Be one of the New Minutemen.

Remember the first Minutemen? They were civilians ready to protect the good things about America.

Today's Army National Guardsmen are civilians, too. With the same idea in mind.

They're the New Minutemen. And you can be one of them.

You'll train one weekend a month with guys and gals from your own community.

You'll have a chance to learn a skill. In engineering. In electronics. In aviation or the medical fields. Over 400 career specialties are open to you. And the training could help you get a good civilian job or advance you in your present one.

You'll earn extra money. After Basic Training you're qualified to earn more than $48 one weekend a month.

You'll have a chance to develop your leadership abilities. To do something different.

And, very important, to help people in the community.

You can do all these things and still enjoy your regular civilian life.

JOE B. HALL

Kentucky Head Coach

- Coach of the 1975 national runner-up Wildcats.
- Coach of the Southeastern Conference co-champions after winning the conference championship two years earlier.
- SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in three years.
- Coach and Athlete Magazine's Southeast Region Coach of the Year for the second time in three years.
- Nominee For Kodak 1975 National Coach of The Year.
- Coach of his third consecutive UKIT championship team.
- Member 1976 Olympic Basketball Committee.

Such personal and team honors in 1975 were gratifying to Joe B. Hall, but the Wildcat coach has his eye on things more current as he enters his fourth year as head of the nationally famous Wildcats.

The challenge facing him now is entirely different from last year, when he blended a crop of big, talented freshmen with six fine seniors, a junior and two sophomores to produce a finely honed, exciting squad that set the nation on its ear and vaulted the Wildcats back into national prominence.

The scene has changed dramatically, leaving Hall with one of the most youthful squads in the history of Wildcat basketball. He feels they must overcome that youthfulness with intelligent play, 100 per cent hustle and defensive toughness.

Although he is recognized as one of the nation's finest offensive coaches, it was the defensive play of Hall's 1975 squad that caught the nation's imagination. The Wildcats at times were accused of being excessively rough and of using "karate" defense, but in the long run they proved that they were merely preparing themselves for the rugged road to the NCAA championship game.

The championship crown eluded Hall and the Wildcats, but they gave such a good account of themselves that Kentucky basketball again was a national byword.

At the end of the season, Hall's three-year record stood at 133-82, excluding a 17-2 record on a 1974 tour of Australia. He had the distinction in 1973 of becoming the first rookie coach in the SEC to be designated Coach of the Year by his fellow coaches and by Coach and Athlete Magazine.

Gathering such honors has been one of Hall's trademarks during a coaching career that began at Shepherdsville (Ky.) High School in 1956 and continued through Regis College and Central Missouri State College before he returned to UK in July 1, 1965, as an assistant to his former coach, Adolph Rupp.

During Hall's two years at Shepherdsville, the Cougars won a Mid-Kentucky Conference title and he was named "Coach of the Year" in 1958. He then served one year as freshman coach and five years as head basketball coach at Regis College in Denver, Colo., where he was also athletic director and earned special recognition as coach of the champion independent team in the area.

While in Denver, he also coached the Capital Federal host team in the 1964 AAU tournament and was selected as head coach of the AAU Stripes in the Olympic trials at Jamaica, N. Y.

His next move was to Central Missouri, where he coached the Mules (19-6) to their first MIAA Conference championship since 1951 and their first Christmas Tournament title in history. He was named MIAA "Coach of the Year" (1964-65).

A three-letter winner and team captain in both sports in high school at Cynthiana, Ky., he played freshman basketball and one year of varsity basketball in the "Fabulous Five" era at the University before transferring to the University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn., where he set a school single game scoring record and was team captain. Coach Lon Varnell, upon retirement, rated Hall as No. 1 of the three best players he ever coached.

After touring Europe with the Globetrotters in 1951, Hall returned to U.K. in 1955 to complete requirements for his B.A. and later (1964) received his M.A. at Colorado State University.

Returning to U.K. again in 1965 as assistant coach and head recruiter, he was instrumental in adopting a running-conditioning program which obviously paid huge dividends as the Wildcats capitalized on speed and endurance to offset a lack of size and advance to the championship game of the NCAA Finals. Hall then successfully recruited six prep All-Americans, including all-time U.K. scoring leader Dan Issel, to form the nucleus of a varsity team that won three straight conference championships and was followed by a team that won three more consecutive SEC titles.

Hall became No. 1 varsity assistant and head freshman Coach to Rupp after Harry C. Lancaster was named permanent athletic director Feb. 1, 1969. His record with the freshmen was 60-15, including an undefeated (22-0) season (1971-72) which resulted in the Kittens being crowned National Freshman Champions by the Basketball News.

