"THE LAUGHING CURE" TO BE PRESENTED BY THE LITTLE THEATRE

Amusing Play Will Be Offered Next Tuesday Evening

CURTAIN RISES AT 8:15

Only One Performance Will Be Given

"Laugh and the world laughs with you; weep and you weep alone." See "The Laughing Cure" in the Little Theatre Tuesday evening and you will laugh until your sides literally burst. Miss it with the knowledge that you are missing something and you will run into a corner and weep.

"The Laughing Cure" presents a psychological illustration of banishing ill health. With a plot of simple construction, yet as complete as the four act drama with a complex setting, this playlet comes with a reputation of swaying its audiences into a continuous round of laughs and giggles.

Played by the best talent in the University under the personal direction of Professor W. H. Mikesell this playlet will attempt to cure some of the grievances of a college audience. Picture a woman in a weak and enemic condition under the personal care of a doctor. She has derived no benefit. There enters from the psychological school a doctor with a disposition as lappy as that of a child with an all-day sucker in its mouth. Everything changes. Mirth creeps into every

DEAN STIMSON SPEAKS

Miss Dorothy Stimson, Dean of Women of Transylvania College, gave an interesting talk at the meeting of the Y. W. C. A. at Patterson Hall last Sunday evening. Her subject was "The Historic Jesus." She quoted from several books and brought forth actual proof that a man named Jesus really lived on this earth at one time.

A solo by Miriam Seeger added to the enjoyment of this delightful program. Father Harris was the leader for the evening.

MISS CORNELL'S SISTER GIVEN DESERVED HONOR

Ohio State Young Woman Relected President of Mortar Board

Lilly Cromwell has just returned from the biennial convention of Mortar Board which was held at Ohio State Columbus, Ohio, April 22 to 24. This is a senior women's organization which for the highest in scholarship, leadership and service. Phi Beta Kappa is wrongly supposed to have the same standards, but in fact only stands for scholarship. Mortar Board has chapters in the largest universities and wherever established is outstanding among organizations on the campus.

The program was: Friday morning Forum was held at the home of the president of the local chapter at which campus problems were discussed. This was followed by a delightful buffet luncheon. Saturday luncheon was held at the Lazarus Tea Room and was followed by a business meeting. A 4 o'clock tea given by the alumnae of the Ohio State chapter in Oxley Hall, one of the girl's dormitories. At 8 o'clock a banquet was held in the Maramor Tea Room and was followed by a business meeting. Sunday a model initiation was held at 7 o'clock in the morning. The convention was closed with a breakfast at 8 o'clock.

Miss Cornell's Sister Honored
The most important business of the convention was the election of officers until the next convention which will be held at Swarthmore. Election of officers was held only three months ago because some resigned and their places had to be filled, so many were reelected. Miss Anne Cornell of Ohio State was reelected president. She is a sister to Miss Maybelle Cornell, head of the Home Economics Department at the University of Kentucky. Miss Grace Wilharm of Minnesota was reelected secretary. Miss Claire Strong, Swarthmore was made treasurer and Miss Marcella Moon, Ann Arbor, was elected historian.

Two new chapters were installed, one at University of Pennsylvania and the other at the University of Indiana. Four other petitions were considered. Mortar Board has chapters at Cornell, Swarthmore, Ohio State, Ann Arbor, Columbia College, Mo., University of Minnesota, University of Illinois, University of Nebraska, Knox College, Wis., de Pauw University, and University of Kentucky. The chapter was established here in '20, absorbing Staff and Crown, the local organization of the same standing.

GET VICTORY MEDAL

All University men who took part in the recent World War are entitled to a Victory Medal and may obtain one by applying to Lieutenant Torrence. Application should be made as soon as possible as only a limited number of these medals are on hand.

Fred Peters, '20, was a visitor on the campus last Wednesday. Fred is superintendent of the Cloverport schools at this time.

