ODK Trophies

ODK President Paul Warnecke and tag sales chairman Chip Rice display the awards for this year's tag sales. Small trophies will be awarded to weekly winners and large ones to the year's winners.

First Winners Named In Tag Sales Contest

Kappa Delta and Zeta Beta Tau are the winners in the first week's competition of the annual ODK fall tag sales campaign. ODK president Paul Warnecke, in announcing the winners, said this was the first year that weekly awards have been given in the campaign.

Previously, awards were given at the end of the football season to the fraternity and sorority with the largest total sales. Runners-up in each division were also given trophies.

This year's weekly awards are based on total sales. At the close of the campaign, trophies will be awarded to the winning sorority and fraternity based on the average money per pledge turned in during the sales.

Warnecke emphasized that this method did not exclude activities from participating in the tag sales, but that the number of pledges would be used only as a basis for determining the overall winners. There will be no runner-up trophies this year.

Representatives of KD and ZBT will be awarded silver cups the size of the previous runner-up trophies between halves of the UK-LSU football game tomorrow night.

The overall winner in each division will receive silver tea services for four.

Warnecke said the new policy

Polio Vaccine Still Offered

Dr. W. A. Heinz, head of the vaccine distribution, today urged all members of the University community to take advantage of the polio vaccine clinic currently underway at the UK infirmary.

Dr. Heinz said response during the first week was not as great as was expected. The shots are free to persons under 20 years of age, and expectant mothers, with a fee of $1.10 per shot for all others.

The shots are given daily from 8 a. m. to 11:30 a. m., and from 1 p. m. to 3:30 p. m.; and from 8 to 11:30 on Saturday.

'Bike' Race Patterned After 'Little 500' Event Set As Tentative Plan

Plans for a proposed "Little Kentucky Derby" on the UK campus were given a big boost Wednesday night by a team of Indiana University "experts."

The Indiana contingent was headed by William Armstrong, executive director of the Indiana University Foundation, fund raising agency of the school.

Armstrong, accompanied by four IU students, explained the "Little 500" bicycle race held annually there under the guidance of the Foundation.

James A. Beazley, head of the UK Alumni Association's Alumni Fund, the equivalent of IU's Foundation, said plans for the little Kentucky Derby were still in the talking stage.

The proposed UK race would be directed by Beazley and by the Student Alumni Club, a student organization formed last spring for the purpose of promoting better student-alumni relations.

Carolyn Collier, president of the Student-Alum Club, emphasized however, that the race would not be sponsored by any one organization, but would be a campus-wide project.

Miss Collier said tentative plans called for the Little Derby to be a bicycle race and to be patterned in many respects after the Indiana meet.

Armstrong, aided by a film of the 1955 Little 500, outlined to the group of some 40 persons at the Student Union Ballroom how the IU race, patterned after the famed 500 mile race at the Indianapolis Speedway, is conducted.

There are 33 four-man teams in the Little 500, Armstrong said. Length of the race is 50 miles, or 200 laps around a quarter-mile track.

Each team has three sponsors—the men's organization which furnishes the riders; a co-ed sponsoring group which makes the uni-

Contests Start Tomorrow In 7th Sigma Chi Derby

Sigma Chi will conduct its seventh annual Derby at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow on the intramural field. The Derby includes a series of novelty athletic events in which sorority pledges compete as representatives for their respective sororities.

Climaxing the Derby is the Queen contest. Girls will be dressed in heels, sweaters, and shorts. The entries, two from each sorority, will be led to the stage where they will step into a cutout profile of a female figure. A permanent trophy is awarded to the girl who is selected as queen by the panel of judges.

Derby Chairman Mike Dickerson has organized the events and arranged for other Sigs to take charge of them. The curtain raiser is the Obstacle-Course Race, in which three-girl relay teams plow through devilishly arranged inner tubes, a maze in a haystack, and other frustrating devices around the field.

In the Egg Toss each team will toss an egg, gently, from one member to another. Breakage of eggs eliminates the team. Consumption of a six-inch pie is the goal of the girl who represents her sorority in the Pie Eating Contest.

In the Pledge Target, each team member will throw three tomatoes at a target, the bullseye of which will be a Sigma Chi pledge's head. Last of the sports events is the Flag Chase. In an enclosed area at a given signal, sorority pledges will chase three Sigma Chis, trying to capture a flag tucked in each boy's belt. The boys will defend themselves by running and with pressurized cans of whipping cream which will be used like a flame thrower. The winners are those who get the flags first.

An All-Participation Trophy is given to the sorority compiling the greatest total of points, awarded in each event on a basis of three for first place, two for second, and one for third.

Queen Candidates

Pulitzer Winners To Speak Here

The slate of speakers for the University of Kentucky's 1956-57 Blazer Lectures will include two Pulitzer Prize-winning historians, an Eastern university president, a nationally known librarian, and a former UK sociologist.

Speakers and the dates of their appearances on the University campus follow: Dr. Roy Nichols, vice provost and dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, University of Pennsylvania, Oct. 26; Dr. Allan Nevins, professor of American history, Columbia University, Nov. 12; Dr. Barnaby Keeney, president of Brown University, Jan. 7; Dr. Louis B. Wright, director of the Folger Shakespeare Library, Washington, D. C., Jan. 15; and Dr. Robin Williams, professor of sociology at Cornell University, April 15.

Announcement of this year's speakers was made Sunday by Dr. Thomas D. Clark, head of UK's Department of History and chairman of the Blazer Lecture Committee. The annual series is made possible through a fund established by Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Blazer of Ashland.

Dr. Nichols, the first lecturer, will speak at 8 p. m. Friday, Oct. 26, in Memorial Hall in connection with UK's annual Education Conference. His topic will be "Teacher to the Rescue."

In 1949, Dr. Nichols was awarded the Pulitzer Prize in History. His works include "The Democratic Machine," "Syllabus for the History of Civilization," "America Yesterday and Today," "Growth of American," and "The Republic of the United States."

Dr. Nichols, who also holds the rank of professor of history at the University of Pennsylvania, holds the Ph.D. degree from Columbia University and both A.B. and A.M. degrees from Rutgers University.

Dr. Nevins, the Columbia University historian, will address the Blazer audience on "The Civil War—Some False and Some True Heroics," when he appears on Nov. 12. He is a winner of the Pulitzer Prize for Biography.

Among Dr. Nevins' works are "Study in Power" and "Ford, the Times, the Man, the Company." Prior to beginning his teaching career, he was an editorial writer on several New York newspapers. He holds both the A.M. and A.B. degrees from the University of Illinois and honorary doctorates from several other institutions.

"Some Uses and Abuses of History" will be the subject of an address on Jan. 7 by Dr. Keeney, president of Brown University. Before becoming president of that school, he taught history at both Harvard University and Brown University and was dean of the Brown Graduate School.

Dr. Keeney's best known work is "Judgment by Peers." He holds the A.B. degree from the University of North Carolina and was awarded both the A.M. and Ph.D. degrees by Harvard.

Dr. Wright, director of the Folger Library, has chosen "Civilizing the American Frontier" as his subject for the lecture on Jan. 15. He has served as director of the well known Shakespearean Library since July 1, 1948.

