OH, YOU HOLIDAY

STUDENTS LEAVE ON NORTHERN TRIP TODAY.

Factories in Hamilton, Cincinnati and Dayton To Be Visited.

The junior mechanical and electrical engineering students of State University, will leave Lexington at 3:05 o'clock this afternoon on their annual inspection trip through Kentucky and Ohio, where they will visit many important factories and mills where modern machinery is in use.

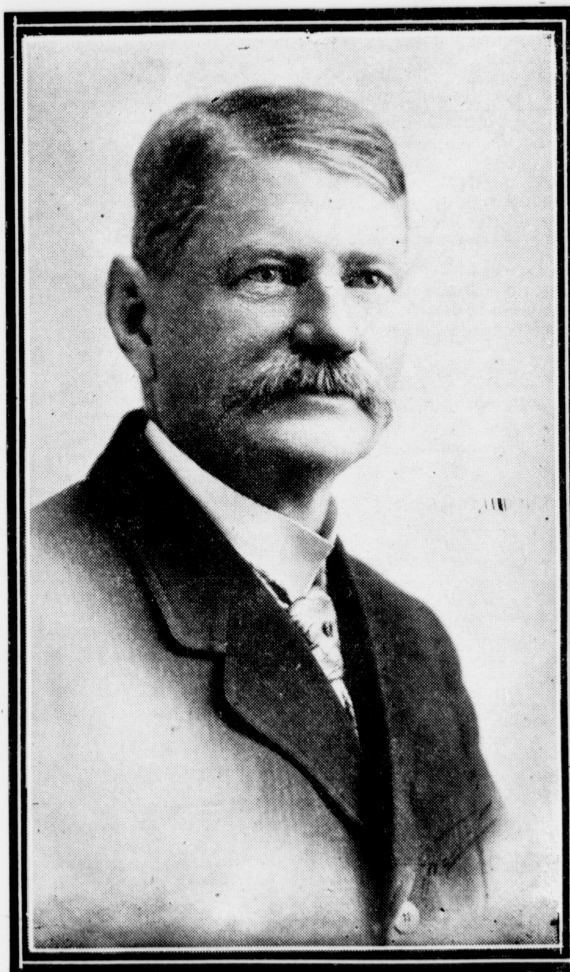

The party will be in charge of Prof. L. K. Frankel, who has accompanied the students on several previous inspection trips. Factories in Hamilton, Cincinnati and Dayton, O., will be visited, the majority of the students returning to Lexington Saturday. Several of the party, however, will probably remain in Cincinnati until Monday.

Those students composing the party are: R. A. Bateman, T. E. Beatty, J. A. Boyd, J. Campbell, P. R. Cassidy, M. A. Cleveland, C. E. Daniel, O. L. Dav, V. L. Downing, W. C. Duncan, S. C. Ebbert, J. J. Fitzpatrick, J. M. Foster, J. O. Flowers, J. B. Giltner, A. B. Haswell, H. B. Hedges, G. E. Hogan, F. P. Wall, O. W. Hallar, W. H. Paegle, F. S. Karn, E. J. Kohn, W. A. Lurtey, F. T. Miles, V. B. Milligan, H. I. Moore, J. A. Needy, R. S. Webb, A. B. Phister, I. C. Raish, A. T. Ramsav, J. B. Sanders, M. L. Schmidt, G. B. Shanklin, T. B. Short, B. M. Smarr, W. W. Stevenson.

JUNIOR BASKET BALL.

The following men have reported for the Junior Basket Ball Squad: Beatty (Capt.), Campbell, Cassidy, Day, Downing, Duncan, Johnston, Kohn, Needy, Miles, Moore and Shanklin. Manager Cassidy has arranged for games with the Freshmen and Sophomores and also another with the High School and Lexington Y. M. C. A.

On Friday night the Chi Epsilon Chis entertained with a very attractive farewell supper. The house was very artistically decorated with violets, roses and narcissus.

JUDGE HENRY S. BARKER,
Our New President.

Judge Henry S. Barker, who was recently elected President of the University, will not take active charge until next September, but he is getting closer in touch with his work all the time, and by the opening of the Fall Term will be well in the harness. He will, it is hoped, carry out present policies and make this the greatest University of the South.

ESPERANTISTS MEET.

A New Language Course to Those Who Wish It.

The Esperantists of the University met for the first time last Saturday. In spite of the inclemency of the weather, twelve students attended. The merits of the language philologically and practically, especially in reference to the commerce, were discussed by Prof. Farquhar. Subscriptions for text-books and magazines were ordered for the students so that next Saturday will mark the actual beginning of an Esperantista Klubo at the University. Cambridge and Oxford Universities, together with many colleges of America, have Esperanto on their surricula. It is expected that any persons of this town interested in Esperanto will be invited to attend the class at the University.