BOBBED HAIR

Hair-bobbing, that malady which was quite prevalent a year or so ago, has broken out again at Patt Hall. Those who contracted the fever during the first epidemic are rather immune but those who escaped the first time are now very susceptible. It cannot be learned who brought the germ back to the campus.

The after effects of an attack of hairbobbing are somewhat like those of typhoid fever, sometimes it helps one and sometimes it doesn't. Sweet calm sedate little girls have been changed overnight into the regular "kock 'em cold" type. And some of the fair ones surely do wear a wicked frizz. But there is always the sad side—the frizziss locks. Think of bobbing your hair and then for it not to frizz. One dear lassie, after shearing her beautiful tresses, cried all night, fearing what Mamma would say when she saw her little girl. Let us hope the epidemic is over.

TWO ALUMNI CLUBS LAUNCHED IN WEEK

K. E. A. Dinner Indicates Awakening of Interest in Alma Mater

Two alumni clubs launched in the last week and the big alumni dinner in Louisville at the K. E. A. indicate the reawakening of interest in the alma mater.

The dinner at Louisville was the largest since the custom was inaugurated. One hundred alumni who are teaching in the State registered at University headquarters at the Seelbach. President Frank L. McVey and former president Henry S. Barker were principal speakers at the dinner. Leo J. Sandmann, president of the Louisville Alumni Club, presided.

Twentytwo alumni attended the Pittsburgh meeting at the Hotel Chatham. H. S. Fry, '04, former president of the club, was selected temporary chairman until new officers are elected at a meeting in May.

"Everyone present had something to say," writes W. E. Freeman, '04, who was one of the leaders in the movement to reorganize. "Everyone expressed a feeling of satisfaction with the progress the University is making and all expressed a desire to do their part for the alma mater."

Professor Freeman, E. C. Evans, '02, H. Lee Moore, '11, and M. B. Poreh, '04, were appointed a committee to arrange for the next meeting. The Alumni Secretary was invited to be present then and bring "the latest news from the firing line."

Alumni at Lebanon, Ky., are planning a Kentucky Day at the local high school, May 12, which will be concluded with a dinner at which the Senior class and the high school faculty will be guests of the club. A member of the University faculty will be the principal speaker at the high school celebration and at the dinner in the evening.

James Castleton Phillips ex '70, the oldest alumnus now living in Kentucky is one of the most enthusiastic members of the Lebanon club. A feature of their last meeting was his account of things as they were when Woodland was the campus and the Munsons, first graduates of the University, were studying under Professors Peter, Patterson and Pickett. Mr. Phillips said he would like to attend the Alumni Reunion, June 14, and is making his plans with that in view.

Dean Boyd is attending the convention of the deans of the colleges of arts and sciences held in Lincoln, Nebraska, April 25 to May 2.

MEET POSTPONED

The track meet with the University of Cincinnati which was to be held last Wednesday afternoon, wasn't.

Owing to the erratic weather, rain was expected and the night before the proposed event Coach Buchheit phoned the team not to come.

The contest will in all probability be held next Monday on Stoll Field if both parties agree, and the weather is willing. With a good track several records are looked forward to.

EXHIBITS ANNOUNCED BY ART DEPARTMENT

Art Museum Open To Faculty and Students at All Times

A large and important painting, "The Blue of the Gulf Stream," by Waugh, which will be of particular interest to the student body and citizens of Lexington, arrived this week and is now on view in the Art Museum, third floor, White Hall. This particular painting which the artist has loaned the Art Department through the courtesy of William Sawitsky of the Milch Gallery, is one of the canvasses of first importance in the permanent collection of the Pennsylvania Academy. It may be possible for the Department to secure this painting permanently for the Art Museum here.

There is one phase of American painting in which America is supreme; in many phases of painting we are compelled for the present to take second place to Europe, but the great critics of the world are practically unanimous in giving America highest place in marine painting. Such artists as the late Winslow Homer, Waugh, Dougherty and Reuterschal have no foreign peers.

Mr. Sax states that he will soon be able to announce exhibitions of Cincinnati artists which will be shown early in May.