The librarian was awarded both A.M. and Ph.D. degrees from the University of North Carolina and earlier he received the A.B. degree from Wofford College. He taught at both the University of North Carolina and Johns Hopkins prior to accepting his post at the Folger Library.

Presenting the final lecture of the Blazer Series on April 15 will be Dr. Robin Williams, sociologist at Cornell University. "Our Changing American Institutions" will be his topic.

Dr. Williams held the posts of instructor in sociology and research assistant at the University of Kentucky from 1939 to 1942. In addition, he held various research positions in government before joining the Cornell faculty in 1946.

Among his best known works are "The Reduction of Intergroup Tensions" and "The American Soldier." His formal education includes the B.S. and M.S. degrees from North Carolina State University and the Ph.D. degree from Harvard.

Chief purposes of the Blazer talks are to instruct University students in the important fields of human endeavor and to bring attention in this community to national and world affairs.

This is the ninth year in which the Blazer lectures in history and the social studies have been offered at the University.

2 Weeks Remain For Pix Sitings

Kentuckian editor, Joyce Adams has announced that there are only two more weeks open for picture sitings. The fee for a sitting is $3. The last day is Nov. 7.

Picture proofs should be returned. If they are not, a member of the staff will choose the picture to be used.

Those who have not yet purchased a Kentuckian may still do so for the price of $5.00. Anyone buying a Kentuckian after Nov. 1 will be charged $6.00 if there are any available.

Connie Mack's real name is Cornelius McGillicuddy. An Olympic marathon race is 26 miles and 385 yards.

There are 15 men on a rugby football game. To score 300, a bowler rolls only 12 balls.

Extra Funds Voted For Debate Team Aid

The Student Government Association appropriated an additional $400 to the Debate Team at the regular Monday night Assembly meeting. This brings the SGA appropriation to the Debate Team to a total of $800.

Barbaranelle Paxton, chairman of the student directory committee, announced that the 1956-57 student directory will be available to students next week.

The Assembly voted to appoint a committee to contact the Athletic Association about the possibility of obtaining single tickets to football and basketball games for the wives and husbands of married students. Only season tickets are now available. It was suggested that the husbands and wives be allowed to sit with their mates at these athletic events.

"If any organization is important enough to merit money from SGA and has the guts to come before the Assembly and ask for it, there is still money left in the treasury." This statement was made by Garon Bybee, representative of Commerce College.

It was decided that any organization desiring an appropriation from SGA must appear first before the finance committee of the Assembly. Harry Connelly is chairman of this committee.

Betsy Patterson, chairman of the Student Union Board, spoke Monday night about the Assembly's motion to unite the social committees of the two organizations. Miss Patterson said the Student Union Board has a flat budget of $950 instead of receiving $5.00 per student as was printed in last week's Kernel.

John Darsie stated that the pictures of all SGA members would appear on the bulletin board in the Grill. Their names and addresses will also be posted.

Wilbur Shiflet moved to appropriate $400 to the Livestock Judging Team. The motion was defeated.

SDX Hears Grady Clay

Grady Clay, real estate and building editor of the Courier-Journal, was the first speaker on the Sigma Delta Chi lecture series for 1956-57.

Marvin Beard, president of SDX, introduced Clay and presented him with an honorary certificate from the School of Journalism which entitled him to be "Professor for the Day."

Clay emphasized in his talk that "no reporter's beat ever stops at the city limits or at any geographic location." He also brought out seven points which he thought were essential in the technique of doing a job well. He suggested being where things happen, seeking out people in key positions, taking trips with people, being involved in a community—but not too involved, being accessible, asking yourself "what happens next?" and being willing to wade through technical reports and dull meetings.

ID Cards

Students who have not picked up their ID cards should do so between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. Friday and Saturday in the lobby of Memorial Coliseum, the Athletics Department has announced. Those who have not had their pictures made should report to the Coliseum between 9 and 12 Saturday morning. All students going to have their ID pictures made should take their yellow fee receipt.

Cattle Team In Missouri

University of Kentucky livestock judges are currently competing in the American Royal Livestock Show, Kansas City, Mo. The show began Oct. 18 and will continue through Oct. 23.

This is one of three national livestock shows the team will enter in October and November. The other two are Eastern National Livestock Show, Timonium, Md., Nov. 8-13 and the International Livestock Exposition, Chicago, Nov. 22-28.

Members of the team are Bob Arnold, Flemingsburg; Ranny Ayer, Liva; Bill Bennett, Owensboro; Beverly Botsford, Springfield, Ohio; Arlen Burton, Nancy; Don

Stevenson To Speak At Courthouse Today

Democratic Presidential candidate Adlai E. Stevenson will speak at the Fayette County Courthouse at 12:15 p.m. today.

The candidate is scheduled to arrive at the courthouse in the midst of a gala parade made up largely of students including many from UK.

Stevenson is scheduled to arrive at Blue Grass Field at 11 a.m., accompanied by about 32 persons including members of his staff, friends and advisors.

Godbey, Owenton, and Wilbur Shiflet, Witt.

After a brief reception at the airport, where he will be welcomed by Lt. Gov. Henry Lee Waterfield, he will leave the airport and travel along the Versailles Road to High Street and Harrison Avenue. There the motorcade will be joined by a parade which will accompany him to the courthouse.

The parade will be composed of the UK Pershing Rifles color guard and drill team, three carloads of UK coeds, student Volunteers for Stevenson-Kefauver, bands from Lafayette High and other schools and various marching delegations. The parade will proceed down Harrison, over the Union Station Viaduct and west on Main Street to the courthouse, where the candidate will make his principal address.

Following the address the former governor of Illinois will attend a luncheon sponsored by the Fayette County Woman's Democratic Club.

Among those expected to arrive with Stevenson are:

Mrs. Ernest Ives, the candidate's sister; Mr. Ives and their son, Tim; Robert Kennedy of Massachusetts, member of Stevenson's staff and a brother of Senator Kennedy; Mrs. Katie Louchheim, Washington, national Democratic women's chairman; James Finnegan, Philadelphia, Stevenson's campaign manager;

William Blair, Chicago, personal aide; Mrs. Eugenie Anderson, Minnesota, former ambassador to Denmark; Wilson Wyatt, Stevenson's personal advisor and Mrs. Wyatt; Mrs. Warwick Anderson, mother-in-law of Adlai Stevenson Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. Barry Bingham, all of Louisville.

Mrs. Alben Barkley will arrive earlier by train to join the group.

Chandler To Speak Here

Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler to speak in Student Union Building, Oct. 30.

Gov. Chandler will make the principal address at the annual banquet of the Fayette County Farm Bureau.

The program will start at 6:30 p.m. in the Student Union Ballroom. Chandler will speak on a topic that will be of interest to the farmer.

S. Headley Shouse, Farm Bureau director, will be toastmaster and will introduce the governor. Special guest at the meeting will be Ben Butler, state Commissioner of Agriculture.

Entertainment will be furnished by the Lafayette High School Charmettes.

Harvard Prospects To Be Interviewed

All seniors interested in attending Harvard University's Graduate School of Arts and Sciences will be interviewed Monday, Oct. 29.

