"PUT MONEY IN THY PURSE"

STATE CHAMPIONSHIP IS DECIDED TONIGHT

Centre and U. K. Meet For Second Game in The Gym.

ROOTERS ARE NEEDED

Tennessee was humbled and now it is Centre's time.

Tonight the Wildcats will meet Centre on the home floor. The visitors are sure of the state championship and the Wildcats are sure of their ability to head it this way. Already the Danville boys have done on the Kentuckians, but the U. K. team insists this does will be worthless if Centre is stopped with enough force Thursday night. Centre has defeated Georgetown and Transylvania this season and has one victory over the Wildcats to her credit.

The duty of every student is plain. There is space for almost the whole student body in the gym, and where room is lacking some crowding will be permitted. The members of the team declare that no victory will come to Kentucky unless they are well supported. Psychological effect is the argument presented by Coach Boles for a record-breaking crowd. Centre has had opportunity to crowd over U. K. twice in the last season, and three times is, in the words of the prophet, "to dern much b'gosh." This time Centre must meet defeat.

Lately the Wildcats have been going fine. They have won every game but one this season. Their goal shooting is excellent and ranks second only to their perfect teamwork. Individual stars—there are five of them—account for many of the successes of the team. Practice for the next game, has been steady and serious. The Blue and White neds Danville blood to complete the color scheme for this patriotic season.

If the game tonight is won by the Wildcats they will be tie with Danville for the state championship and a third game will be necessary to decide the honor. In spite of the setbacks U. K. has had to endure thru the loss of valuable players, the team has developed splendidly and fans may expect the best game of the season.

MISS SWEENEY IN LOUISVILLE.

Miss Mary E. Sweeney, head of the Department of Home Economics, will deliver two lectures in Louisville March 2 and 3, under the auspices of the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense.

GRADUATE ENROLLED IN SIGNAL COURSE

O. M. Kirby, '07, formerly of Butler, Ky., has returned to the University, and entered the branch of the Signal Service Course established here.

Mr. Kirby was president of his senior class, editor of the 1907 Kentuckian and a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

After graduation, he went to the Philippines on government work, and later became treasurer of one of the Philippine provinces.

At present Mr. Kirby is in the employ of the Standard Oil Company, and is home on a furlough from China, where he was stationed when war trouble necessitated his leaving.

GOVERNMENT WILL PAY $21 TOWARD UNIFORMS

R. O. T. C. Uniforms to Be Left Here During Summer

SHOES WILL BE KEPT

The Quartermaster Department of the United States Army has given Captain Royden the information that it has decided to pay finally $21 towards the cost of uniforming the members of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps of the University, the military department retaining, however, all uniforms until the beginning of the next semester.

General McCann, of the Quartermaster Department at Washington, in writing regarding this matter, states that all uniforms, except shoes, furnished under these conditions to members will not become the property of the institution or the student, but must be available for issue in the following year. The shoes may be retained by the student.

Captain Royden, in discussing this matter with one of the Kernel reporters, said that this means in the final result the student will pay only for his uniform. The shoes cost $5, of course, but they become the property of the individual student. The method of settlement adopted by the Quartermaster Department will be to pay $14 towards the cost of the uniform in the present school year and $7 at the opening of the fall term of the next semester. An important fact to be remembered is to keep the records correct with the Quartermaster and be sure of a credit account on the $7 at the beginning of the next semester.

All uniforms must be left at the college during the summer term for cleaning and repairing, so that the

FIRST APPEARANCE OF BATTALION IN PUBLIC

Colors Will Be Presented to Battalion By President

CO-ED COLOR GUARD

Preceding the Washington birthday celebration in chapel Friday morning, the battalion will hold its first public ceremony, the "escort of the colors," one of the most beautiful ceremonies in the drill regulations.

Promptly at 9:30, the color company, especially designated as such by the commandant, will march to a point opposite the front of the Main Building and receive the colors from President McVey for the first time this year. The entire battalion, composed of five companies with the band and signal corp, will be formed in line in accordance with the regulations.

Captain Royden has designated Misses Frieda Lemon and Elizabeth C. Loughridge as color guard, prior to its presentation by Doctor McVey to the escort. These young ladies are enrolled in the radio engineering school of the University.