During his first season as head coach, the Wildcats won their last nine conference games to sew up the SEC title.

His nine-year coaching record is 135-82. Broken down, it shows a 57-50 five-year mark at Regis, a 19-6 record at Central Missouri, and a 59-26 three-year record at Kentucky.

A popular personality on the clinic and convention circuits, Hall also has had much international exposure. In addition to the Globetrotters tour in 1951, and the "Down Under" tour in 1974, he has helped conduct basketball clinics for the U.S. Army in Anchorage and Fairbanks, Alaska (1968) and at Ramstein Air Base in Frankfurt, Germany and the RAF Base at Mildenhall, England, last Sept. He also was Olympic Trials coach under Hank Iba at the Air Force Academy in July 1972 and is a member of the 1976 Olympic Basketball Committee.

He is married to the former Katharine Dennis of Harrison County, Ky. They have three children—Judy, 20; Kathy, 19, and Steve, 15.

1975-76 LADY KAT BASKETBALL OUTLOOK

According to many observers, the 1975-76 Lady Kat Basketball Team is probably the fastest and quickest in the 70-year history of women's basketball at the University of Kentucky. Coach Sue Feamster and her assistant Don Adkins can also look to a strong bench fortified with some outstanding newcomers.

With only one senior, six returning starters, and eight freshmen the 15 Lady Kats are expected to provide stiff competition in the Kentucky Women's Intercollegiate Conference. The freshmen bring along some outstanding credentials.

Kentucky West All Stars Karen Lewis, from Louisville Iroquois, and Noreen White, from Georgetown, join East All Star Debbie Mack of Lexington Lafayette.

Janet Timperman, a graduate of Louisville Assumption and last year's pre-season coaches selection as the number one female basketball player in Kentucky, also joins the Lady Kat squad.

Terry Galloway, a junior standout and a transfer from Memphis State, joins younger sister Kathy, a freshman all stater from Dyer, Tennessee. Six foot three and a half Melinda Warren, Brenda Wheeler, Terry Boyd, and Lisa Kidd are being relied on to bring additional bench strength. Sally Bussell, the lone senior, is emerging as the leader of the young team and coaches are counting on her "traditional hustle" to spark the team.

Junior Ceal Berry, last year's leading scorer, and sophomore Pam Browning, leading rebounder last year, are performing exceptionally well in practice with as good or better form than in previous years. Kassie Kessinger, a consistent shot maker and a "motivator" adds even further depth to the Lady Kats.

Although seemingly bothered by pre-season injury, trainer Mimi Porter has indicated that all team members will be in top shape in time for the opening game against fifth ranked Tennessee Tech in Cookeville on December 6th. Both March and Lewis are recovering from severe ankle sprains and Kessinger, after a summer of therapy, is fully recovered from knee surgery.

Last year's season record of 19 wins and 7 losses saw Kentucky tackle three of the nation's top ten teams and one international team. The 75-76 schedule is no exception with similar opponents including Ohio State, Tennessee Tech, and Belmont College (a perennial AAU national contender). The Kats will participate in three tournaments prior to the KWIC Championship. The first is to be in Columbus, Mississippi with Delta State, AIAW Champions in 1974-75; Mississippi State College for Women, the second place team in AIAW Competition; Memphis State; and Mississippi University.

All Lady Kat games are being played in Memorial Coliseum with the first home game being played on December 10th as a prelim to the UK vs. Miami Men's contest. Of particular interest to Kentucky fans will be the game played prior to the UK vs. Indiana match on December 15th. The game will feature the Lady Kats against the University of Louisville.

WILDCAT COACHING ASSISTANTS

DICK PARSONS, Assistant Coach

To label Dick Parsons a easy-going, carefree individual, would be a gross miscalculation. The former star U.K. athlete, who holds the distinction of captaining two varsity sports—basketball and baseball—thrives on competition and as the saying goes, “will flat get after you,” whether he is involved in his daily running program, playing golf or going after a lunger in his favorite fishing hole on the Licking River. And it is this spirit which reaps dividends with the Wildcats on the basketball court.

The well respected Parsons, who begins his fourth year as Joe B. Hall's No. 1 assistant, returned to the University as baseball coach in 1969. Before giving up his position to join basketball on a full time basis, he molded a team (1971) which established or tied 15 school records.

A mountaineer in his own right, Parsons came to the University in 1958 after an outstanding career as a four-sports star at Harlan High School, where he had a three-year basketball scoring total of 1,276 points.

