melrose Melgirik.

The Calvary Baptist young people will meet at 6:15 p.m. Sunday with an industrial relations program under the charge of D. O. Burke.

Everyone is invited to join the college class of the First Methodist church which will meet at 9:45 a.m. Sunday in the church. Mr. Peak will begin a new series of lectures Sunday.

The Bible Youth group will hold a dinner-dance meeting at 4 p.m. Sunday at the Temple Adath Israel.

Vocational Conference To Be Held On Campus

A Vocational Guidance conference will be held on the campus March 22, 23, and 24, sponsored by the council of house presidents.

There will be twenty speakers each representing a different professional field and each a graduate of the University.

Plans for the conference which will be open to all students, will be announced at a later date.

Capurso Speaks

Dr. Alexander A. Capurso, head of the Music department, is speaking before the Ashland Junior college student convocation at Ashland this morning. His subject is "The Social and Ethical Values in the American Musical Science."

At last we discovered the real reason for the long line in the cafeteria at noon. The labor shortage has hit the cafeteria too, and there just aren't enough workers to speed the line or to provide another line.

Kappas Sponsor Club For Servicemen In N.Y.

By Margaret Jahn Wharton

If you think that attending school is enough—that by extending classes you are doing your bit to beat the Axis—you are fooling yourself. The boys in the fox-holes will gladly change places with you. Going to classes again is their idea of heaven. So girls start rolling those bandages, knitting those caps, and join Sylvania's Victory Shift. Add these duties to your duty of going to class and you will be doing your bit.

Here is a story of what one campus organization in the state of New York has done to help the lonely service girl. In January, 1943, Kappa Kappa Gamma sortily had a pipe dream. The dream turned out to be a reality and today Kappa Kappa Gamma actively and alumnae throughout New York state have a share in the Kappa Service Club.

Club Quarters In Billmore

The club is in the Billmore hotel in New York City. The Billmore gave the club the right wing of the mezzanine which was filled with much furniture, but which was in none too good condition. Through the efforts of Virginia Conner, an alumna and well known interior decorator, they painted the rooms, covered the furniture, and the club is the most attractive suite in the Billmore.

Elizabeth Arden, of the famous cosmetic house, also a Kappa alumna, furnishes the powder room. Here the service women can find lipstick, powder, and rouge of every shade.

Open Every Day

The club hostesses are made up of alumnae throughout New York City. It is supported by active chapters throughout New York state and other contributions. On the average week-end seven hundred service women enter the club. It is open from 11 a.m. until 9 p.m. every day. Of course everybody cannot start such a club. However, the history of the Kappa Service club proves that if you can just start the ball rolling there are always people willing to help. So girls, sign up for the Victory Shift, and go to the Red Cross. If someone knows you are helping they will follow suit.