Dean J. P. Elder of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Harvard University, will meet with interested persons from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. in the Placement Office, Administration Building.

Seniors can contact Mrs. Katherine Kemper, Room 107, Administration Building, to make an appointment.

THE SEARCH FOR BRIDEY SIGAFOOS

It was a dullish evening at the Theta house. Mary Ellen Krumbald was sticking pins in an effigy of the house mother; Evelyn Zinsmaster was welding a manhole cover to her charm bracelet; Algelica McKeesport was writing a letter to Elvis Presley in blood. Like I say, it was a dullish evening.

Suddenly Dolores Vladnay stood up and stamped her foot. "Chaps," she said to her sorors, "this is too yawn-making! Let's do something gay and mad and wild and different and gasp-making. Anybody got an idea?"

"No," said the sorors, shaking their little sausage curls.

"Think, chaps, think!" said Dolores and passed Philip Morris Cigarettes to everybody, and if there ever was a think-making smoke, it is today's fresh and zestful and yummy Philip Morris. Things come clear when you puff a good, clean, natural Philip Morris — knots untie, dilemmas dissolve, problems evaporate, cobwebs vanish, fog disperses, and the benevolent sun pours radiance on a new and dewy world. Oh, happy world! Oh, Philip Morris! Oh, regular! Oh, long-size! Oh, get some already!

"One, two, three."

Now Geraldine Quidnunc, her drooping brain-cells revived by a good Philip Morris, leapt up and cried, "Oh, I have a perfect gasser of an idea! Let's hypnotize somebody!"

"Oh, capital!" cried the sorors. "Oh, tingle-making!" "Yes," said Dolores Vladnay, "it is a splendid idea, but hypnosis requires a pliant and malleable mind, and we are all so strong and well-adjusted."

At this point, in walked a young pledge named Alice Bluegown. "Excuse me, mistresses," said she, "I have finished making your beds, doing your homework, and ironing your pleats. Will there be anything else?"

"Yes," snapped Dolores Vladnay. "When I count to three, you will be hypnotized."

"Yes, excellency," said Alice, bobbing a curtsy.

"One, two, three," said Dolores.

Alice promptly went into a trance.

"Go back," said Dolores. "Go back to your fifth birthday, back to your birth, to before your birth, to your last incarnation. . . . Now, who are you?"

"My name is Bridey Sigafoos," said Alice. "The year is 1818, and I am in County Cork."

"Coo!" said the sorors.

"How old are you?" asked Dolores.

"I am seven," said Alice.

"Where is your mother?" asked Dolores.

"She got sold at the fair last year."

"Coo!" said the sorors.

"Tell us about yourself," said Dolores.

"I am five feet tall," said Alice. "I have brown eyes, and weigh 3200 pounds."

"Coo!" said the sorors.

"Isn't that rather heavy for a girl?" said Dolores.

"Who's a girl?" said Alice. "I'm a black and white guernsey."

"Coo!" said the sorors.

"Moo!" said Bridey Sigafoos.

Policy Of 'Open Aid' Is To Be Preferred

Mr. Frank Leahy, until recently one of the nation's top football coaches as he guided the fortunes of Notre Dame's Fighting Irish, was quoted by the Associated Press Saturday as saying he was in favor of open aid to college football players.

Among the purists who read this, there must have been some stern reactions to the statement.

But to anyone who has followed the recent football "scandals", particularly on the west coast, the idea has merit—quite a bit.

It is no secret, except to the most naive, that college football players (and this is not an attempt to single out footballers as the only group guilty—they just happen to be in the limelight at the present) have, in many instances, long ceased to be amateurs in the strictest sense of the word.

The recent Pacific Coast Conference episodes only served to bring into the full glare of publicity a practice that has been going on ever since Papa found out Junior was more valuable carrying a pig-skin than books.

In the PCC, four schools were found guilty of recruiting violations ("under the table" aid to athletes) and were fined a total of a quarter of a million dollars by the conference chiefs. The NCAA stepped in and placed two of the schools—UCLA and Washington—on two-year probation, thereby rendering them ineligible for post season competition in any sport.

In our own Southeastern Conference, Auburn and Florida are currently on the same type of NCAA probation—also for recruiting violations.

The list does not end here, but goes on to include representatives of practically every major conference in the country who have felt the heavy hand of the NCAA for giving various types of illegal aid.

This all leads to one conclusion—football, in the main, has long since passed from the days of grandfather when 500 students came out on Saturday afternoon to watch a bunch of amateurs beat each others brains out.

Football, in short, is big business.

Many persons have decried this trend, advocating a return to the "good old days" of amateurism. Ideally, this is probably the best solution—and the Ivy League supposedly has instituted such a program.

But it would be extremely difficult to make a school with an 80,000 capacity stadium adhere to the simon pure idea—while their stadium slowly turned into a gigantic white elephant, with thousands of empty seats each weekend.

Regardless of what some may say, a "do or die for old Siwash" attitude isn't what fills up stands. Most customers, rather, come to see a good ball game, regardless of the amateur status of the players.

This can be proved by a flick of the television switch on Sunday afternoon when the Cleveland Browns do battle before capacity crowds in National Football League contests.

According to Dr. A. D. Kirwan, former UK football coach and Dean of Men, and now chairman of the NCAA infractions committee, the SEC has taken a step which appears to be a move in the right direction.

Under SEC rules, according to Dr. Kirwan, a footballer on a scholarship now receives his University fees (tuition), board, room, books, and $15 a month for laundry, dry cleaning, etc.

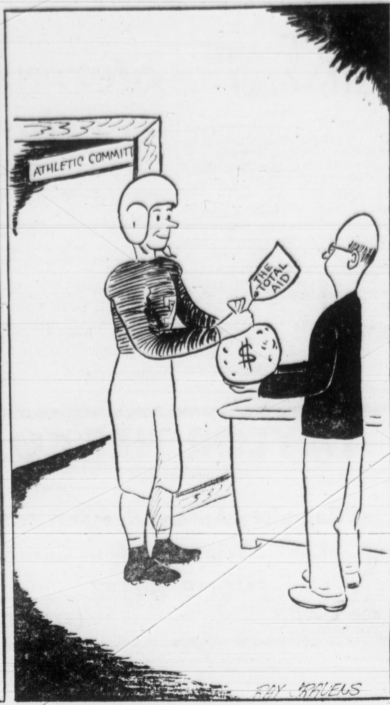

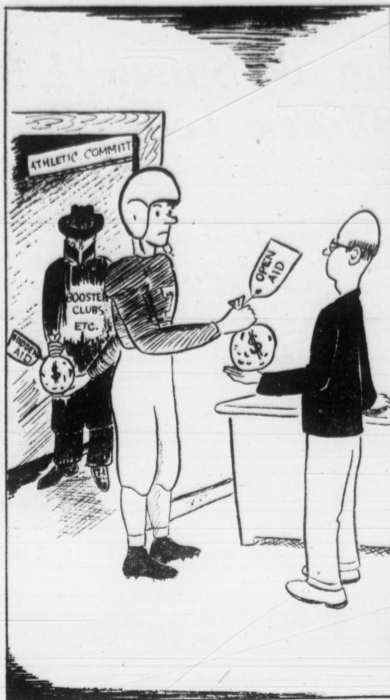

This seems to be a much more sensible approach than one which says, "our boys play for the love of the game"—while "our boys" are driving new Cadillacs provided by booster clubs, alumni groups, and the like.

