ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

Library Tours September 6th-9th

The Reference department will be offering brief general tours of the King Library September 6th-9th. We would welcome volunteers from the staff to help with these. It's interesting for our users to meet staff who are not usually at the public service desks. We will provide as much help/support/training as you feel you need before giving a tour. If you think you can spare 30 minutes during that week please contact Patricia Renfro or Mollie Sandock at 7-1631 as soon as possible.

Faculty/Staff ID's

The Library has received the new faculty/staff ID's for our unit and they will be distributed this week and next. However, some of them were printed upside down; these were pulled out by University Staff Benefits and are being redone. So, if you do not get one, please wait 2 or 3 weeks; if, by this time, you still do not have one, please call Ann Short.

Maps/Reference Merge

As a response to the MRAP recommendation for few, but larger departments, and the Personnel Utilization subgroup's suggestions for better utilization of staff, the Map Department has been merged with Reference.

LSO Thank You

The showing of the film entitled "The Speaker" (co-sponsored by ALA's Intellectual Freedom Committee) was held by the Library Staff Organization, Thursday, August 11. A panel consisting of Mollie Sandock, Ellen Baxter, Lee Hisle and David Farrell led a discussion of this thought provoking film with much participation from the staff. LSO would like to thank the panelists as well as Bob Sandrock, the projectionist and Bob Turner for helping with the publicity.

UK Librarian Publisher

Mollie Sandock in Reference has published an article in the Summer 1977 RQ. The article is titled: "A Study of University Students' Awareness of Reference Services".

Faculty Meeting August 26

If you are going to come, but "brown bag it", please let Pat Lloyd know as we need a total attendance count for the morning coffee/donut break.

If you are driving and can take someone, please let Faith Harders know as there are a few people who need rides.
