

fare well Lewis we may never meet again to geather here its painful thus for us to see and the parting words are dear

Lewis dont forget to write to me, for I shall watch the office and when your letter comes I shall be so verry happy. dont neglect to come soon to see me and May God bless you all through life and may he watch with loving kindness over you and I till the end of life.

Some day we will be so happy to geather. May the kind Father who is allwise and good bring you safely back to me