Captain Royden announces that if the weather is fine, arms will be stacked and a color guard posted during the chapel exercises following the escort.

CERTAIN STUDENTS TO BE RESTRICTED

Following is an excerpt from the faculty minutes regarding delinquent students. It should be noted that any student who is delinquent in one third of his work can not engage in any of the University's intercollegiate athletic contests, or in any debates or entertainments connected with the University.

"Any student whose standing is found delinquent at the end of the semester in one-third of his work, is placed on probation for the whole of the next semester. His parents are informed of the fact, and during the period of probation, he is under the week to week supervision of his dean. If at the end of this semester of probation he is delinquent in one-half of his work, he is dropped."

ILLITERACY FUND PROGRESSES.

Prof. T. T. Jones, chairman of the illiteracy campaign on the campus, thru his committee of students, has succeeded in selling the illiteracy button emblem of war on mental darkness, to more than 500 persons. The income from the sales will go to raise the State's illiteracy campaign fund.

TIGERT LECTURES ON POPULAR SUBJECT

"Woman's Opportunity in Regard to the War" will be the subject of Dr. J. J. Tigert's talk tonight at Patterson Hall at 6:45 o'clock. All women of the University are urged to be present.

This is the second of six lectures to be given by Doctor Tigert at Patterson Hall. Every Thursday evening he will discuss such questions as the following ones:

- The program follows:
- February 21.—"Woman's Opportunity."
- February 28.—"Her Obligation."
- March 7.—"Her Ability."
- March 14.—"Her Training."
- March 21.—"Her Reward."

MOST POPULAR CO-EDS ELECTED BY STUDENTS

Each Will Occupy One Page in This Year's Annual

TWO 1917 FAVORITES

In the most heated contest yet held at the University for the election of the most popular co-eds, the student body in chapel Friday morning selected Misses Dorothy Middleton, Ann Molloy, Helen Taylor, Isabelle Dickey, Mary Heron, Dorothy Walker, and Nancy Buckner as the special favorites of 1917-18.

The election, an annual affair to select young women to adorn the pages of the University year book, the Kentuckian, was intensely interesting this time, on account of the abundant supply of popular girls, and the scarcity of boys. Sam Morton, editor-in-chief of the Kentuckian, presided over the election Friday morning. Prior to the voting Mr Morton said the nominees should not only be popular but attractive, or better, "wonderfully beautiful." As a result, the seven young women were chosen.

A representative from each class was selected to total the votes received. These men said the number of nominees was astounding and it seemed that every girl in the University was considered by one person at least as "wonderfully beautiful."

It was the original intention of the Kentuckian staff to select only six young women, but the unexpected happened and two young women tied for sixth place, so that both will be included and the Beauty Section will have seven pages instead of six.

Departing from the usual custom of having but one picture of each girl and placing two or three on a page, the staff has decided to devote a page

CAMPAIGN IS LAUNCHED BY UNIV. MINUTE MEN

Thrift Stamps Are Advertised in All Quarters

BABY BOND PRIZES

The Thrift Stamp Campaign on the campus is launched. Four minute speakers appear at every meeting, Thrift Stamp posters confront the student at every turn, Thrift Stamp contests are the popular things of the moment, and Thrift Stamps form the basis of all conversation.

Professor E. F. Farquhar, Doctor J. E. Tuthill and Doctor R. N. Maxon were appointed by President McVey to direct the work of the campaign. Under them are two teams of student minute men, under the leadership of Miss Mildred Graham and C. E. Planck.

The "minute girls" visit the men's meetings, while the boys advertise Thrift Stamps at co-ed gatherings. The girls' team and schedule for this week follows: Marie Collins, Boys' Glee Club; Louise Unee, History Club; Adele Slade, Agricultural Society; Louise Mayer, Basket Ball game; Eliza Piggott, Union Literary Society; Eliza Spurrier, Patterson Literary Society; Frieda Lemon, Boys' Mess Hall, Kathleen Brand, Y. M. C. A.; Bertha Miller, Pre-medical Society; Ruth Mathews, Henry Clay Law Society.