A Question of Values

One professional football coach has been quoted as saying that many times the compensation he offered rookies fresh out of college represented a "salary cut."

Ronnie Knox, highly publicized UCLA footballer who declined to play college football his senior year in favor of a professional contract, recently bylined an article in a national magazine, entitled "College Football Is Pro Football", and gave some seemingly very concrete figures to back up his assertion.

But despite all the evidence, some schools and school officials persist in their "holier-than-thou" attitude, rather than facing the problem realistically.

Possibly, as was said, a return to the pure amateurism (if there is such an animal) would be best. But since this program appears so unlikely to be carried out, then the lesser of two evils must be chosen.

And open aid appears to be definitely the lesser "evil."

It may be bad to make a professional out of a collegian. It's a heck of a lot worse to make a hypocrite out of him also.

Let's Save A Little For The Rainy Day

The Student Government Association has appropriated $800 for the Debate Team. This is quite a generous act on the part of the Assembly, and, without a doubt, the Debate Team is a deserving organization.

However, there are approximately 120 student organizations on this campus. If all of these organizations deemed themselves as important as the Debate Team, they would have the same right to ask SGA for an $800 appropriation. If approved SGA would have the obligation of appropriating approximately $100,000. This, needless to say, is impossible.

Harry Connelly, SGA treasurer, suggested that the Assembly delay action on the Debate Team proposal for a period of two weeks.

In the meantime SGA would have had time to determine and evaluate the needs of the numerous other organizations on campus. This, it seems, would have been the wisest course to take. However, the Assembly chose to jump in headfirst without considering any other organizations which also might have to look to SGA for financial aid.

The Debate Team is more than worthy of the money which it has received. But it must be realized that there are 119 other worthy organizations on this campus.

Let's hope that SGA doesn't give away all of its funds to the first three organizations that request financial aid.

Back Talk

Cafeteria Rapped

To the Editor:

The fuse of gripes has been burning fast and furiously for some time now concerning the service in the Donovan Hall cafeteria. Monday morning was the end of that fuse and I hope the explosion will be heard in the Donovan kitchen.

If a hungry student should be unlucky enough to arrive for his meal during the last thirty minutes of the scheduled eating period, then he is subjected to discovering the striking dissimilarity between the menu and the "food-under-glass." A short time ago, I arrived for my evening meal only to find that potatoes and meat balls had been substituted for the menu-wise spaghetti and meat balls. When questioned, your staff answered, "We ran out." Obviously!

"Wouldn't it be easier," I continued, "to plan your meals according to the number of cards sold?" The answer, of course, was an expected, "Well, everyone doesn't show up."

That brings us to this: Is it fair to those of us, who have paid $165 for board, to be the victims of this oversight. The food is paid for—prepare it and let us who have paid you decide whether or not to eat it. When YOU assume the responsibility of deciding FOR us, then WE suffer to the time of a very unenjoyable meal of potatoes when we have paid for spaghetti. Moreover, when did potatoes become a main course?

Monday morning you ran out of scrambled eggs and when I asked if any were being prepared, someone rudely answered, "No, eat fried eggs." If you tried to run a cafeteria in this manner you would fold in a week; you are in business because we were "required" to pay in advance. A clever disguise for a poorly run establishment.

Your motto is not "service to the students" but rather, "do just enough to get by."

Your failure on several occasions to estimate the number of boys who will eat each meal is proof of your statistical failure in planning meals. Do not attempt to try something that you obviously are not trained in doing. Horn and Hardart's can do it, but they hire a complete floor of clerks that do nothing but draw graphs and estimate the number of persons who will eat at their automats each day.

As said before, we have taken your word that we will receive our meals, and have paid accordingly. Now follow through and reduce this increasing dissatisfaction and help us to enjoy our meals.

Hugh Vandergrift

Former UK Student Is Now Top Jet Pilot

First Lieutenant Eugene G. Auen, a UK graduate, is one of the six Far East Air Force Thunderjet pilots competing in the 1956 Phase II, Special Weapons Delivery, USAF Fighter Weapons Meet at Nellis Air Force Base, Nevada, on Oct. 25.

The USAF Fighter Weapons Meet is held annually and it will bring together the United States Air Force's top fighter pilots from Far East Air Force, Air National Guard, Air Defense Command Strategic Air Command, Tactical Air Command, and United States Air Forces Europe. The meet will test the flying skill of Lt. Auen utilizing simulated nuclear weapons in special deliveries, then will evaluate his abilities in simulated missions that will cover the fighter bombers unique bombing systems and weapons.

Lt. Auen was one of the top four pilots selected in a Far East Air Force bombing competition held at Kadena Air Base, Okinawa, in June, 1956, and he will be representing the Far East Air Force in the United States Air Force gunnery meet.

The Thunderjet, which Lt. Auen will be flying at the meet, is an elliptical mid-wing jet aircraft and is capable of speeds up to 600 mph with a normal range of 1500 miles. It is capable of carrying modern atomic weapons.

Auen and his team mates will attempt to repeat in 1956, what the Far East Air Force team did in 1955, which is to take back to the Far East, the Major Thomas B. McGuire trophy, annually awarded to the top fighter bomber team in USAF. The trophy, was named in honor of Major Thomas B. McGuire, who, as a member of the 49th Fighter Bomber Group, became the second ranking World War II USAF Ace, by destroying 38 enemy planes, before he himself was lost in action in the Philippines.

Lt. Auen graduated from Augusta-Tilghman High School, Paducah, Kentucky, class of 1948. He received ROTC training while attending the University of Kentucky, where he graduated with a B.S. degree in 1952. While at the University of Kentucky, Lt. Auen was a member of the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity, the Arnold Air Society, Scabbard and Blade, and Beta Gamma Delta.

Awarded his wings in February of 1954, Lt. Auen received his primary pilot training at Spence Field, Moultrie, Georgia, his basic phase I, training at Greenville Air Force Base, Mississippi, basic phase II, training at James Connally Air Force Base, Texas, and then received Gunnery Training at Nellis Air Force Base, Nevada. He has over 800 hours at the controls of jet aircraft and 300 hours in conventional type.

Lt. Auen was one of the pilots who in 1955, flew from Japan to Bangkok, Thailand, to participate in Operation-Firmink. This was the first meeting of all nations in the South East Asia Treaty Organization, (SEATO). The purpose of this meeting was to demonstrate the air power of these countries.

Prior to his arrival at the 8th Fighter Bomber Squadron, "The Black Sheep", at Misawa Air Base, Japan, Auen was assigned to Alexandria Air Force Base, Louisiana. He is scheduled to return to the United States for reassignment in February 1957.

The meet is designed to provide the best possible peace time evaluation of pilots and crew proficiency, current training methods, and aircraft capabilities. The Weapons Meet was begun in 1949, and this year's meet marks the third consecutive year the competition has been "All Jet".