May 2 a most interesting and unique exhibition of caricatures by the gifted William King, of the Louisville Herald, will be shown here. Mr. King's caricatures, while exccrtingtaly funny, are by no means of the cheap comic supplement variety. They are splendid examples of an important and little understood art. He does not make his caricatures merely ridiculous but he accentuates their human characteristics much in the manner of Mr. Barrie.

Mr. Sax wishes that it be emphatically understood that at all times the Art Museum is open to the faculty and student body, and hopes that they may not be deterred by the fact that there is a class in session. He also desires that they come in and watch the work of the advanced classes in art, as it may aid to a better appreciation for students to see painting in the process of production.

MRS. P. P. BOYD ENTERTAINS FOR ALPHA XI SORORITY

Mrs. P. P. Boyd entertained at her home in Waller avenue, Rhodes Addition, Tuesday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock, a tea in honor of Anna Jean Smith and Mary Harkleroad, brides-elect and the members of Xi chapter of Alpha Xi Delta.

During the afternoon Virginia Boyd and Elizabeth Ellis delighted those present with piano selections. A delicious salad course was served. Helen McGurk, Virginia Boyd and Carolyn Smith assisted Mrs. Boyd in entertaining. The house was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and potted plants.

PAY JUNIOR CLASS DUES NOW!

GEORGIA BULL DOGS HERE FOR TWO GAMES WITH THE WILDCATS

Georgians Have Not Been Defeated; Have Won 16 Games

TODAY'S GAME AT 3:30

Cooper Will Pitch This Afternoon

Georgia's Bull Dogs are here and will meet the Wildcats this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock on Stoll Field, and tomorrow at 2:30 o'clock. Georgia has the best bunch of ball tossers that has been around these parts this year and Kentucky will have to play an improved brand of baseball to win. But the Wildcats have come back, and it looks like they are able to do that thing this afternoon.

Georgia has not forgotten a little basketball game played in Atlanta last winter and those Bull Dogs will try harder to beat the Wildcats than anybody they have met this season. Considering that Georgia has not lost a game that doesn't sound well for the home team, but don't forget the way Cooper slung that pill in the last two innings of Friday's game and the way the rest of the team hit the ball.

Cooper is slated to get the call this afternoon and McKinney will do the heaving tomorrow. Both of these boys had lots of stuff Friday and can be expected to give Kentucky a victory if pitching will win the game. The team has begun to hit and if the fielding tightens up a bit, well, look out Georgia.

CONCERNING SENIOR DELINQUENTS

In the last issue of the Kernel there appeared the statement that the names of all Seniors who had not paid class dues would be published in the issue of Tuesday, May 3.

The Kernel takes this first opportunity of correcting this misstatement. The portion of the article referred to was admitted into the columns of this paper without the authority of proper officers. It was merely the publication of the proceedings of a recent Senior class meeting, where they decided upon the publication of the names of the delinquents in the Kernel without asking permission of the management.

Sober second thought on the part of all students will prove conclusively that such drastic action on the part of the Kernel would be very unwise, imprudent and unprofessional. However much we wish for success in the collecting of Senior dues and however much space we gladly donate to the Seniors for notices and warnings we cannot agree to publish the names of those who do not pay. The use of the Campus bulletin boards has proven very successful in aiding in eleventh hour collections for the 1921 Kentuckian and we suggest to the Senior officers availability of this means of publicity. At any rate, the Kernel feels it cannot take the liberty of thrusting upon its 1,865 subscribers the names of a few students who have, for good cause or bad, failed to meet their personal obligations to their class.

All class treasurers and other officers have a good case against delinquents and should by all means be given courteous response when approached for collections. It displays a very poor class and school spirit to refuse such a collector.

Thus the Kernel makes this plea in behalf of the Senior Class and announces that even if this appeal to Senior honor does no good it cannot be a party to the publication of the names of delinquents.