IN THE LITERARY SOCIETIES.

Our Inter-Collegiate debating team, which debates with Georgetown College here in our chapel in early spring is now hard at work collecting data for the occasion. The question to be debated is: "Resolved, That Woman Should Be Granted Adult Suffrage on Terms Identical with Man." We have the negative side of the question. All who compose our team have a great capacity for work as well as a willingness to sacrifice both pleasures and grades to bring honor to their alma mater. Both of these elements are pre-requisites for a successful team, and there is no reason why we should not secure the decision.

Dramatic Club.

At last a Dramatic Club has been organized here. About twenty students met Saturday evening and affected a temporary organization. Mr. Hubbard was elected temporary chairman and Miss Annie Louise Dean temporary secretary. Mr. Hubbard appointed a committee to draw up a constitution for the club, of which Miss Kate Pence is Chairman.

There will be a meeting of the Club Thursday afternoon, February 17, at 3:30 for the purpose of adopting the constitution, affecting a permanent organization, and for the election of officers. All students who are interested are requested to be present at the Y. M. C. A. room at the above hour.

THE LONE SOLITARY TRAIL.

"And the night shall be filled with music,

"And the cares that infest the day
"Shall fold their tents like Arabs
"And as silently steal away."

In four short months we of the 1910 class hope that we shall be able to fold our sheep skins as the Arabs fold their tents and silently steal out into the great world of cares, out into the darkness, into the Plutonian darkness from which we shall return to the lights of college beacons "Nevermore."

To us there is a sacredness about that ever hurrying, ever advancing event known as the commencement, and the pronunciation of the very syllables of its name fills us with a sense of responsibility, of loneliness and of depression which is far from pleasing.

To us it means very much the same as a father when he tells his son to get out and hustle for himself. It means that we have been equipped, that we are trained, and that the hour has come for us to prove our manhood and our worthiness by standing the crucial test of taking the lone, solitary trail and doing honor to our University, our State and our Family. It means even more. It means eternal separation from those whose association during the past four years have been so dear to the hearts of us all. It means many things. The foregoing are what it means to the pessimist. To the optimist it means vast and untold opportunities, and to us all it simply means duty. We shall go. We shall take our places in the rank and file of the struggling, and we shall need but one watchword, Duty. By this we shall do honor to all to whom honor is due, for does not the poet remind us:

"So near is grandeur to our dust,
So nigh to God is man,
When duties whispers, lo, thou must,
The youth replies, 'I can.' "

The confirmed nagger and the chronic kicker never know they are such. They consider themselves kindly advisors and beneficent critics, unappreciated and misunderstood.—The Phillistine.

HANOVER TRIANGLE.

With the true old Irish spirit the Notre Dame basket ball team tried to shinnnigan Wabash by putting six men out on the floor at the beginning of the second half who all played for some two or three minutes until the officials' notice was called to the fact. How about this policy for State.

TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE.

"Why, I declare!" exclaims the trusting wife. "I won't have to buy any new dresses or hats at all this spring!"

"You won't?" asks the crafty husband. "Surely you will need something."

"Not a thing. I've been looking through this month's fashion magazine that you brought home for me, and I find that there isn't the slightest change in style from last spring."

And the crafty husband, inwardly glicated over the success of his scheme to paste a this year's cover on a last year's magazine, leans back in his chair and smokes and smokes and smokes.—Judge.

There are two classes of students; some have their backbones well developed and others their wishbones.

THE LIVES THAT SUIT ME.

Here's to the life of a private,
No burden carries he;
He takes things as they come,
When they're through, he is done,
Oh, a private's life for me.

Here's to the life of a millionaire,
No hunting for work, does he,
He does what he will,
And tells the crowd to keep still.

Oh, the millionaire's life for me.

Here's to the life of a hobo,
No worry of work needs he,
He claims as his own
What others disown,
Oh, a hobo's life for me.

Here's to the life of a bachelor prof.,
He's the greatest of all thinks he,
On his eleven per week,
He keeps lots of check,
No professor's life for me.

Sing a song of football,
Don't it make you smile?
Two and twenty players
Struggling in a pile;
When the pile is opened,
Hear those awful groans;
Boys begin to creep out,
Looking for their bones,
Sections there of noses,
Patches here of hair,
But they made a touch-down,
And little do they care.

Willie—How would you like to have a pet monkey?

Carrie—Oh, this is so sudden!

"DUNC" BELL.

Mr. A. Duncan Bell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. David Bell, who is connected with the United States Lake Survey, has recently passed a creditable examination and has been promoted to the position of Recorder. "Dunc" is a graduate of State, and has been with the Lake Survey for the past six or eight months. He is well known in college circles.

WHO SAID IT?

She failed in German, flunked in Chem.