A consistent player who made few mistakes at UK, Parsons was known as a fine outside shooter and for his aggressive defense during three years as a starting guard. His career high 21 points came against Mississippi as a sophomore.

He was a two-time (1960, '61) recipient of the coveted A. B. Chandler award, given annually for the player best exemplifying the qualities of leadership, scholarship, character and ability. Only three other Wildcats have twice been so honored since the award was originated in 1951.

Holding more Wildcat baseball records than any other player, he was an All-Conference shortstop in 1959 and 1961, All-NCAA District 1960, '61, and All-American '61. He hit .400 his senior year.

He was an assistant football coach at Glasgow High two years and baseball and basketball coach at Boyle County High from 1963 to 1968.

While working on his Master's Degree at the University in 1968-69, he scouted, recruited and helped with the Wildcat freshmen team, later accepting a part-time assistantship in basketball in addition to his baseball job.

He is married to the former Celia Cawood of Harlan. They have a daughter, Kathy, 9, and a son, Ed, 11.

LEONARD HAMILTON, Assistant Coach

Much of Kentucky's defensive prowess last year can be credited to the talent of Leonard Hamilton, a second year assistant, who came to UK after three years as an assistant at Austin Peay State University.

In high school at Gastonia, N. C., he lettered three-years in football and twice in basketball. He was basketball team captain two years at Gaston Community College in Dallas, N. C., where he scored 54 points in one game, set a record for most field goals in a season, and was All-Region and All-Tournament.

At University of Tennessee—Martin, he was team captain and led in assists and steals, was most valuable defensive player, All-Conference and All-Tournament. He was elected “Mr. Volunteer” by the student body and played in the Kentucky-Tennessee All-Star game.

At Austin Peay, he coached the freshman team, scouted and recruited. During his three years there, the Governors went from last place to first in the OVC, appeared in two NCAA tournaments and were nationally ranked in scoring.

He is married to the former Claudette Hale. They have a son, Lenny, 5.

LYNN NANCE, Assistant Coach

A stickler for detail and a motivator of young men are just two qualities which brand Lynn Nance as one of the bright young coaches on the collegiate basketball scene.

A former All-Coast and All-Pac 8 Conference forward at the University of Washington, Nance had coaching experience at his alma mater and was with the FBI and NCAA before joining UK in August 1974 as head recruiter and assistant coach.

He began his collegiate basketball career at Southwest Baptist Junior College in Bolivar, Mo., after earning prep All-State and All-District honors as a four-sports athlete in his native Granby, Mo.

He starred for Washington in 1963-64 and 1964-65, and after graduation, spent most of one exhibition season with the St. Louis Hawks before an injury ended his pro aspirations.

He was coach and athletic director one year at Versailles, Mo., High School, where he compiled a 28-2 record, won the conference championship and advanced to the regional play-offs.

Nance was freshman coach under Mac Duckworth at Washington one year and freshman coach and recruiter two years under Tex Winter, with varsity coaching assignments on defense and with the big man.

He spent three years with the FBI before joining the NCAA headquarters staff of Walter Byers. He is married to the former Sally Ann Scholes of Granby. They have a son, Kevin, 12.

WHO WERE THE 'FABULOUS FIVE'?

The most frequently asked question tossed at basketball historians and sports authorities is "Who were the 'Fabulous Five' of Kentucky?" The answer is Alex Groza (center), Ralph Beard and Kenny Rollins (guards), Wah Wah Jones and Cliff Barker (forwards). This famous 1948 team, captained by Rollins, won 36 and lost 3 while sweeping to Kentucky's first NCAA title and went on to participate as a unit in the Olympic Games—helping the USA team capture the world championship. Rollins graduated after the '48 season, but the remaining foursome continued to play havoc with collegiate basketball and copped another NCAA title for Kentucky in 1949 on a record of 36-2.

WILDCATS FEATURED TWICE ON NATIONAL TELEVISION AND ONCE ON SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE SERIES

The Southeastern Conference Television Series enters its 12th year and the Kentucky Wildcats will keep intact their record of having appeared at least three times each year, making it the only SEC team to claim that magnetic attraction for its brand of basketball.

In fact, two of their games will be featured nationally and both will be in Lexington—Jan. 17 against Vanderbilt, and Mar. 6 against Alabama. The other SEC series game will be Feb. 7 at Tennessee.

Three teams—Alabama, Auburn and Tennessee are scheduled three times also, while Georgia and Vanderbilt will appear twice. Florida, LSU, Ole Miss and Mississippi State will appear only once.

