Our Lady of Gethsemani
Trappist, Kentucky

July 65.

Dear Victor:

I would not call these few the best. But as I do not have the complete ms, I cannot make a selection. Perhaps when I get a copy back from the censors. I think the butcher should certainly be in it. Why don't we make a selection of all those that have to do with "art" in the broad sense, including the wheelwright, the fighting cock even, the woodcarver, the symphony for a seabird perhaps??? I could pick them if I had the ms. Thanks for the designer's name. We will be carefully considering the question.

Best wishes to you both and all blessings
in the Lord

Tom.

I am sending this collection of Irish poems, which has beautiful possibilities for printing.