They heard her softly hiss.
I'd like to find the man who said,
That ignorance is bliss.

IN BAD SHAPE.

The Missus—Jim, you've been drinking again!

The Mister—Mabel, m' dear, I cannot tell a lie—I—

The Missus—Goodness! Then you must be worse than I thought. Go to bed in the other room.

HORATIO.

Horatio was the constant friend of Antonio in "The Merchant of Venice" and the only man who could cut a pound of flesh from Shylock without letting out any blood.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTAS.

The Alpha Gamma Deltas were the delightful hostesses last Thursday afternoon at a beautiful tea in honor of the Chi Epsilon Chis and their visitors who were here to install the Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Another charming event of last week was the Chi Omega reception also given to the Chi Epsilon Chi and their visitors. The guests consisted of the society girls from both State University and Hamilton.

The Beta Chi Chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma was installed Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock and the installation was followed by a banquet at the Phoenix that night.

Miss Marietta Cassady was with the Misses Gillis Thursday night.

Mr. Bert Paynter spent from Friday until Monday at home.

Mr. Tom Roach, a former student of Transylvania has matriculated in the Agricultural department.

Miss Dolly Battalle, Cary Williams and Elizabeth Cary spent the night Friday with Miss Miriam Taylor.

Miss Hattie Noland was the guest of Miss Frances Hughes from Saturday until Monday.

Mr. John Wilhoit attended the Assembly ball in Frankfort last week.

Mr. Cunningham left Thursday for Mayfield, Ky.

Miss Stoner, Grand President of Kappa Kappa Gamma, spent Sunday in Versailles.

ELIGIBILITY.

Those wishing to try for track or baseball teams should sign an eligibility paper at once as the time in which they can be signed is limited. Signing up for any one sport makes the person eligible for any of the others.

CORRECT ANSWERS.

The day after Dope had asked Freddie the definition of steam and had gotten for an answer, "That it was water crazy with the heat," Freddie proceeded to get wise and asked Pet the definition of Wind. Pet did not get a chance to answer because Robert (Long for Bob you know) broke in with "Why wind is air when it gets in a hurry."

ON THE WRONG SIDE.

The teacher had gone back to the brave days of old for his reading selection for the day and read the story of the Roman who swam the Tiber three times before breakfast.

One of the boys giggled when the story was finished and the teacher turned to him.

"You do not doubt a trained swimmer could do that, do you, James?" he asked.

"No sir," answered James; "but I wondered why he didn't make it four and get back to the side his clothes were on."

We're weary a-walking the Highway of Life;

We're fretted and flustered with worry and strife.

Let us drop by the wayside the heavy old load,

And rest by the inn at the turn of the road—

Let us tarry a while
At the "Sign of the Smile."

Let us tarry a while at the "Sign of the Smile"—

Forget all our griefs in the joys that beguile;

Let us pleasure the noon till it changes to night;

Then up with our loads and we'll find they are light—

Let us tarry a while
At the "Sign of the Smile."

WHY DON'T YOU WRITE.

The postman passes by, his steps tell plainly

He hasn't any mail to leave for me,
Or should he stop, my eyes must still seek vainly

The one hand-writing, I so long to see.
Even a picture post card were better

Than leaving me without a single sign,
Another day gone by and still no letter,

I think you might have written me a line.

COURAGE, FRESHMEN!

An exchange tells this story of a Yale senior, who had just proposed to a young lady:

"Yes, I will be yours on one condition."

"That's all right," he responded, "I entered Yale with six."

Dr. Lewis Kranter, professor of botany at the University of Pennsylvania, was frozen to death while on a hunting trip in New Jersey.

MILITARY DOINGS.

There are not many squad drillers these cold winter days, but as the weather becomes better, there will come a day of reckoning. So you had better go easy with your skipping for, "The Major will get you if you don't lock out."

In the spring there will be an inspection by a Regular Army Officer, who will determine the efficiency of the battalion, the value of the training given the cadets, and the number of men in the school who are competent to hold a commission in the Volunteer Army of 5,000,000 men that this country will have to raise to defend its shores in our next great war.

So when you are out drilling and you are hot and tired, don't think that you are being drilled so that the school authorities can march you up to chapel but because the United States Government is trying to make a soldier and a gentleman out of you, a man who can and will, serve his country in her time of need.

As soon as the target rifles come there will be target practice in the armory twice a week. And if the present plans are carried out there will be a Rifle Match between a team from the cadet battalion and a team from the Lexington Company of the Kentucky State Guard.

AT THE HIPPI.

The Hippodrome bill this week is rather light compared to the programs which have been produced there for the last six or eight weeks. However, these bills have been above the average, perhaps exceptional, and in the case of at least two weeks, it is very doubtful if there could be just such pleasing bills arranged again. The variety this week is enough to please the most fastidious, the comedy is rather lacking but the musical end of the show makes up for what it might not otherwise have.