The rules regarding the essay contest announced in last week's Kernel have been formulated. The essay is to be on the subject, "Why we should buy war Saving Stamps," and must be not more than 300 nor less than 200 words in length. The essays must be given to Dr. J. E. Tuthill, not later than March 15.

As prizes two baby bonds worth $5 each will be awarded in the College of Arts and Science, one in the Law Department, one in the College of Mechanical and Electrical Engineering and one in the College of Agriculture.

The Thrift Stamp campaign will be presented tomorrow in chapel by one representative from each of the minute teams. March 8, the entire chapel hour will be devoted to the interests of the campaign.

The stamps are on sale in the Business Office and at Patterson Hall. About 300 have been sold since the campaign started.

UNIVERSITY ADOPTS NEW GRADING SYSTEM

Points, as Well as Credits, to Count Towards Graduation

GRADES A, B, C, D, and E.

The faculty of the University has adopted a new system of grading and grouping of students with special requirements for graduation and special commencement honors.

The University is one of the fifty-eight out of sixty-four colleges and universities, approved by the Carnegie Foundation, which has adopted the system consisting of but few grades or groups. This system favors the plan of having only five grades, A, B, C, D, E, the first four grades above the passing mark. This means that the troublesome "D," which heretofore has meant a condition, now means a poor pass. The new system gives credit hours whose value in points are as follows: A, three points; B, two points; C, one point; D, hours credit, but no points; while the lowest grade, E, will yield neither points nor credit. An equal number of hours and points, 120, will be required for graduation. A student with 120 credit hours but no point credits will not be allowed to graduate.

Following is the system adopted, which will go into effect after June, 1918, and the results will be recorded in the Registrar's office:

A—Exceptionally high quality, valued at three points.

B—Good, valued at two points' credit.

C—Fair, valued at one point credit.

D—Poor, but passing, valued at no points' credit.

E—Failure, valued at no points' credit.

A credit represents one hour of recitation or two hours of laboratory a week for one semester. Drawing, shop-work, gymnasium, military, science and other courses requiring no outside work are reckoned at three hours for one credit. The standing of a student is defined as the ratio of his total number of points to his total number of credits. An advanced credit will be regarded as a grade of C. A grade of E means that the work must be taken over in class to be credited.

Concerning the requirements for graduation, the faculty has decided that the student must have gained the specified number of credits, plus an equal number of points. This requirement of points shall apply only to work taken after June, 1918. At least one year of the course must have been in residence.

Following are the commencement honors to be granted graduates who do certain accredited work:

1.—Students are graduated "With High Distinction," who attain a standing for the course of 2 3-8 points.

2.—Students are graduated "With Distinction" who attain a standing of 2 1-8 points.

3.—Students are graduated with "Special Mention" who attain a standing of two points and are recommended by the department concerned for especially good work.

This means that a student making an annual average of A thru his col-

EXTENSION MEASURE SUPPORTED BY McVEY

In regard to the securing of passage of the Extension Bill, known as House Bill 294, Senate Bill 96, now before the Legislature, Doctor McVey said: "Heretofore the State of Kentucky has appropriated only $18,000 for the carrying of agricultural extension work throughout the State, when the Federal government requires the providing of $60,000 annually by the State to meet the conditions in the Smith-Lever Bill, and the difference, about $38,000, has been taken from experiment station funds which in reality were needed in other places; for instance, in erection of farm buildings and enlargement of experiment work along agricultural lines, which is hampering both divisions of work.

"The request for the direct appropriation of $62,000 has been made to take care of the work properly, and as a result of this appropriation, the State will receive $180,000 annually from Federal funds under the Smith-Lever bill passed by Congress in 1914, but if the appropriation is not made by the Legislature we will not get the $180,000, which is wholly for agricultural extension work. The extension work places a burden on the University in addition to what it now carries and the passage of the Extension Bill will relieve the situation and continue the good work of the extension division."

CLASS VISITS FARM

The class studying stock breeding at the college of Agriculture will soon begin to spend Saturdays visiting various large stock farms of the State for the purpose of studying representative types of pure bred stock.

The stock at the Experiment Station is inadequate for the extensive study required to give boys experience in judging. The class is composed of 40 men. During the remainder of the semester they will study sheep, beef cattle and swine with regard to their characteristics, origin, type and adaptability.

