SATURDAY SEMINARS

Dr. George Herring, Department of History, will speak on "The Rise and Fall of the 'American Century'" at 1:00 p.m. on October 29 in Room 228 New Student Center. This seminar will analyze American pre-eminence after World War II and its subsequent decline. From 3:30-5:30 Dr. Fred Payne, Agricultural Engineering, will present "Cheerios Don't Grow on Plants" in the East Wing of the E. S. Good Barn. The seminar will trace food processing and engineering history. A third seminar on October 29 is "Presidential Elections, Then and Now," presented by Dr. David E. Hamilton, History Department, and Dr. Stanley Feldman, Political Science Department, at 3:00 in Room 306 White Hall Classroom Building. The seminar will examine presidential elections of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries.

On November 5, two seminars are planned. At 10:00 a.m. in the UK Art Museum in the Singletary Center for the Arts Dr. William Hennessey, Director of the Museum, will speak on "Thomas Hart Benton and The Sources of Country Music." The Benton painting will be on display and Dr. Hennessey will discuss Benton's work. Also at 10:00 a.m., Dr. Anthony N. DeMaria, Cardiology, will present "Now You Can Survive a Heart Attack!" in Rooms 502 A & B College of Nursing Building. This seminar will cover new heart attack prevention regimens, new sources of diagnostic information and other medical advances.

BITNET NEWS AND INFORMATION

There will be a BITNET training session for all interested librarians on Wednesday, November 9 at 2:00 p.m. in Room 104B King South. Tari Keller will conduct the session.

REFDESK will be the BITNET address for the Reference Desk. This is to be an online suggestion box for the Library, among other uses.

L.S.O UPDATE

November 18 is the date for the annual L.S. O. pre-Christmas craft and bake sale. The bake sale will be held in the Staff Lounge on the third floor of King North from 9:30 a.m. until everything is sold. L.S.O. is currently soliciting both crafts and baked goods for the sale. (Submitted by Mary McLaren.)

FIRE ALARM TEST

There will be a fire alarm test in both King North and South on Tuesday, November 1 between 7:30-8:00 a.m.

KENTUCKY BOOK FAIR

Saturday, November 19, is the day for this year's Kentucky Book Fair to be held at the Department for Libraries and Archives, 300 Coffee Tree Road in Frankfort. More than 90 authors will be there between 9:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. to autograph their current publications.

CHANGE IN LONG-DISTANCE CALLS

When making operator assisted calls, such as collect, third party and credit card calls, dial "6" + 0 + area code (if not 606) + number. The University is using a new operator service which will process these calls. These operators will accept VISA and MASTERCARD in addition to AT&T, South Central Bell and GTE Calling Cards. All third party calls must be charged to an off-campus telephone number.

SUMMER OXFORD STUDY PROGRAM

Information is available in the GB office about the University of Oklahoma College of Library Science's 1989 summer seminar at Oxford University "English Libraries and Librarianship" May 21-June 3. The seminar brings together the professionals of Oxford's Bodleian Library and other recognized English librarians for two weeks of lectures and discussions on major issues in their field. Tours are also planned of the Bodleian and other Oxford libraries, English public library systems, the British Library and the Library Association Headquarters.

HAZARDOUS MATERIALS INFORMATION

Copies of the guidelines for the Hazardous Communication Program will be kept in the Director's Office, King North, and at the Reserve Desk in King South.