The Four Musical Mays are wonderful performers on a variety of stringed instruments. They open their act with the entire quartette playing mandolins and using "My Old Kentucky Home." Follow this with "The Ginger Rag," using different instruments. Then comes an excellent rendition of "The Glow Worm" by a single member, using a shello harp. The act is closed by an Indian Dance well executed, with appropriate costumes and some extra good electrical effects.

The acrobatic offering of St. Arno and Croumer is nothing spectacular, although several clever twists and turns are pulled off with ease. Miss Louise Denman, who is billed as "The Southern Comedienne" tells a number of stories in a charming manner, is good looking and sings a couple of songs in a pleasing manner.

PRACTICAL CHRISTIANITY.

"On behalf of the sewing circle of this church," said the pastor at the conclusion of the morning service, "I desire to thank the congregation for 57 buttons placed in the contribution box during the past month. If now the philanthropically inclined donors of these objects will put a half-dozen undershirts and three pairs of other strictly secular garments on the plate next Sunday morning, so that we shall have something to sew those buttons on, we shall be additionally grateful."

—Harper's Weekly.

MODERN TABLE OF VALUE.

"Now, children," commanded the austere instructor in advanced arithmetic, "you will recite in unison the table of values."

Thereupon the pupils repeated in chorus:

"Ten mills make a trust.
Ten trusts make a combine.
Ten combines make a merger.
Ten mergers make a magnate.
One magnate makes the money."
—New York Times.

A Striking Contrast.

In an issue of a certain daily publication there appeared an article showing to what extent the value of human has been depreciated by mine disasters and too frequent homicides. In one column there appeared a short article, probably fifteen lines telling of the mine disaster in western Kentucky, in which twenty or more miners lost their lives. In a parallel column there appeared an article in heavy type headline, bemoaning the death of "Riga," a little dog that weighed less than twenty ounces—also an accident.

There is something rotten in the Kingdom of Denmark.

The Thirteenth State Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association will convene at Versailles, February 24, for a four-days' session. We are entitled to six delegates. All who can and desire to attend should hand in their names to some officer of the Y. M. C. A. in the near future. A good representation is desired on Saturday and Sunday of these dates.

Fannie Fern once said: "If one-half of the girls knew the previous lives of the men they marry, the list of old maids would be wonderfully increased."

To which 'Brick' Pomeroy responded: "If the men knew what their future lives were to be, wouldn't it increase the list of old maids still further?"

Mrs. Uptydate—Marie, have you finished bathing the dog?

The maid—Yes, ma'am.

Mrs. Uptydate—Did you tie the pink ribbon around his neck?

The maid—Yes, ma'am.

Mrs. Uptydate—Then you can go and see what the baby is crying about.

"Millicent is truly a considerate girl," says the damsel with the extended psyche knot.

"What makes you think so," asks the one with the shiny nose.

"Her fiance is troubled with dyspepsia, so she has the druggist mix pepsin with her face powder."

Hagerman also played Beaumont last Saturday, at Harrodsburg. We lost by a score of twenty-eight to have been opened with them pertaining to making all arrangements, so it seems as if here is one more opisfactorily concluded, many of the bright, forensic stars of K. S. U. will

OH! YOU JUDGE!

A student passing Fears' room in the wee sma' hours of the morning heard a tender, passionate voice and paused to listen. "I love you more than all the world. When we are alone and I caress you with my lips it seems as if life was one long happy dream.
Oh, how could I do without you." The listener could stand it no longer, so he placed his eye to the key-hole. He beheld Fears gazing lovingly upon a long black cigar.

HUNTING FOR TROUBLE.

A traveler stopped at a country hotel in Arkansas. There was no water in his room when he arose in the morning, and he went downstairs and asked for some.

"What for?" the landlord asked.

"I want to wash my face."

The landlord directed him to a creek nearby, and he went there for his ablutions, followed by several children who stared at him in amazement.

The traveler washed his face and combed his hair, as best he could,
with a pocket comb.

The children circled about him with wide-open eyes. Finally the largest boy said: "Say, mister, do you-all take all that trouble with yourself every day?"

"Man," declared the old-fashioned preacher, "is a worm."

"And," said a man who had been married three times and who was occupying a space in a rear pew, "woman is the early bird."—Chicago Record-Herald.

PURDUE EXPONENT.

A "Steady" is a constant.

A "Limit" is a constant.

A "Steady" is the "Limit."

Paradise.

A shady room,
An open fire;
A cozy nook
And your heart's desire.

Purgatory.

The self same room,
With lights a few;
The self same nook,
And Ma there, too.

Inferno.

The room, the shade,
The nook, the fire;
The kissing chance,
And enter—Sire.—Weekly Highland.
