

old that night. This a very unusual looking Baby. Irving doesn't care at all about her.

Irving measured Nannon
one day and he's 24" long.

Yesterday morning I scrubbed my kitchen
floor, wash room & laundry room and after dinner I rested and Irving came home from a Farm Sale and on his way back he bought a pint of Coffee Ice Cream.
I sat out in the Sun with the Baby, doing us both good.

Last night I did some mending after supper and I've got some more to do

Dear Sister:

Many thanks for your
welcome letter.

I am all alone
home all day today
so I'm going to have a lot of fun with the Baby and myself. I just love to be alone,
must add - one in a while.

Tuesday evening
Irving went to a Cenn Hog Meeting and I spent the evening with Anna.

Wednesday I went to town at about eleven,