The 10-week series over a regional network again will be produced by TVS Television of New York. All games will be played on Saturday afternoons.

Auburn opens the series at Louisiana State Jan. 3.

Kentucky has won 26 and lost only 14, for a 65 per cent win average during the eleven year series. The year-by-year breakdown: Won one of three games in '64-65, three of four in '65-66, two of four in both '66-67 and '67-68, three of five in '68-69, all four in '69-70, three of four in '70-71, two of three in both '71-72 and '72-73, one of three in '73-74, and all three in '74-75.

About NOTRE DAME

The University of Notre Dame was founded in 1842 by a young priest of a French missionary order called the Congregation of the Holy Cross. Father Edward F. Sorin started his school in the northern Indiana wilderness with about 300 and three log buildings in bad repair.

Notre Dame's 1,250-acre campus, with its twin lakes and wooded areas, is located just north of the city limits of South Bend, Ind., which has a population of around 130,000. Its physical plant of more than 95 buildings has an insured replacement value of $185.6 million. Some two dozen buildings, valued at around $80 million, have been erected during the last 20 years, including one of the world's largest collegiate libraries.

Notre Dame's main academic units are the four undergraduate colleges—Arts and Letters, Science, Engineering, and Business Administration—and the Law School. There is no separate graduate faculty, but virtually all the academic departments also offer advanced degree programs.

The University library system contains about 1.2 million volumes, the bulk of which are housed in the Memorial Library. The library has an acquisition rate of some 50,000 volumes a year.

Notre Dame's teaching and research faculty numbers about 650, almost all full-time. There are an additional 85 persons classified as professional specialists and research fellows. Nine of 10 members of the faculty are lay persons, and about 75 per cent of the entire faculty have doctorates or the equivalent.

Admission is highly competitive, with about three applicants for each freshman class position. The University actively seeks qualified members of minority groups and while the vast majority of its students are Catholic, religion is not considered in screening applicants. The undergraduate enrollment is 6,600. Women were admitted to undergraduate studies in the fall of 1972, and Notre Dame is now completely co-educational. A total of 1,000 students are in the graduate programs, and another 600 in Law School or in the Master's in Business Administration sequence.

The residence hall is the basic unit of competition in Notre Dame's extensive intramural athletic program. While intercollegiate sports, particularly Notre Dame's legendary football teams, are an important facet of student life, the University's varsity athletes meet the same academic standards required of all students. Notre Dame ranks among the leaders in the number of post-graduate NCAA scholarship awards given to its athletes.

Some facts from a recent freshman profile provide an insight into the present-day Notre Dame student: Half finished in the top 10 per cent of their high school classes; another 10 per cent were presidents of their senior classes or student bodies, while 19 per cent were captains of at least one varsity athletic team.

About half of Notre Dame's seniors go on to graduate or professional schools, and Notre Dame leads all Catholic universities and ranks high among all universities in the number of Woodrow Wilson, Danforth and National Science Foundation graduate fellowships won.

Notre Dame has a study exchange program with neighboring Saint Mary's College, and starting in the fall of 1972, it directly admitted women for the first time as undergraduates.

The University has some 50,000 alumni around the world, most of them organized into a network of 176 alumni clubs.

ON, ON, U. OF K.

On, On, U. of K.
We are right for the fight today.
Hold that ball and hit that line;
every wildcat star will shine.
We'll fight, fight, fight for the blue and white,
as we roll to that goal, varsity.
And we'll kick, pass and run
'till the battle is won,
and we'll bring home the victory.

U.K. ALMA MATER

Hail Kentucky, Alma Mater!
Loyal sons and daughters sing;
sound her praise with voice united;
to the breeze her colors fling,
To the blue and white be true;
badge triumphant age on age.
Blue the sky that o'er us bends;
white Kentucky's stainless page.

MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME

The sun shines bright in the old Kentucky home,
'Tis summer, the people are gay;
The corn-top's ripe and the meadow's in the bloom
While the birds make music all the day.
The young folks roll on the little cabin floor
All merry, all happy and bright;
By'n by hard times comes a-knocking at the door
Then my old Kentucky home, Good-night!
Weep no more my lady, Oh! weep no more today!
We will sing one song for the old Kentucky home
For the old Kentucky home, far away.

ATHLETICS AT KENTUCKY

Kentucky's athletic program, a well-balanced and ambitious activity featuring intercollegiate competition in ten different sports, is organized under the Department of Athletics and a corporation known as the University of Kentucky Athletics Association.