15 U. K. FELLOWSHIPS

In the University of Kentucky Index, published February 5, appears the following regarding graduate fellowships:

"Fifteen graduate fellowships are open to students who desire to pursue graduate work. The student applying must have completed his undergraduate courses. The fellowships are $350 in amount. The fellows appointed are expected to teach a limited number of hours, not more than ten a week. Application should be made to the chairman of the Graduate Committee, University of Kentucky, Lexington, Kentucky."

lege career will receive the first honor. If his average is B, he will receive the second honor. A student in the University prior to June, 1918, to be eligible for honors must have met the former requirements for honors for that part of his course taken before the new ruling.

It is the intention of the University to make public announcement each year of all undergraduate students who have so far in their courses attained a standing of two points or more.

TABBIES LOSE WHEN TIE IS PLAYED OFF

Wesleyan Triumphs in a Closely Matched Contest

GAME IS INTERESTING

Once more the ladies of Wesleyan have used the Tabbies shamefully by defeating them 9 to 7.

The coincidence of the tied score was again before the notice of the Winchester fans. Like the boys' game the week before when the tie was not discovered until too late to play it off, the score at the end of the last field goal was 7 to 7. According to the rules for a girls' game, the first team to make a score after the resumption of playing wins the game. The Winchester girls made the first field goal a few seconds after the play began again.

The game was interesting thruout with the scores always close together. At the end of the first third the score was 1 to 1. Wesleyan led the visitors by 5 to 1 at the end of the second third.

The line-up and summary follows:
Kentucky. Wesleyan.
Crane (1) F. B. Spencer
Cromwell (1) F. K. Spencer
Gregor (1) C. Ellwanger (2)
Dean G. Porter (2)
Walker G. Coward

Gregor, one foul out of five trials; Spencer one foul out of seven trials. Robertson, of Wesleyan, referee.

COMMERCIAL COURSE PLAN FOR NEXT YEAR

President McVey has announced, that beginning next September, there will be introduced into the curriculum of the University, a commercial course in collaboration with the course in Political Economy now offered.

This does not mean that a business school will be instituted here, running in opposition to the business schools of the city, but that an extension in the work of economics, possibly employing two or three more instructors, will be made. This course will teach insurance, commerce, advertising, and the finer courses not to be obtained elsewhere.

Similar courses are now included in the curriculum of Harvard, Yale and Columbia, and have proved unusually popular. Only graduates of High Schools will be enrolled, and a previous course in shorthand and stenography will probably be required also.

OLD DORM. CHALLENGE

Residents of the Third Division of the Old Dormitory have challenged any equal number of students living on the campus to buy more Thrift Stamps than they will. Their apparent intention is to change the inscription that figuratively hangs over their door from "The Home of the Bearcats and Land of the Brave," to "The Home of the Patriotic and Land of the Brave."

SOUTH AFRICAN ON WAY TO UNIVERSITY

W. H. Scherffus, Pretoria, South Africa, graduate of the University, from the College of Agriculture, has been, for a number of years, employed by the Tobacco and Cotton Division of the Union of South Africa to carry out experiments in the raising of these commodities. A letter has just been received from Mr. Scherffus, announcing that H. S. Le Roux, Pretoria, South Africa, is on his way to America to enter the College of Mechanical and Electrical Engineering.

Until the declaration of war between Germany and America, there was another student from South Africa, studying mechanical engineering at the University, R. C. A. Mapstone, who joined the Royal Flying Corps of the Canadian forces and at present is in the aviation service of the British government.

MRS. WIGGS WILL BE PRESENTED BY CO-EDS

The Life and Writings of Mrs. Alice Hegan Rice, author of "Mrs. Wiggs and the Cabbage Patch," "Lovey Mary," "Romance of Billy-Goat Hill," etc., was the subject for discussion at the regular weekly meeting of the Philanthropic Literary Society Wednesday evening, Feb. 13. Ruth Duckwall, former president of the society, was in charge of the meeting.

Miss Duckwall is a resident of Louisville, where the Cabbage Patch and Billy-Goat Hill are situated. This, and the fact that she is personally acquainted with the author made her talk unusually interesting.

