ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

Work Study Office Announcement

The Work Study Office has asked us to remind work study students and their supervisors that all hours worked this fiscal year must be reported to the Work Study Office by or on June 30th.

All department heads should make sure that a list of all current work study students for their units has been sent to the Director's Office.

BETTY DELIUS IS KENTUCKY'S LAD REPRESENTATIVE

The Library Administration Division (LAD) of ALA provides an advisory service for individuals in need of guidance. LAD is designed to encourage study of administrative theory, improve practice of administration in libraries and to foster administrative skills. The Division is responsible for all areas of administration: financial, organizational, personnel management, and training. For more information about how LAD may assist you please contact Betty Delius, Bellarmine College, 2001 Newburg Road, Louisville, Kentucky 40205; telephone (502) 452-8411.

NANCY S. LITTLE IS APPOINTED DIRECTOR OF OFFICE FOR CONTINUING EDUCATION

Ms. Little will be responsible for coordinating the College of Library Science's continuing education activities. She will oversee the programming for the continuing education of library and information professionals, provide advice on the development of continuing education programming in Kentucky, and be a clearing house for continuing education activities in the state.

Ms. Little received her undergraduate degree from Mercer University and her Master's in Library Science from Pratt Institute. She has been a classroom teacher, a school media specialist, and an educational television writer and editor. Most recently, she has been the Instructional Media Specialist in Instructional Media and Technology in the College of Education at the University of Kentucky.