Writer Views Life Of Unsuccessful Pickpocket

By JOHN MARCUS

T. Matsonian Foocy craved crowds. It is a known fact that fifty years ago, T. Matsonian traveled one thousand miles to the Chicago World's Fair and did not enter one exhibit. He merely stood in the center of the mid-way and gloried in this moment of bliss, being stamped, nudged and jostled by complete strangers.

You see, Foocy was a man who knew when opportunity was beating a conga on his door. Crowds were a form of opportunity to T. Matsonian. No, T. Matsonian was not a humanitarian. He was a pick-pocket.

During the lean years following the Civil War, T. Matsonian shriveled to an unusual one and one-half pounds. His calorie count was at an ebb from lack of something substantial, such as food. No work, no food, and there was definitely no work.

Four years had passed and Foocy had picked only the pockets of a deaf and dumb carpet-bagger (three carpet tacks and a plastic sample of "Uncle Tom's Cabin") and two kangeroos passing by on a world tour they won on "The Big Surprise."

T. Matsonian Foocy was indeed desperate. He went to the University Placement Bureau for assistance. Harry M. Beard offered Foocy his solution. What Foocy needed in his field was a building or home, where large masses of people were available rain or shine.

T. Matsonian enrolled at college, paying his tuition with the acquired three carpet tacks. He sold his nylon sample of "Uncle Tom's Swinging Penthouse" and bought test books.

But his plan failed miserably. He could not pick pockets in class because everyone was sitting. He even discovered the average student is thrifty and leaves his wallet at home.

Foocy was crestfallen. Crowds, crowds, and not a pocket to pick. The answer finally came to him one night at a soccer match in the girls' dorm. He must hold crowds together, night and day.

Foocy bought a used teepee and advertised rooms to rent. When the applicants appeared, Foocy carefully chose those with the nicest wallets. He then hung a sign over the entrance, reading "Pic Poc Pad," which was short for Pick Pockets Paradise.

T. Matsonian Foocy is dead now in a fit of anguish, he threw himself from the top of a towering stack of clothing bills, in suicide. The bills were all that he was collecting from the plump wallets.

But the name T. Matsonian Foocy lives on. Foocy the Founder is famous. Little did he know the words, "Pic Poc Pad" were Greek for fraternity.

The deathrate climbs higher on the McVey Hall stairs.

They cut the end from last week's column. Elmer H. Fuddings invented Ivy League wear and is made in the clothing business.

That's It Football Rule Gets Kicked

By PHIL MCINTOSH

Flag football? Not us! Too rough. A new flag football rule states that a team on offense can run no more than two running plays in each series of downs. After running two plays, it must pass the ball.

This rule seems to be a means of decreasing the number of injuries in the game. I don't think it will work. Imagine this situation: you are playing defense, the other team has run its two plays and must pass. If you are playing guard or center, you will charge much harder in order to get the passer than you would if you didn't know they must pass. If you are playing end, you will knock the @!%&* out of their end in order to keep him out of the play.

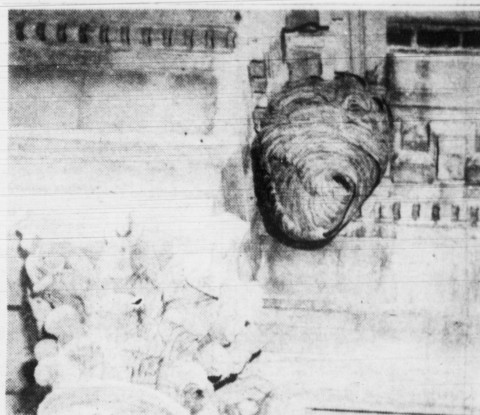

The result? Much rougher contact, especially on passes, and the same number of injuries. The only advantage in this rule is that the defensive man need only be smart enough to count to two.

What will happen when a team has run its two plays, the pass receivers are all covered and the passer has nowhere to throw? Will it be an automatic incomplete pass when the passer may have gained yardage by running?

Why was such a rule, that could easily ruin a team whose offense is based upon running plays, not announced at least a week in advance? What has happened to football?

What happened to the idea of turning the Little Commons into a "night time grill"? This question was discussed at a recent SGA social committee meeting.

Last year, there was much talk of placing a snack bar and juke box in the Little Commons. It was also suggested to have a combie play on week-ends. Well, it sounded good anyway. The result was that jam sessions were held in the Wildcat, with the atmosphere of

Lances Make Final Carnival Plans

Members of the Lances will meet with organization representatives at 5 p.m. Monday, Oct. 22 to "iron out any problems" connected with the carnival, "Nibby" King, publicity chairman and secretary, has announced.

King said that the Lances expect to have about 30-35 concessions in the Carnival this year. He added that the proceeds of the Carnival and Lances will go toward scholarships for junior men.

The Carnival will be held on Oct. 26, under the stands on the south side of Stoll Field. The Dance will be held from 8-12 Saturday night. King said that girls have late permission until 1 o'clock for the dance.

The dance will be semi-formal. Music will be provided by Clyde Trask's orchestra.

The carnival will begin at 7:30 p.m. and last until about 10:45 p.m.—or until the crowd leaves.

The crowning of the queen and awarding of trophies to the winner and runner-up of the organizations that participate will take place, at the dance.

Tickets for the dance will cost $3 per couple if bought at the door, but only $2.50 if bought in advance.

Advance tickets may be bought from Sam McCandless, Phi Delta Tau; Roy Woodall, Bowman Hall, and Howard Dohrman, Building G, Cooperstown.

All members of the Lances will have tickets to sell Thursday and Friday. King said the Lances can be identified by the red arm band they will be wearing.

A group of interested Cooperstown residents gathered at Memorial Hall, Tuesday evening, to organize a self-governing body.

Self-Government To Be Established At Cooperstown

Dr. L. L. Martm, Dean of Men, addressed the group. "The big problem," said Dr. Martm, "will be communication between Cooperstown residents and the administration." To alleviate this problem, Dr. Martm suggested that the "old Cooperstown" mayor-council charter be reactivated. Under this charter, residents could elect a mayor to work with a council comprised of representatives for each wing of the various buildings. The total government would consist of a mayor and 13 councilmen.

Due to Cooperstown residents being unfamiliar with one another at this early date, it was decided that a "steering committee," of 8 members, be elected from the people present at the meeting. This committee will handle the immediate problems of the project and make preparations for a permanent election to be held within one month.

When the permanent governing body is elected it will handle the interpal problems of the project.

UK Prof Heads Antarctica Team

An expedition will leave for Antarctica next month in observance of the geophysical year. Heading this expedition of 12 men to the ice cap will be Associate Professor James Shear of the Geography Department.

The team will spend 14 months at Cape Adare, which is located at the bottom of the world below New Zealand. Living in temperatures of 100 below zero and darkness for half of the time they will be isolated from the world.

On this vast continent of ice, Prof. Shear and his team will observe weather conditions, the southern lights, ice and oceanic conditions and help to keep a bearing on the satellite from earth. Prof. Shear is currently at the Sea Bee Training Center at Rhode Island being issued cold weather equipment. After a short visit home to his wife and three children, he will fly to Seattle, where the 12 men will board the ice breaker, "North Wind." The "North Wind" will leave Nov. 8. The trip to Antarctica will take two months. Prof. Shear who will be the only civilian at the base has made arrangements with a local radio ham operator to relay information about his family to the little base. With this in mind the team is taking along two 1000 watt radio sets identical with the set owned by C. R. Maxson, of Lexington who Prof. Shear will try to contact. Maxson has already been in contact with Little America in Antarctica. So it is hoped the same success will be possible with the base at Cape Adare.