The members of the society are making preparations for the presentation of "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," in spring. The committee in charge of the selection of the play was: Elizabeth McGowan, chairman; Alma Bolser, and Elizabeth Kraft.

NEW COURSE IS UNDER SMITH-HUGHES BILL

Professor McNeil James, a graduate of the University of Illinois and a Master of Science from the same university, has been employed by the University to instruct students enrolled in Agricultural Education in the radio buzzer work.

Under the provisions of the Smith-Hughes bill, known as the Vocational Educational Act, this course in Agricultural Education is to be instituted.

Professor James has recently been professor of Agricultural Education in the State Normal School of Valley City, North Dakota, and has been a county agent for the past two years. His coming will add a new type of work in the University.

KENTUCKIAN NOTES

All copy for the societies must be in by not later than Monday, February 24. This includes the written matter on the page, and it must be exactly as it is to be printed. This copy must be turned in to the Kentuckian office or deposited in the Kentuckian box at the north entrance of the Main Building.

All accounts for space in the Annual will be due March 1. All payments and checks should be made payable to Eugene Wilson, business manager of the Kentuckian. Immediate arrangements with Mr. Wilson in this regard must be made.

The retouching and printing of the individual photographs are practically finished, and they may be secured from the photographers by the numerous organizations and fraternities, and the design work and mounting must be rushed to completion.

We recommend the use of No. 1 white mat-board for mounting purposes, which may be obtained at Wren & King's, corner Main and Mill streets. The printing page of the Annual will be seven inches long and five inches wide, therefore all mounts for whole pages designs must be in the proportion of seven to five.

CATS DEFEAT TIGERS ON THEIR OWN FLOOR

The Georgetown Tigers were defeated by the Wildcats for the second time last Thursday night at Georgetown by a score of 25 to 16.

The Kentucky players were up to their usual style in goal-shooting and team work and did not give their hosts a "look-in." Thomas for the Wildcats shot more field goals than all the opposing team and played his customary star game. Shanklin also deserves mention.

TIGERT GIVES FIRST OF SIX WAR LECTURES

Dr. J. J. Tigert delivered the first of his series of six lectures to be given before the Y. W. C. A., Thursday evening, at Patterson Hall. Doctor Tigert spoke on "War and Woman," which gave a survey of the lectures which are to follow and showed woman's great opportunity in this war for service and how she is taking advantage of it.

How the attitude of the people has changed since the declaration that made it every one's war and not one so far removed that it did not affect this country was touched on. "The spirit of giving has become one of love," said Doctor Tigert, "as well as sacrifice, and woman offered her greatest sacrifice when she sent her sons."

FOUR THRIFT STAMPS FOR BEST LIMERICK

"Uncle Jimmie" Lyons in the Business Office, has announced that he will give four Thrift Stamps for the best limerick handed in before March 15, on any subject dealing with Thrift Stamps.

The announcement of this limerick contest has already produced some brilliant efforts, and brought to light heretofore unrecognized talent. Following is a contribution from a former student:

"There was a young Kaiser named Billy,
Who got on his ear like Sam-Hilly;
But we gave him the cramps,
With War Saving Stamps,
And made 'Hock der Kaiser' look silly."

PERSONNEL FOR "MICE AND MEN" ANNOUNCED

Final Selections of Certain Parts Not Yet Made, However

MANAGER GRATEFUL

The management of "Mice and Men" officially announces a part of the cast for the forthcoming Stroller play as follows:

- Ann Molloy—Peggy Embury's ward.
- Gus Gay—Mark Embury, a scholar and scientist.
- Milton Revell—Captain Lovell, his nephew.
- Grover Creech—Roger Goodlake, Embury's friend.
- Frederick Augsburg—Sir Harry Trimblestone, English nobleman.
- Frederick Jackson—Peter Embury's servant.
- Charles Planck—Kit Baringer, a fiddler and professor of department.
- Elizabeth Murphey or Eliza Spurrier—Joanna, wife of Goodlake.
- Edna Berkeley—Mrs. Deborah, Embury's housekeeper.
- Ruth Cassidy—Matron, founding hospital.
- Robert Raible—Beadle, founding hospital.
- Molly—A Kitchen Maid (not yet selected).
- Ten Orphan Girls—(Not yet selected).

