WIDOW BELIEVES BIXBY DIED DUE TO ACCIDENT

Mrs. Howard E. Bixby yesterday said she is sure her husband, a 69-year-old Glendale inventor, must have been killed accidentally last Thursday.

Bixby's body was found in his workshop at 424 N. Glendale Ave. At his feet lay a partly dismantled revolver.

"He was working on four models boats for the hobby show at the Shrine Auditorium," Mrs. Bixby said. "He was rigging up the mechanism of guns and this work was to have been finished the day he was shot."

"The gun that killed him was crude. He was injured by similar guns that misfired on two previous occasions. One time he had to go to the receiving hospital and another time his hand was seriously hurt. I'm sure this must have been another accident."

Boy Wounds Girl With His Father's Gun

A small boy yesterday wounded a 10-year-old girl schoolmate while playing with his father's revolver. Firestone Sheriff's Deputies reported.

The girl, Janet Elaine Walters, of 1447 E. 154th St., was taken to Compton Emergency Hospital with a wound in the left thigh.

Deputies said Janet was waiting for a school bus when Charles E. Lindsay Jr. & beckoned her into his home at 1472 E. 154th St. The boy held his father's .32-caliber pistol in his hand and pointed it at the girl, the deputies said, adding the weapon was discharged accidentally.

Art Student Arraigned in Church Blaze

Douglas F. Scott, 25-year-old UCLA art student, yesterday was arraigned on arson and burglary charges in connection with St. Martin of Tours Catholic Church fire in Brentwood Saturday.

Municipal Judge Jesse J. Frampton yesterday continued Scott's bail of $1500 and set June 2 for the preliminary hearing. Following his arrest, Scott was identified as a well-known child movie actor of the 1930s.

Pearson Files Suit Against Pegler

WASHINGTON, May 24 (AP)—Drew Pearson, newspaper columnist and radio commentator, tonight said his attorneys have filed a $250,000 libel suit against Columnist Westbrook Pegler.

Pearson said the New York law firm of Greenbaum, Wolf & Ernst filed the suit in the New York Supreme Court today, naming Pegler and his syndicate, King Features.

Pearson told a reporter that two of Pegler's columns, released this week and dealing with some of Pearson's comments on the late James V. Forrestal, were the basis of the suit.

PLANE'S WATER TAXIING SAVES FLOOD VICTIMS

ANCHORAGE, May 24 (AP)—An amphibian plane pilot reported today picking flood victims off roofs at flooded Aniak, on the ice-jammed Kuskokwim River in Western Alaska.

Pilot Jerry Church messaged that he used his Seabee plane as a water taxi, to pick up isolated native residents and ferry them to a waiting PBV plane farther up the river. Aniak has an estimated 200 population.

Sixteen women and children were evacuated from Aniak to Anchorage and 10 to McGrath by Air Force PBV. A Northern Consolidated Airlines Seabee flew seven others to Nyc yesterday.

SIDESWIPER

Rammer of 23 Parked Cars Pleads Guilty

An unemployed Glendale man, Robert W. Dan, 25, entered a guilty plea yesterday in Glendale Police Court to sideswiping 23 new parked cars in the Glendale and Atwater districts.

He told police he "wanted to see how easy those big long panels push in" on late model cars. He used a 1931 model Hupmobile as his battering ram, police said.

Dan received a 90-day jail term with 30 suspended if he makes restitution to 21 owners of the 1949 model automobiles and the two owners of the 1948 models.

Dan's arrest followed two attempts to run into an automobile driven by Ray H. Pinker, Los Angeles police chemist. Pinker obtained the license number of Dan's car and informed Glendale police. Dan's home address is 328 Mira Loma, Glendale.

Dan Campbell, 22, of 1142 Green St., Glendale, who accompanied Dan on the sideswiping expedition early last Friday morning, will be arraigned before Judge Charles R. Dyer in Glendale Police Court this morning on a reckless-driving charge.

Father's Car Kills Child

Susanne Claudia Fierros, 17 months, was pronounced dead on arrival at Rancho Los Amigos Hospital yesterday after being crushed under an automobile driven by her father, Gilbert Fierros, in the driveway of his home at 8336 E. Quebec St., Paramount, Sheriff's deputies said. The baby's death was the 267th traffic fatality in the county this year.

Heinemann Re-elected Head of Meat Packers