Sigma Chi Derby Highlights Social Week

—And they're off! It isn't the run for the roses or the Keeneland races but the chase of the greased pig. You guessed it. The Sigma Chi Derby is here again. Tomorrow, the Intramural Field will be covered with broken eggs, grease, hay, and plain old dirt.

However, the shaplier lasses, wearing shorts, sweaters, and heels, will be getting in shape to vie for the "perfect girl" trophy. Whether or not the cardboard form is representative of the perfect girl is a debatable question but we know the contestants will put their all into winning.

The Sigma Chi chapter at the University of California originated the derby in 1920. Now it's an annual affair at seventy-five Sigma Chi chapters. If their derbies are comparable to the one on the UK campus they certainly are worth attending.

Strange sights may be seen at the Phi Sig house tonight as a costume party is on the agenda. Better unmask before the witching hour or you may wind up with some one else's date. This is a completely unheard of situation around UK.

The Lambda Chi's are taking advantage of our fair weather by hitching up the horses and breaking out the ukes for their hayride tonight.

Tomorrow the Delt's are entertaining with an afternoon brunch. Saturday night will be topped off with the football game with Louisiana State.

After the game the ZBT's, Kappa Sig's, and Farm House will welcome you at their open houses. We hope the Kappa Sig's will have their trophy back by then.

Sunday the Theta's will be guests of the Delt's for dessert and the Phi Sigma Sigma's will hold their annual tea for the ZBT's.

Tuesday seems to be dessert night. The KD's will entertain the Phi Delt's, the Tri Delt's will feast at the KA manor, and the Theta's will be hosts to the Lambda Chi's.

The DZ's will hold their founder's day banquet Tuesday. And the Kappa Sig's will tie up this week's social events with a dessert for the Alpha Gam's.

This year the newspapers and magazines are filled with contests. Everyone wants to give away something whether it be a two-week, expense paid vacation to lower Slobbovia or a box of iridescent soap flakes to use in case the lights go out while washing dishes. But the best deal for the females is being offered by Glamour Magazine.

The first November issue will contain pictures of seven attractive bachelors. All you do is look them over, match up a few simple clues, choose the man you would like a date with, and give the reasons why. The three winners will be flown to New York for a weekend at the Waldorf, will be given a complete evening outfit for your "great dates" and will be photographed by one of New York's top fashion photographers. So if the boyfriends are giving you girls a hard time you can hang this little item over their heads.

Have you heard about the man who rang a doorbell and said, "Madam, I want to see your daughter."

"No, get out and stay out."

"But madam, see this badge. I'm a detective."

"Oh, that's different. I thought it was a fraternity pin."

World University Service Plans For Annual Drive

The annual fund-raising drive of World University Service has been announced to take place during the week of November 11.

World University Service, or WUS as it is commonly called, supports a program through which faculty and students in this and other countries help students in Asia, Europe, and Africa in their struggle to obtain an education.

The goal for the drive this year is $1000 which tops last year's total by approximately $350. WUS is sponsored on campus by Student Government Association, Interfraternity Council, Panhellenic Council, and Interfaith Council.

The chairman for the drive this year is Jack Deacon. Representatives from Student Government Association are Jim Bergman and Nina Vann, from Interfraternity Council are Bill Gilliam and Joe Lamkin, from Panhellenic Council are Marcia Wilder and Barbara-nelle Paxton, and from Interfaith Council are Sonia Shine and Albert Rofe.

A faculty committee consisting of Dr. John Kuiper, Philosophy Department, Mrs. Carol Pennington, director of Boyd Hall, and Miss Jeanette Reems, Danforth graduate, is also working on the drive.

Rotary Fellowship For UK Student Is Being Offered

A year of study abroad as a Rotary Foundation Fellow is available to some senior or graduate student at UK. Applications are now being accepted at the YMCA office in the SUB. This fellowship, sponsored by the Rotary Club, is $2,500 which includes all transportation, education and living expenses for the 1957-58 academic year.

Candidates must be 20-29 years old, be a senior or have a university degree, a high scholastic record, and a thorough knowledge of study. They must be able to make friends rapidly, and have a keen interest in world affairs. This fellowship is granted without regard to race, creed or citizenship.

The student awarded this fellowship is in direct contact with Rotarians and their families during his year away from home no matter where he is studying because of the Rotary Clubs in 99 countries throughout the free world. He attends their Rotary meetings, visits in their homes and places of business, and travels as much as possible during his school holidays.

Through the fellowship offer, the Rotary Club is striving to educate young college students not only academically but about the customs of other peoples and to train them for future leadership.

Willard Speaks To Rotary Club

Dr. William R. Willard, dean of the College of Medicine, told the Louisville Rotary Club that the UK Medical Center will not be a competitor of the University of Louisville Medical Center.

This speech on Oct. 11 was his first public address since coming to Kentucky.

However, it is only the beginning of many such speeches. Today he will speak to the Life Underwriters Association in Lexington, and Wednesday, Oct. 24, he is scheduled to speak at a combined meeting of the Council District and the McCracken County Medical Society in Paducah.

A tape recording of questions and answers has been made and will be broadcast over 40 radio stations on Nov. 1.

IS THIS THE MAN WHO STARTED IT?

There are some who dispute the fact that President Chester A. Arthur was the first man to wear the Oxford Button-Down shirt. They are right, he wasn't. Van Heusen has discovered that its originator was actually Arthur A. Chester, who, oddly enough, used the button not to keep his collar down, but to keep his shirt up. Whatever its purpose, the Oxford Button-Down (or Button-Up) shirt wowed Mr. Chester's crowd on sight and has been a staple of fine wardrobes ever since. Today, Van Heusen's Oxford Button-Down is still in the authentic Chesterian tradition

... but with a wonderful difference. The cloth, woven of fine long-staple cotton, is as soft as a co-ed's smile, yet exceptionally long-wearing. Superbly tailored in the smart Van Heusen way, this Oxford Button-Down enhances your looks, whether you're involved in class, tugs of war or midnight brawls. $5.00.

LSU-Kentucky Victor To Come From Team Most Eager To Win

By SCOOP WHITE, Sports Editor

What's wrong with the Cats? After the effortless way they performed against Auburn last Saturday night, many Wildcat fans were wondering, and still are, if the Kentucky team wants to play football.

In this day of modern football, and in a conference as tough as the Southeastern, the teams are usually about equal in material. Any team can beat the other on a given Saturday. The team that wants victory the most is the one who will achieve it. Take the Florida game for example. Kentucky was eager to win that one, and they did. The Auburn game? The Wildcats had no great ambition for winning it. But the Tigers did, and they won it.

On punt coverage, the men of Coach Blanton Collier always had four and five men downfield. None of these men were blocked, but still the Auburn ball carriers always got away. On Tommy Lorino's 68-yard run, Auburn had no exceptional blocking and Kentucky's tackling was not the best. The Cats' defensive right side just failed to cut back to stop the long downfield run.

