KENTUCKY SOLINET USERS GROUP

The Kentucky Solinet Users Group will hold its Spring Meeting this year on May 8, 1981, in Frankfort at Berry Hill--the State Library.

The program will feature Jim Nelson, State Librarian, discussing the role of the Kentucky Department of Library and Archives in networking. A representative from SOLINET will describe and answer questions on the WLN-based regional support system in development.

EVERYONE IS INVITED!

For registration and full program, contact Gail Kennedy, Acquisitions, 257-3811.

KLA GODORT MEETING

The Government Documents Roundtable of KLA will hold a spring meeting May 15 in the Gallery of King Library North. The meeting will begin at 10:00 a.m. with Shirley Demos and Vernon Smith from the State Data Center at U of L's Urban Studies Institute giving a session on the material available at the SDC on computer tapes and the SDC's computer capabilities. At 1:30 there will be a working session including discussion of cooperative cataloging or State Library cataloging of state documents and the establishment of a depository system for state documents. There is no registration fee. Contact Janis Pivarnik in GPD (7-2639) if you'd like to attend one or both sessions.

MIDWEST ACADEMIC LIBRARY CONFERENCE

The Midwest Academic Library Conference will be held May 28 and 29, 1981, at the Miami University in Oxford, Ohio. The theme of this year's program is "Great Expectations: the Best of Times . . . the Worst of Times." Speakers will include Herbert S. White, Dean, School of Library and Information Science, Indiana University; Dr. John D. Millett, President Emeritus and former Chancellor of the Ohio Board of Regents; and Penelope McJunkin who is working on a PBS documentary about the life of Carl Sandburg. There will be sessions on the "economics of implementing technology management of change in libraries," as well as informal discussion groups for librarians in information services, technical services, interlibrary loans, circulation, data base services, and special collections. The Institute of Business and Education Services of the School of Business Administration has scheduled a Management Seminar for participants on Thursday, May 28. This seminar is limited to 50 persons. For further information, contact Donald E. Oehlerts, Edgar W. King Library. Miami University, Oxford, OH 45056.

COME SHOW OFF WITH LSO

Did you photographers ever want an opportunity to show-off your best work? If so, read this month's edition of the Wax Bean and find out how.

FROM LSO

Join Join Join

Another reminder that you can still join LSO. We need your support. Pay your dues of $3 to either your LSO representative or Kathy Holden, GPD.

Membership Cards

By now staff members who have joined LSO should have received their membership cards for 1981. This card allows you to attend LSO functions free or at a reduced price. If you paid your dues and have not received your new membership card, please contact your LSO representative or Barbara Galik, Reference Dept. 7-1631.

Newcomers' Reception

A reception for newcomers to get acquainted with the staff will be held on Tuesday, April 28, from 3 to 4 p.m. in the SOLARIUM. This will be a joint affair with the "oldcomers" as well as the newcomers being honored. Paul Willis will be on hand to present the service award pins which are usually presented at the annual Christmas luncheon. So come and meet some new people and honor the old people as well as eat, drink, and be merry.

Volleyball

If you and your spouse or friend want to play volleyball, please contact Janis Pivarnik, GPD, 7-2639.

COME SHOW OFF WITH LSO

It has been said that one's photography reflects his perspective of the world, and here is your opportunity to see the world through the eyes of another.

On May 6, 1981, 11:30 a.m., the LSO Lunch Hour Series will continue with a program for all of us. If you would like to let others appreciate your work, send up to 5 slides, with name and department written on each (please use a pencil), to me, Andrea Bryant, BEIC, by May 1. The audience will enjoy their projection on a screen through the use of a caramate. The groups will be shown in alphabetic sequence by photographer's last name (which will be announced). Please number the slides, with no. being your favorite. If time allows, all 5 pieces of your work will be shown.

Maureen o'Brien, Special Collections, has graciously agreed to let us share her knowledge of photographic preservation -- (did you know that slide mounts and photographs should not be written on with ink?)

If you would like to bring some photographs with you to the presentation, to show or to ask Maureen about, please feel free to do so.

Come and appreciate the efforts of others and also find out how to properly treat your precious memories.

I WONDER WHERE IT WENT DEPARTMENT

Two weeks ago Roxanna Jones of Circulation sent me (via campus mail) a review of the first of a series of luncheons to be held in the Umbrella Room. I am still waiting for it. Roxanna has agreed to redo her review so barring no other difficulties I should have it for the next WAX BEAN. I have a feeling the review was routed to me by way of Cape Horn.

FROM THE STAFF

Wedding Bells for KARL-HEINZ BOEWE of Medical Center Library (Media Center) and JOAN-LORNA BONNEMANN of EKU on May 1, 1981. Ms. Bonnemann is a voice teacher at EKU and Karl tells me she is a delightful lyric soprano.

JIM BIRCHFIELD will be succeeding Dwight Agner as Editor for the Western Hemisphere of Private Press Books, the annual bibliography sponsored by the British-based Private Libraries Association.

Congratulations to PAM SCHRILS (Cataloging Department) and DOUGLAS BAUER on their recent marriage. Pam and Douglas are now residing in Barnveld, New York. Their mailing address is P.O. Box 56 and zip code is 13304.

Congratulations to TRUDY PURCELL (Collection Development) and DONNIE DAY on their recent marriage. I got the news via standard library paperwork.