A handsome framed picture of Captain Ruben B. Hutchcraft has been recently hung in the Law Library at the University. Captain Hutchcraft, who was a member of the Law Faculty before the war, was killed in the Argonne Forest six days before the armistice was signed. The picture was made by subscriptions of students who had been members of his classes before the war and had seen service in the army.

Every character in the play laughs and before it is over every person in the audience will be adding to a sea of intensive laughter. Mrs. Hanson, the woman who responds to the psychology of the doctor is portrayed by Miss Mary Lyons. Mr. L. C. Fielder as the doctor is the originator of the ceaseless mirth. Mr. H. C. Neal plays the part of the unsuccessful physician. Miss Sue Chenault as a prissy madam with the air of an old maid keeps the balls of mirth rolling with her ludicrous intrusions. Dean Simrall recently returned from Washington where she attended a conference of the Association of Collegiate Alumni and the Southern Association of College Women. This was a very momentous meeting as the two associations were amalgamated into the American Association of University Women. Women graduates of the University of Kentucky are now eligible to membership in the Association.

The Senior Class of Model High School, of the University, will present "The Scare Crow" one of Percy McKay's most attractive plays at an early date. Troutons are now in full swing and Mr. Sax is helping them in every way to put on a good production.

POLITICAL ANNOUNCEMENT

GEORGE R. SMITH

For the first time in the history of the University of Kentucky one of her graduates seeks the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for Fayette County.

The University has not grown, in the past, with the strides which have marked the progress of many of her sister institutions. One reason for this has been due to the failure of our university to exhibit a genuine interest and concern in the welfare of her graduates—an interest so strikingly noticeable in the policies of other institutions in the state, whose graduates, in turn, have striven for the upbuilding of their alma maters, but whose regard for the University of Kentucky is secondary.

I assure you that I have the interest of the University at heart, and I request, and will greatly appreciate, the consideration and loyal support of university men and women, and of the alumni. The results of my candidacy, as I sincerely believe and intend, will accrue to the mutual advantage of us all.

STUDENT RELIEF FUND NOT ALL SUBSCRIBED

Nearly $200 Promised By Students Has Not Been Collected

The report has reached the University that the students of Europe are still suffering and there is no food or clothes available except those purchased by the other students of the world. American colleges which were supposed to contribute $1,000,000 have, up to this time only given $300,000. This means that two-thirds of the students that we are supposed to care for until they can reap their crops, are today hungry and poorly clad. The University of Kentucky subscribed $759.35 to this cause and only $582.85 has been paid in to the committee. If you have subscribed pay your subscription and if you have not subscribed, for the sake of humanity, give something to the starving students. The children have been cared for with the thirty-three millions given outside of the colleges and universities of America. The students must be relieved by those who realize the importance of the present student generation in Europe.

Lieut. Joseph E. Terrence has recently been sent to the University of Kentucky by the War Department to be Assistant Professor of Military Science and Tactics. Lieutenant Terrence was graduated from the Law Department of the University of Kentucky in 1916. He received his commission in the cavalry just before the war and was then transferred to the 28th Infantry, First Division. He served overseas and was wounded in the Aisne-Marne venture at Soissons. After recovering from his wounds he returned home and was retired from active service.

Mr. Jesse Osborn who was a graduate assistant at the University, in mathematics, last year, and who will receive his Masters Degree here in June, has been awarded a part time instructorship at Cornell University for next year. During the past year Mr. Osborn was an instructor in Pennsylvania State College.

The Kentucky Law Journal which will be issued next month will contain an article by Telliho Root, on "International Court of Justice," also an article on "Judges and Advocates of Kentucky," by former Lieutenant Governor McDermott of Kentucky.

STUDENT SPEAKERS AT SUNDAY Y. M. MEETING

Prewitt, Baumgarten, Gregory and Heath Talk on Worth While Subjects

One of the most interesting programs of the year was given at the regular meeting of the Y. M. C. A., Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

The speakers were J. Burton Prewitt on "The Student's Duty to the University"; George Baumgarten on "How to Find Time to do the Important Things"; George Gregory on "The Student's Duty to the Y. M. C. A." and F. M. Heath on "The Student's Duty to the Church."