LSU battles the Wildcats tomorrow night and the Tigers are hungry for victory, too. Whichever team wants victory the most will probably emerge the victor.

The K-Club would like to request that UK students not wear high school letters or any other college letter on this campus. It's a good idea, and every student wishing to promote better school spirit should cooperate. The "K" is the only letter that should be worn on our campus.

*****

The new ruling in I-M football is ridiculous. It states that each offensive team can call only two running plays in a series of downs. The I-M department made this quick rule change so that much of the roughness would stop. Such roughness should stop, but let's not ruin the game. Some teams went out on the field Wednesday night and were told right before game time that the rules had been changed. Thus their plans were shattered. A team should have at least a day's notice. If a team runs two plays on the first two downs, and has a third down situation of third and one, it must pass. Is that football?

HAPPY BIRTHDAY: Louisiana State's Al Aucoin, a tackle, celebrates his birthday tomorrow night as he will be 20 when the Tigers play Kentucky on Stoll Field.

Kentucky Host To LSU In 'Must' Game For Both

By TOM WHITE

Kentucky and LSU meet tomorrow evening in a game featuring two of the SEC's most bruised elevens.

Both the Wildcats and the Tigers from LSU have shown promise at times, but neither has lived up to its potential for very long.

Last week LSU played a terrific first half against Ga. Tech, but then folded and were routed in the second half 30-7. As Wildcats fans know, Kentucky played inspired football against Florida two weeks ago, but last Saturday they looked weak in losing to Auburn.

Both Kentucky and LSU have had more than their share of injuries, especially to key men. LSU was without the services of both starting ends, halfback Joe May and All-American tackle Earl Leggett was only half effective in the Ga. Tech game.

Reports out of Baton Rouge indicate Leggett will be his usual vicious self tomorrow and both starting ends are due to see action. Left halfback Joe May is also scheduled to play against the Wildcats.

LSU's offensive is built around junior quarterback M. C. Reynolds who was a brilliant passer as a sophomore.

J. W. Brodnax, sophomore right halfback, is the leading ground gainer for the Tigers and coupled with left halfback Olin Renfro give LSU plenty of speed in the backfield. Steve Thompson and Jim Taylor are still battling for the starting fullback spot with Thompson leading ground gainer of the team. Kentucky was again hard hit by injuries so a probable starting lineup is impossible.

Quarterback Delmar Hugli sprained his wrist and may not play the LSU game. Also, right halfback Don Netoskie bruised his leg and probably will be out a week.

Previously injured quarterback Bill Farley will scrimmage a week and may earn a shot at running the team. This all depends on how his injured hand reacts during drills.

Last Saturday, Kentucky showed a potent power game, but breaks and missed assignments spoiled every pass play attempt.

Kentucky Coach Blanton Collier said he would stress line play and blocking practice this week. Game films of the Auburn game showed numerous missed blocks and tackles by every member of the team which he hopes to correct before tomorrow's game.

Netoskie Gets Tackle

Don Netoskie, Kentucky halfback, is shown bringing down an Auburn ball carrier in last Saturday night's game.

Reservations At Maryland

Students wanting to go to College Park, Md., to see the Kentucky-Maryland game Nov. 3 get excellent accommodations at the New Colonial Hotel in Washington.

UK alumni there have made arrangements with hotel manager Ed Prescott, getting the best price available. If four share one room, it will cost each student $2.25 a day there. If fewer than four share the room, the cost will be higher. The New Colonial Hotel is on the Dupont Plaza where the Wildcats will stay.

Kernel Picks

- Kentucky over LSU
- Texas A&M over TCU
- Georgia Tech over Auburn
- Mississippi over Tulane
- Miami (Fla.) over Georgia
- Michigan St. over Notre Dame
- Tennessee over Alabama
- Vanderbilt over Florida
- Maryland over North Carolina
- Duke over Pittsburgh
- Syracuse over Army
- Kernel Record—16 Right; 6 Wrong

UK Cagers Begin Drills

With football only half over, the basketball bug has hit the UK campus.

Coach Adolph Rupp and his 18 cagers began last Monday the first of their 41 practice sessions before the season's opener against Washington and Lee here Dec. 1.

Leading the returning lettermen is Vernon Hatton who, by being named "Sophomore of the Year" in the SEC last year, should be a strong candidate for All-American honors this year. Also back are Gerry Calvert, Ed Beck, Ray M. John Brewer, and Bill Cass. Top newcomers to the squad transfer Adrian Smith and next year's freshman sensation John Cox. Earl Adkins and Dick return after a year's layoff.

The first three weeks of practice will be devoted almost entirely to fundamentals.

SX Ends SAE Streak 6-0; Six Unbeaten Teams Left

By BOB WHITAKER and KENNY HILL
SX demonstrated power in handing SAE their first fraternity loss in seven years

Dick Rose's 45 yard pass to Bill White proved to be enough to win for SX. The 6-0 victory left SX undefeated and leader of the first division.

Two SAE drives were stopped by pass interceptions by SX's Dick Rose and Brian Hoge. Don Lacefield played a beautiful defensive game for SX. SX's Bill Evans and Charlie Eldridge shined on offense.

The arm of Rose enabled SX to master the Farmhouse 12-0. He threw 45 yards to Bill White for the first tally. Rose also accounted for the second six pointer by scampering 60 yards on the first play of the game.

In a thriller, SAE and KA played to a 0-0 deadlock. Two KA threats were killed when Johnny Adams and Sam Ewing intercepted KA passes.

Outstanding on the ends for KA were Short Sautley and Charlie Michler.

Joining SX in the undefeated ranks were SN, KS, and DTD.

SN was impressive in their 12-0 victory over PDT. Dave Noyes pushed over both SN touchdowns on quarter-back sneaks. Both tallies were set up by long gains made by speedster Doug Foster.

In cuffing the Triangles 14-7, SN was forced to come from behind.

Triangle's Warren Deatrick scooted 45 yards in the first stanza for the Triangle touchdown. Not to be defeated, the SN's struck in the third quarter when Dave Noyes hit Jim Ingram in the end zone with a 20 yard pass. Noyes flipped to Jim Campbell in the fourth period for the second tally.

KS was pushed by PKA in winning 13-12. After a series of plays, Ron Bonnell threw to Jim Stucker on the 20 yard line. On the next play, Phil Brawner ran for the touchdown. Bonnell passed to Brawner for the conversion.

George Hicks' touchdown pass to Jerry Kramer for PKA closed the gap to 7-6. However, the Bonnell to Stucker pass combination clicked again from 25 yards out giving the KS's a seven point lead.

With 10 seconds to play, Hicks spotted Bill Carroll open in the end zone and hit him for the PKA's second tally. The try for the extra marker was stopped.

KS won again Wednesday night by topping the Phi Deltas 13-0.

An important win was posted by DTD when they edged ATO 6-0. The Deltas went to the air in overcoming the big ATO line. Ken Baker caught Del Hughes' flip to account for the Delt touchdown.

SPE slipped pass PSK 6-0 when Jon Collier shot a 30 yard pass to John McClellan.

