CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS

(Revised May, 1923)

ARTICLE I.

Name.

This association shall be called the Woman's Club of Central Kentucky.

ARTICLE II.

Object.

The object shall be to create among women an organized center of thought, and action for the promotion of social, literary, artistic, educational and political growth, and what relates to the best interests of the community.

ARTICLE III.

Departments.

For the better execution of its object, the Club work shall be divided into departments, representing different lines of activity.

ARTICLE IV.

Officers.

Sec. 1. The officers of the Club shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, a Treasurer and two Auditors, residents of the City of Lexington or of Fayette County. These shall constitute the Executive Committee, who shall select the Chairman of Departments and the Chairmen of Standing Committees.

Sec. 2. The Executive Committee shall appoint a Vice-President from the membership of Fayette, and one from the membership of each county contiguous to Fayette.

Sec. 3. The Executive Committee, the County Vice-Presidents, the Chairmen of Departments, and the Chairmen of Standing Committees shall constitute the Board of Directors. This Board shall transact the business of the Club, and shall have power to fill vacancies occurring in its own body during the interim between elections.

ARTICLE V.

Nomination and Election of Officers.

Sec. 1. The Executive officers shall be elected by ballot of a meeting held annually on the first Saturday in March, and shall be installed in office on the last meeting of that Club year. The first meeting of the Club year shall be held on the first Saturday in October.

Sec. 2. A Committee on Election shall be appointed by the Board to consist of three members of the Club, who shall serve as tellers at the annual meeting, and shall have power to choose assistants. The chairman of this committee shall be the Corresponding Secretary. A blank ballot shall be mailed to each member of the Club two weeks preceding election, and shall be filled in and returned to the Corresponding Secretary. The names of the three persons receiving the highest number of votes for each office shall be presented at the annual meeting, and the candidates receiving a majority of the votes of those present at said annual meeting shall be declared elected.

ARTICLE VI.

Duty of Officers.

Sec. 1. The President shall preside at all business meetings of the Club, preserve order, enforce all laws and regulations, have general supervision of the interest of the Club, and perform such other duties as are incident to the office.

Sec. 2. The Vice-President, senior in order of election and present at the opening of the meeting, shall perform the duties of the President in case of her absence.

Sec. 3. The Recording Secretary shall take notes of the proceedings of the Club, make true entries in her book of all things done and passed, and read the same at each business meeting. She shall have charge of all books and papers of the Club, except those belonging to the Treasurer, or to any of the committees, and shall perform such other duties as are incidental to her office.

Sec. 4. The Corresponding Secretary shall conduct and have charge of the general correspondence of the Club. She shall keep a record of all official communications sent out by her, and all communications received by her for the Club. She shall sign and seal all notices and invitations, and notify all persons of their election to membership or office.

Sec. 5. The Treasurer shall collect all money for dues, initiation fees, guest tickets and badges. All money received by her shall be deposited in the name of the Club in such bank as she may select, and shall be drawn out only by her check as Treasurer. The Treasurer shall at the first Board meeting in the month make a statement of the finances and at the annual meeting she shall make an annual report. She shall keep account of all moneys received and paid out, and her books shall be at all times open to the inspection of the Board of Directors. On first day of February of current year she shall furnish to Corresponding Secretary a list of paid-up members.

Sec. 6. The Auditors shall audit all bills and accounts of Treasurer, and report in writing at the annual meeting whether they are correct.

Sec. 7. No person shall hold more than one official position at any time, nor shall serve for a longer period than two consecutive terms in the office to which she may be elected. No officer may be chairman of a department.

ARTICLE VII.

Membership.

Sec. 1. Qualifications for membership shall be character, intelligence and reciprocity.

Sec. 2. It shall be the privilege of each member in good standing to propose the names of candidates during each Club year.

Sec. 3. The President shall appoint a Committee on Membership, consisting of three persons, whose names shall be known only to the President, and this committee shall receive all proposals for membership, and shall make all proper inquiries concerning qualifications of each individual, and shall send the names of all desirable candidates to the President, and at the next meeting of the Board these names shall be submitted for confirmation, for which a two-thirds vote of the Directors shall be necessary, and each name shall be voted on by a separate secret ballot.

Sec. 4. To become a member of the Club the name of the candidate, with full address and qualifications for membership, must be proposed in writing by a member of the Club. The name of a candidate proposed for membership, and her address must be enclosed in a sealed envelope, with the name of the endorser, and sent under cover to the President, who shall not be informed of the name either of the candidate or of her endorser, but shall transmit the sealed envelope to the Committee on Membership.

Sec. 5. Every member of the Committee on Membership and every Director shall be in honor bound to keep secret the names of persons proposed until the same shall have been elected to membership, nor shall the name of a defeated candidate ever be divulged by the Board outside thereof, or by any member of the Committee on Membership. No Director shall be at liberty to state the nature of her vote, or how another voted.

Sec. 6. Daughters of members between the ages of twelve and sixteen may be admitted to the Club without being voted upon and upon the payment of half the usual dues. They shall be entitled to all privileges except holding office and voting in the business affairs of the Club.

ARTICLE VIII.

Dues.

Sec. 1. The annual fee of five dollars shall be paid to the Treasurer by each member of the Club at the business meeting in October, or within sixty days thereafter.

Sec. 2. New members entering the Club at any time during the Club year shall pay an initiation fee of two dollars, dues five dollars.

Sec. 3. A failure to pay dues shall render the payment of initiation fee of $2.00 necessary for reinstatement.

Sec. 4. Resignation of membership should be made in writing to the President.

ARTICLE IX.

Sec. 1. This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of any meeting, notice of such intention having been given at the previous meeting.

BY-LAWSARTICLE I.*Regular Meetings.

Sec. 1. The business meeting of the Club shall be held on the first Saturday afternoon of each month during the Club year of nine months, from October to June.

Sec. 2. Special meetings may be called by the President at the request of two or more Directors.

ARTICLE II.Department Chairmen.

Sec. 1. The Chairmen of Departments shall be selected by the Executive Board and their names announced on the last meeting of the Club year.

Duties of Chairman.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of chairmen to select the members of their committee according to their special requirements and with the aid of their committee to arrange the programs for the Club in the order determined by the Board of Directors.