Prewitt said in part "The student owes it to the University to forget himself for the good of the Institution. Lend your effort to the things that are worth while and you can forget yourself into immortality."

Baumgarten brought out the fact that with all the present organizations at the University it is impossible to find time for every thing but he advised fellow students to get into the worth while organizations and do their part. He also said the busy student cannot find time but can make time to do these things.

Gregory emphasized fact that considering all the outside allurements and the materialistic ideas with which a student comes in contact when he arrives at the University if he wishes to hold true to his home teachings and the things that make for the best in manhood he must align himself with the Christian organization of the University.

Heath stated that we owe much to the church for the contribution it has made to the University. He said "If it were not for the churches of Lexington very few students would be allowed to come to the University."

C. V. Watson presided at the meeting.

DEBATING AND TRACK TOURNAMENT MAY 6 AND 7

Committee Making Plans; Frats to Entertain Visitors

An executive committee composed of Professors S. A. Boles and W. H. Mikesell and Wellington Patrick, of the Extension Bureau, are arranging the details of the high school tournament to be held Friday and Saturday, May 6th and 7th. The general plans are for a debating and a track tournament. It is planned to advertise the University of Kentucky more fully throughout the state and this tournament will be one of the methods.

The reception of the high school students will be taken care of by the fraternities and a booster committee. Details are being worked out to give the visitors a good time and a good impression of the University. The next issue of the Kernel will carry a full outline of the tournaments.

JUST JARGON

By "Jessie" James
 "My boy," said the minister as he came upon a young man of his acquaintance engaged in pursuing the fickle goddess of chance. "Do you know it is wrong to a-er to shoot craps, as I believe you say?"
 "Yes sir," admitted the boy. "And believe me Doctor, I'm paying for my sins."

 Are you B. C.?
 Or an O. M. G.?
 Girls ask one another this
 But does not know which one she is.
 B. C. stands for Boy Crazy—
 A few girls really are, you see.
 An O. M. G. is a One Man Girl—
 She's twice as rare as a shell pink pearl.
 So people say—
 And it looks that way.
 Are you B. C.
 Or an O. M. G.?

Professor Dantzer—We will take the poem, "The Bishop Orders His Tomb," for Wednesday.
 The next time the class met several students insisted that Browning wrote no such thing as "The Bishop Orders His Tomb for Wednesday."

 "Women bear pain better than men,"
 The dainty miss declaimed.
 "Quotation from a doctor famed?"
 "Ah, and is that," he gently sighed,
 "No dear, she said, "For that remark
 "My shoemaker is to be blamed."

Coed—"Do you love me, Ed?"
 Ed—"Sure."
 Coed—"Then why doesn't your chest go up and down like the man in

KENTUCKY WILL DEBATE WESTERN STATE NORMAL

To Meet at Bowling Green; Subject to Be Immigration

The Western Kentucky State Normal School has asked Professor W. H. Mikesell, who is in charge of the University Debating Team, to send three orators to Bowling Green to debate three Normal students on the question of 'Immigration.' Professor Mikesell has chosen R. T. Johnson, J. L. Hays and J. B. Watkins, a former student of the Normal School, to uphold the affirmative of the question. "Resolved that the immigration to the United States, be limited to a selective hundred thousand a year."

The Western school has been preparing for this debate for some time and it was not until they were fully prepared did they ask for the debate. This debate has caused a keen interest in Bowling Green, full expenses and a house of three thousand are promised the University debaters. Although this debate is not on the regular schedule of Kentucky forensic battles, Professor Mikesell has agreed to send a team to Bowling Green because of the interest taken by the students and populace of the western Kentucky city.

The following men were chosen to take part in the Competition Shoot with Emory University, Georgia, which took place yesterday: Heath, Trusty, Thompson, Baumgarten, C. Anderson, Buckner, Burroughs, Pritch, Griffin and Ginnachio.