The Sig Ep's suffered their first loss at the hands of ATO. The 14-0 trouncing was led by the passing of John Symton. In the first period, he hit Odie Gilliam who carried it over.

Larry Summers snagged Symton's second touchdown pass.

PKT bested AGR 13-0 this week. Jim Collins' 60 yard punt return and Bill Brantley's five yard pay dirt trip gave the Phi Tau's both their scores.

Continuing to show improvement, PKT dealt KA a 13-0 loss. The first tally was set up by Harold Reams on a masterful 40 yard run. Brantley sneaked over for the six points. The second score was tallied by Jim Collins. Big Ben Monarch was the bright spot of the PKT line as he turned in an impressive game.

The Farmhouse suffered its third defeat 7-0 by AGR. Dayton Matlick's 80 yard scamper was the lone six pointer for AGR.

Winless TKE, was trampled 19-0 by Triangle. Frank Hibbs passed to Bill Johnson and Rolla Johnson for two of the Triangle scores. Hibbs ran for the third.

PKA picked up its first victory by overpowering TKE 34-0. Guard Bill Carroll turned in another impressive performance.

As the first week of I-M football ends, SN and KS are leaders in the second division, DTD in the third, and SX in the first.

Civil Engineers and Breckinridge Hall remained unbeaten this week as three games were played in the Independent intramural football league.

The Engineers won their third straight game in a thrilling, defensive battle with Newman Club "B". On the last play of the game.

TIPS ON TOGS

By "LINK"

ALLIGATOR—(And I don't mean the one you'll see later!) The greatest name in rainwear has come up with a ¾ length coat that is a combination rain and car coat—I have 'practically lived in the one I bought—I like the clean, crisp tailored lines—the scotch plaid lining and the fact that it is water repellent makes it a very useful and good looking asset to any one's wardrobe. Give them the "once over"—I think you'll like!

PERFECT—A perfect compliment to your sport coat is a handsome, wool challis tie—this tie is gaining more and more importance and I predict will soon be the leader in cravats.

ANOTHER—Shipment of the fabulous little "Vac-Brushes" has arrived. This little gadget sold like "hot-cakes" and we were forced to re-order. Buy one for a friend or for yourself—a nice little "Happy Birthday"—or a "Thanks for the Week-end" gift — only $2.98 and well worth it.

ELEGANCE INTERNATIONAL — Man struts again—take your male ego out of moth balls and don one of these new magnificent pleated bosom shirts by "Manhattan". There is a dress-up trend all over the country and the pleated bosom shirt is a must—and a very handsome must it is — in soft flattering shades of tan, blue and grey. For those "dress-up" times — the pleated shirt is perfect.

So long for now,

Wildcats Sluggish In 13-0 Loss To A Revengeful Auburn Eleven

For lack of a sustained ground attack or an effective passing offense, the Kentucky Wildcats fell before a fast Auburn eleven 13-0 on Stoll Field.

The Cats got a break to open the game when Jerry Elliot of Auburn flubbed the kickoff and Lou Michaels took it on the Kentucky 48. But a weak offense turned the ball over to Auburn after only four plays.

Even this slow start didn't make things look too bad. It took a half-back named Tommy Lorino, who circled the Cats' right end, crossed his field and shot 68 yards from his own 17 before Kentucky's Dave Kuhn stopped him, to turn a slow start into disaster. Five plays later Howell Tubbs fired a pass to Jim L. Phillips who scored and Tubbs put on the extra point for a 7-0 lead for Auburn.

Auburn tried four field goals during the game, none of which were good, two in the second and two in the fourth quarters. The first half ended 7-0 in favor of the Plainsmen.

Kentucky's first second half attack chugged to a halt after three plays. Then Dougherty punted to Auburn. Archie Powers hit the Tiger back and he lost the ball to Kentucky's Bob Collier. The Cats took over again, deep in Auburn country. On fourth down and two yards to go, the Big Blue failed to obtain the necessary yardage and that ended another Kentucky scoring drive.

In the fourth quarter Kentucky was pushed deeper into their own end of the field. After several desperation plays, the Cats lost the ball to Auburn and with only 42 seconds left in the contest Lorino put the game away for the Tigers as he scored from the two yard line on an end run. Tubbs failed to add the one-pointer and the game ended Auburn 13, Kentucky 0.

UK-St. Joe Country Run Tomorrow

Spearheaded by E. G. Plummer and Press Whelan, the UK freshman cross country team will try to annex their second victory of the young season when they go after St. Joseph's high school at Picadome here tomorrow.

The UK frosh turned back Berea Foundation 37-18 last week in a meet that saw four UK men finish 1-2-3-4 over the 2 1/2 mile course.

Plummer won by a stride over teammate Whelan in 11:51. Austin Piles was third, and Buddy Gum finished in the fourth slot.

The Kentucky varsity in all probability will see very little action due to injuries among the squad and the Kittens will maintain the burden of the cross country schedule for UK.

Modern Olympic Games were first held at Athens in 1896.

Dr. Marlatt Heads Home Ec. School

DR. MARLATT

Dr. Abby L. Marlatt has replaced Dr. Stacie E. Erikson as Director of the School of Home Economics.

Miss Marlatt, originally from Manhattan, Kansas, received her B.S. from Kansas State College; served her dietetic internship at the University of California, and received her Ph.D. from the University of California.

Since 1945, Miss Marlatt has been at Kansas State where she served on the Staff of foods and nutrition.

In 1953-1954, she went on sabbatical leave and was visiting professor of home economics at the Beirut College for Women, Beirut, Lebanon.

Dr. Erikson resigned her post in the spring of 1956 in order to continue research in the field of nutrition.

Miss Marlatt reports that, with the increasing number of home economists in the field of business and interior decoration, the School of Home Economics has plans to expand its interior decoration department.

A major in the field of equipment and home management is also going to be added.

Miss Marlatt gives music, civic affairs, folk dancing, international relations, and world traveling as her primary interests.

forms and the pit decorations; and a business firm which contributes a flat $100 to the team it sponsors, plus $15 for decorations.

Armstrong said the race grossed $24,000 last year, and had a crowd of 14,000. Proceeds from the race go for scholarships.

Armstrong said that from the proceeds of the 1956 race, 115 scholarships each for $100 were awarded.

Miss Collier said tentative plans called for the Little Derby to be held the second weekend in May, one week after the Kentucky Derby in Louisville.

These plans, she said, called for the race to be part of a weekend which would also include the Suky May Day Parade.

Miss Collier said the student-alum steering committee, headed by Chip Rice, planned to contact as many students as possible during the next two weeks to sound out opinions on the race.

Beazley said further plans will depend on this student response to a large extent. He said proceeds from the race would go for "student benefits."

Miss Collier also said the idea was being advanced with an eye to having the first Derby this May. She added, however, that it may be impossible to stage the first one until May, 1958, due to the short time left in which to plan such an affair for this school year.

Armstrong emphasized that 80 per cent of Indiana's 14,000 students participate in the race, and that entries come equally from Greeks and independents.

Connie Goldberg, former IU student now attending UK, agreed with this, adding that she thought the Little 500 was successful because it gave "independents and Greeks the opportunity to work for a common cause . . . it promoted all-campus solidarity."