In the selection of this cast, much difficulty has been experienced, owing to the fact that the talent from which it was to be chosen was of such exceptional quality, that it was indeed a task to make proper distinctions and select those best fitted for the part involved.

With the usual spirit which has placed the Strollers among the first of all the student organizations, the members reported on "try-out" nights and demonstrated their intention to make the forthcoming play a success, without regard to who should be lucky enough to be given parts in the comedy. Altho it was impossible for every one to be successful, it is hoped that that interest will never slacken, and each member will consider himself a committee of one, ready to be called upon at any time to aid in the producing of this year's play and to do all in his power to make it a success. At the present time the stage manager is in need of ten young women, members of the Strollers, to take the parts of orphans and also to appear in a ball room scene. It will be very much appreciated by all if those desiring to take these parts will place their names with either McClain or Planck, at their earliest convenience.

Owing to the unusual talent displayed by Misses Elizabeth Murphey and Eliza Spurrier in their interpretation of the part of Joanna, the stage manager has decided to take a little more time before making the final decision. This is a most difficult role and both these young women seem equally suited to handle it. For this reason this selection will be deferred for a few days.

Thru the Kernel, the stage manager wishes to announce his sincere thanks and deepest appreciation to each and every member of the organization for his supreme loyalty and ready response to every call that has been made.

KAPPA ALPHA GIVES LONG SERVICE LIST

Theta Chapter of Kappa Alpha fraternity has thirty-five men in active service now, fourteen of whom were connected with the chapter last year, according to a report given the registrar this week.

The University service list continues to grow, and the co-operation of the students is asked in making it complete. The fraternities and other organizations are especially urged to make out lists of their members in service.

DR. TANIMURA VISITS EXPERIMENT STATION

Dr. Issa Tanimura, Commissioner of Animal Husbandry in Japan, who is touring the country looking for sheep types suitable for the climate and conditions prevailing in his country, visited the Experiment Station last week. He spoke in high terms of the Hampshires at Walnut Hall farm, and selected one of the animals to send back to Japan for foundation stock.

Dr. Tanimura came to this country several years ago as an immigrant, seeking an education. After completing a course at Yale, he took graduate work at Pennsylvania and Cornell.

WEATHERFORD SPEAK ON NEGRO PROBLEMS

On Tuesday evening, Dr. W. D. Weatherford, Nashville, spoke on "Negro Life in the South." The subject was illustrated by slides representing conditions in practically every Southern state.

Doctor Weatherford spoke of the home, economic, educational and church life of the negro and showed that given a reasonable chance the negro will develop into a better and useful citizen. The problem of the present age is that of race relationships and he urged the students to make a thoro study of the negro as that is the problem nearest home to us.

PATRIOTIC MEETING FOR ENGLISH MAJORS

A patriotic meeting of the English Club will be held tonight at Patterson Hall at 8 o'clock. Miss Roberta Thornton will speak on "Booth Tarkington" and Miss Adele Slade on "Tagore."

After the program a patriotic social hour will follow, with the English major girls at Patterson Hall as hostesses. Several features have been planned and it is hoped that all English majors will be there.

SERVICE FLAG TO BE PRESENTED THURSDAY

H. V. McChesney, camp educational director of the Army Y. M. C. A. at Camp Zachary Taylor, will speak tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, in the usual Washington birthday celebration. The University service flag, which will contain 433 stars will be formally presented at the same time.

Preceding the chapel exercises the battalion will give its first public ceremony of the year, the "escort of the colors." This will take place at 9:30. Dr. Benjamin J. Bush will give the invocation and Dr. T. C. Ecton, the benediction.

The service flag is being made by the young women of the Home Economics Department. It is very large, and the stars will be arranged in a symmetrical design.

THE THRIFT STAMP

On the eve of the natal day of the revered Washington, sponsor of democracy and father of his country, the Kernel asks no pardon for touching even thus briefly on the patriotic theme of "The Thrift Stamp," the sale of many of which is vitally important to the success of America and her Allies.