The program is conducted without overemphasis or sacrifice of educational objectives and in strict compliance with the rules of the University, the Southeastern Conference and the National Collegiate Athletics Association.

A board of directors, headed by the President of the University in the capacity of chairman, maintains overall policy supervision of the athletic program.

In addition to the UK President, board officers include the Vice-President for Student Affairs as vice-chairman and Dr. W. L. Matthews in the capacity of secretary. Seventeen other members, drawn from the University faculty and the general public, also serve on the board as appointees of the president as do two student representatives.

Supervising the steady growth and balanced development of the athletic program is Athletic Director Cliff Hagan.

DIGGER PHELPS

Head Basketball Coach

Richard "Digger" Phelps added one more line to his list of "miracles" with Notre Dame's 19-10 finish last season and a spot in the NCAA Midwest Regional. Previous to that Phelps had amazed the basketball world with the following: a 26-3 record in 1973-74; a second-place finish in the National Invitational Tournament in 1972-73; a 26-3 record at Fordham his first year there in 1970-71.

But the accomplishments of the 34-year-old coach have not gone unnoticed. The Metropolitan Basketball Writers Association voted Phelps its Coach of the Year and he finished fourth to Al McGuire in the United Press poll after his 1970-71 season at Fordham. In 1973-74 Phelps was the undisputed Coach of the Year in the Metropolitan Basketball Writers, United Press, The Sporting News and Basketball Weekly polls.

Phelps took over the Notre Dame team for the 1971-72 season. He inherited a squad with only one letterman and there were those who felt the Irish might be fortunate to win one game with their topflight schedule. Phelps directed the team to a 6-20 season.

The next season began bleakly, with the Irish losing six of their first seven games, three by two points and another in overtime. But Phelps kept the morale high and Notre Dame started an upward swing by snapping Marquette's 81-game winning streak at home with a 71-69 upset. That was one of several upsets (St. John's, South Carolina, Southern Cal, Louisville and North Carolina) the Irish engineered on their way to a surprising 18-12 season and a second place in the NIT. And if not for a final Virginia Tech buzzer shot in overtime, Phelps' Irish would have captured the prestigious NIT.

In 1973-74 Phelps set a goal of making the NCAA tournament. He wasn't concerned how many games the Irish won, as long as it was enough to get them into the tourney. A 24-2 mark was enough. And it included some impressive victories. Playing without second-leading scorer Gary Brokaw, the Irish traveled to Bloomington, Ind., and broke the Hoosiers' 19-game home-court streak with a 73-67 win. No one will forget how the Irish came from 12 points down with three minutes to play to beat UCLA, 71-70, and end college basketball's longest streak at 88. And to top the regular season off, Notre Dame stopped South Carolina's home-court string at 34 with a 72-68 win.

Last year, despite the early losses of All-Americans John Shumate and Gary Brokaw, Phelps took the Irish to an 18-8 regular season finish and a spot in the NCAA.

The upcoming season will be Digger's sixth in the college ranks, his first year being at Fordham. It was there he first gained the attention of the basketball world when he took over a 10-15 Ram squad and finished with a 26-3 ledger the next year and third place in the NCAA Eastern Regionals.

A former native of Beacon, N.Y., Phelps attended Rider College in Trenton, N.J. He competed with the basketball team there for the next four years, gaining a reputation for his tough defensive play before graduating in 1963.

Although never a high scorer, Phelps was a member of the 1963 Rider team that went to the NAIA Tournament in Kansas City. As a graduate assistant it was Phelps' scouting report on New York University that helped Rider gain national recognition with its stunning 1964 upset, ending the Violets' homecourt winning string dating back to 1941.

In 1973 Phelps received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from Rider during homecoming weekend. Phelps was chosen for "distinguished and exceptional attainment in life, thereby reflecting glory and credit on the college."

After a brief stint as a junior high teacher and high school coach at St. Gabriel's in Hazleton, Pa. (winning the Pennsylvania Class C title), Phelps moved on to Pennsylvania as an assistant to coach Dick Harter in 1966. As freshman coach, his squads compiled an overall record of 65-20 in four years, including one undefeated 21-0 season. From there, Phelps went to Fordham in 1970 and, the following year, he realized a lifelong dream by signing a four-year contract to become Notre Dame's coach.

Phelps, who coauthored a book with Sports Illustrated's Larry Keith entitled "A Coach's World," is a committee member of the Joseph Kennedy Foundation for the mentally retarded.

Phelps and his wife, Terry, who is currently pursuing a doctorate degree at Notre Dame, have three children, Karen, 9, Ricky, 7, and Jennifer, 5.
