UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY LIBRARIES

TAPES AND TAPE PLAYERS

IN KING LIBRARY

The Margaret I. King Spoken Word Collection on tapes is now available for use. The following areas are included:

1. British Literature of the Middle Ages, the Neoclassical Period, the Renaissance, the Victorian Period, the Romantic Period, and the Modern Period.
2. American Literature--Romantic Triumph; Rise of Realism; Twentieth Century Drama, Poetry and Prose.
3. Recordings in American and World History.
4. Caedmon, Spoken Arts, and Argo Shakespeare Series.
5. Representative Spanish Literature.
6. French Literature of the Seventeenth, Eighteenth, and Nineteenth Centuries.

This collection is housed in the Newspaper / Microtext Room (110-A), King Library South (ground floor of the old building). There is an author card file in the Reading Room and a subject list available at the counter in the Newspaper/Microtext office. The items are also included in the main library card catalog.

Recorded tapes may be borrowed by anyone who has a borrower's card from King Library. The loan period is two weeks, with a two-week renewal privilege.

Tape play-back units are available for use with Library tapes on presentation of ID card for in-library use. A deposit is collected for loan of players outside the library. The loan period is also two weeks, with a two-week renewal privilege. Tape duplication service is available in the library.

Please ask at the service desk in Newspapers/Microtexts for information about this operation.