The President desires that every citizen of America, man, woman, student, all, be financially interested in the great war. Only when every American knows that he is lending assistance to his government, knows that he stands with America to win or to lose, can he feel that strictly personal interest which comes with invested money. Only when every American arrives at that stage where he knows that he, himself, is playing a part in his country's struggle, will the citizen-body in its entirety become obsessed with a feeling kindred to that fire-purged spirit which gleams forth from the sparkling eye of the poilu—"Thou shall not pass."

The Kernel assumes that but comparatively few of the student-body were able to buy Liberty Bonds. But the Kernel feels sure that every man and woman in the University would like to have the satisfied feeling which comes with personal and individual aid. Opportunity is knocking in the form of Thrift Stamps. May every student see his way clear to buy; may every alumnus in the service be backed by Thrift Stamps bought at his Alma Mater. The Kernel likes to believe that the spirit of '76 is in the youth on the campus at the University of Kentucky.

LATIN ELECTIVE IN THE UNIVERSITY

In future years when a student matriculates at the University of Kentucky with a sufficient number of entrance credits in Latin, he will not be required to continue the "language of the dead" in his work for certain degrees. The Kernel congratulates the University upon its recent ruling to this effect and personally is of the belief that no student derives benefits proportionate with the amount of work that he does in reading what is called higher Latin.

In the high schools of the State, however, the study of Latin is an entirely different enterprise. It is in those institutions of preparatory work that the average student becomes acquainted with the study from which, at first, he can't, for the life of him, seem to derive any apparent benefit. After a semester or two spent in studying the subject, he happens to be reading and comes across a word which he is not able to define. On reflection he recalls a similar word in Latin. At once, the meaning of the English word is clear and the value of Latin becomes manifest. A large percentage of English words come from Latin; in studying Latin, therefore, the high school student is making the way clear for his English, is learning to think, and is exercising his mental restorative powers. Knowledge of Latin roots, of Latin words, of the structural form of Latin, is indispensable to a clear understanding of the English tongue and to a lucid and easy style in writing English. That three or four years spent in the study of Latin is sufficient time in which to obtain a working knowledge of the language, is the belief of matured teachers.

In doing away with Latin to a certain degree, the University does not purpose to set a precedent for high and preparatory schools of the State. Its purpose is, rather, to encourage the study of Latin in high schools, so that the graduates, who matriculate at the University, will be better prepared to carry a schedule of University classes.

In reading an exchange recently, we noted that a symposium of eight high school student utterances stated that they had derived more from the study of Latin than from any other high school subject.

Mitchell—"Smatter?"
Plank: "I don't know my Bible lesson."

CAPT. K. G. PULLIAM, AVIATOR, WOUNDED

Captain Keeling G. Pulliam, a citizen of Lexington and a former student at the University, was recently wounded, while engaged in aeroplane service over the city of London. Captain Pulliam's wounds were of a nature, evidently not serious, for latest reports say that he is now convalescent in a military hospital at Southampton, England.

The cause of the wound is not known, as Captain Pulliam did not say anything concerning the cause in the letters most recently received by his mother. He only stated that the wound had temporarily prohibited him from further work, as his left arm had been incapacitated.

Captain Pulliam is the first Lexington boy, and probably the first University boy to fly overseas for the Allies. Captain Pulliam, of the Aviation Department, was formerly first lieutenant in the Signal Corps, K. N. G., in which capacity he served during the recent trouble with Mexico.

LUKE, ATTENTION

In these war days there is an M. T. Bird living at Patterson Hall.

House Director: "Next week there will be only four days—school days I mean."

Innocent Young Thing: (with sigh of relief)—"Oh I thot Mr. Hoover had changed the number of days in the week."

ACROSS THE COUNTER

Uncle Charlie: "What'll you have?"
U. K. Eversufferer: "Aw quit cher kiddin' and bring me what Uncle Sam allows."

SORROWS OF LICENSE CLERK

"What is your name?"
"Alexander C. Wombat."
"What does the C. stand for?"
"Richard."

TWO LUMPS

Jones—"Do you take your coffee with two lumps or one?"
Brown—"Two lumps—one of sugar, the other in my throat as I think of the cost of meal."

While at the University, Captain Pulliam was affiliated with the Sigma Nu fraternity, which organization paid especial tribute to Captain Pulliam and George Aaron, another member of the chapter, now in the Flying Corps in France, at their Founders' Day banquet last Saturday night.

