

going out from this village, to Canada I believe they will have to work harder out there a good many of them. Eggs have kept a big price $1/4$ last week a dozen, we pickle some every spring. David was down last week, he thinks his farm fairly good land, but lots to do to make the steading and fences right. The landlord is getting it fixed up as well as he expected he would do. Nellie was home a week and two weeks ago, and Willie was down on the Sunday. Nellie is looking forward to getting married this summer, to a doctor in Edin. His mother is a doctor and runs the Woodburn Sanitorium, in Edinburgh. Rag is with Mr. Brown, 5 Royal Ter. West.
 Glasgow. That is her address

Belleme Cottage
 Kennoway

March 13th 1907

Dear Harry

It is some time already since we had your letter. Time passes so very quickly. Mother had a letter from Tom to. Hope before now that you and all the rest are better. It seems to have been a severe winter all over. We had a few lovely days the other week but it is back to cold and snow showers again. Saturday night we had quite a fall of snow.
 Mother keeps real well, has to be very careful of cold, she does not get out of bed till nearly noon, but she gets a daily paper, and reads all that is going on.
 Your farm would need to begin and pay pretty well now, it is hard and constant work. There are quite a lot of folks they say