ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Russian but were Afraid to Ask; or, Russian for Librarians

Barbara Galik (King Reference Department) will give a series of classes on "Russian for Librarians," sponsored by the Staff Development Committee. Barbara has a master's degree in Russian literature and is fluent in the language. The class will be limited to 15 people. This instruction will be of great use in searching, verification, transliteration, etc., for both Public Services and Technical Services staff. Please call Barbara Galik or Mollie Sandock at 7-1631 to sign up; a meeting will be held later to arrange the most convenient time.

SPEC Kit: Remote Storage

The Reference Department has received SPEC Kit #39 from the Systems and Procedures Exchange Center entitled, "Remote Storage." It may be borrowed at the Reference Desk.

The Systems and Procedures Exchange Center is operated by the Association of Research Libraries, Office of Management Studies. The Office of Management Studies also publishes ARL Management Supplement, and the Reference Department is in the process of collecting back issues. Volume 4, no. 1, "Professional Specialists in Academic Libraries," and Volume 5, no. 1, "Library Use Instruction in Academic and Research Libraries," are both available now at the Reference Desk.

Faculty Representative to Administrative Committee

I should like to thank the Library faculty for giving me the opportunity to serve on the Administrative Committee. It was an honour to be able to represent my colleagues and I found the experience extremely rewarding professionally.

MUSICAL PERFORMANCES UNDER COPYRIGHT LAW

In a January 30 memorandum, Jack Blanton, Vice-President for Business Affairs and Treasurer, requested that no arrangements be made for live musical performances to be presented after March 1 on campus or sponsored by the University for which an admission will be charged or fees will be paid to the performers.

If performers in a concert are paid $1,000 or more, $0.02 per seat should be earmarked in your budget to be used for royalty payments. In addition, no taped music, recorded music, radio programs or similar broadcasts are to be transmitted over any campus public address system.

These steps are recommended pending an agreement with the performing rights societies regarding higher educational institutions' use of music. Classroom performances and instruction will not be affected. For more specific information contact Mr. Blanton's office.

LIBRARY STAFF ORGANIZATION

The Library Staff Organization would like to remind you that Active Membership in the Library Staff Organization is available to all full-time library personnel (i.e., employees working 32 or more regular hours per week). The Board would like your support during this year in two ways.

First, we need your membership and your dues to help defray the cost of hosting social events and having guest speakers during this year. At present, the LSO treasury is very low, and until it increases substantially, we can do little planning. We urge all eligible employees to join the LSO or to continue their membership by paying their annual dues as soon as possible to Joyce Turner in Acquisitions. Dues currently are $3.00 per year and may be paid in full or at $1.50 per semester. Remember: LSO programs and social events depend upon your financial support.

Second, we need your ideas for programs and social events. The summer picnic and Christmas luncheon are annual events of long standing, but we need to know what other ideas you may have. We especially need suggestions for guest speakers or special programs. We would appreciate your answering the following questions and returning this sheet as soon as possible to Wanda Dole in the Architecture Library.

Thanks for your help!

1. Are there any new social events that you would like to see LSO sponsor?
2. Are there any library-related program topics of interest to you or which you think would be of interest to the entire library staff?
3. Are there any topics outside the library field which are of interest to you? To the library staff: To the general public?
4. Do you know of any persons who would be interesting guest speakers?
5. Were there any speakers (or topics) sponsored by the LSO in the past which you especially enjoyed?