PATTERSON TRYOUT SATURDAY

The preliminary tryout for the declamatory contest of the Patterson Literary Society will be held in the society rooms Saturday night at the regular meeting. Out of some ten entries, the best four will be selected for the final contest. The prize in the final is a medal presented by President Emeritus Patterson, and the winner will represent Paterson against Union Society. The winner of the last contest will represent the University.

HISTORY CLUB TO MEET

The History Club will meet Monday in Doctor Tutill's room in the Executive Building.

NOTES OF GAME

While Georgetown was struggling in vain with the Kentucky Wildcats the wind blew a telephone pole and a tree across the tracks of the interurban road in hopes of prolonging the interesting contest. Some of the team came home in an automobile and some stayed at Georgetown.

Yell Leader Plank has volunteered to disgrace himself further by singing a solo at the U. K. Centre game if every student turns out.

So far the Wild Tabbies have had little luck, but every cat has her day and optimism is recommended as a balm for their defeats.

It will require a team that is already state champion to defeat the blue-sweatered Wildcats if they are well supported Thursday night. Bring your girl!

W. T. Carpenter, '98, is now in France, holding a commission as major in the Coast Artillery Service. Major Carpenter entered the United States service as a volunteer in the Spanish-American War in the summer of '98, and when he was mustered out in '99 held the commission of second lieutenant.

He returned to the University in January 1900 and was commandant here until June 1901, when he again entered commercial engineering. In 1903, he re-entered the service of his country as a ship's draftsman and since 1905 has been in the Coast Artillery Service.

When war with Germany was declared in April 1917, Major Carpenter held the commission of captain in the Coast Artillery and was a member of the staff of the commanding officer at Fort Hamilton, Brooklyn, New York.

SECOND CALL ISSUED FOR KODAK PICTURES

The Kentuckian is continuing its drive for snapshots and all who have pictures that may be of interest to the school are requested to hand them in to C. E. Planck.

There will be a dorm section in this year's annual and the snapshot editor is anxious to get a snapshot of every resident of both dormitories. Only the faces of these are to be used so that all of the picture need not be good.

The printers of the book are crying for copy and the staff wishes that all material be given in as soon as possible. The Kentuckian box at the north end of the Main Building is ready for any material from the students.

So far there have been but few snap shots turned in. All these pictures will be returned if they are not used and it is necessary to have a choice of several hundred to make the best annual. Novel pictures are preferred.

MILITARY BALL WILL BE GIVEN TOMORROW

The annual military ball, given by the battalion of the University for the battalion and its "lady loves," will be given in Buell Armory Friday, February 22 at 8 o'clock.

The ball, always a brilliant affair of the student year, portends to be the best ever given. Refreshments will be served. Good music has been secured and a good time is guaranteed.

All cadets must appear in full uniform, including white collar, shined shoes and gloves. On account of some of the uniforms arriving late, any one making arrangements with one of the officials in charge may attend without a uniform.

Tickets should be bought before 4:30 this afternoon. The price is fifty cents.

UNION ELECTS OFFICERS.

Old-time "pep" entered the hall of the Union Literary Society Saturday night and one of the best programs of the year was rendered. The following officers were elected for the semester: J. W. Lindsay, president; E. E. Rice, vice president; R. L. Duncan, treasurer; L. F. Bischof, secretary; J. P. Barnes, attorney general; P. B. Hall, sergeant-at-arms; R. J. Raible, librarian.

Sunday, February 24, was the date set for having the picture taken for the Kentuckian. All members are requested to meet at Humphrey's studio promptly at 2 p. m.

best possible appearance may be made next semester.

In speaking of the quality of the uniforms this year, Captain Royden said, "The greatest difficulty has been experienced by all colleges in the United States in obtaining any kind of a uniform, and press reports show that in many cases uniforms, like those supplied the University, have been temporarily issued to soldiers in the field. The final assuming of the United States, of the responsibility for the uniforms furnished will, I feel sure, compensate the boys in some degree for the quality which is being supplied."

Captain Royden attaches no blame to the Kaufman Clothing Company for the quality of the uniform. It has not been possible to procure woolen cloth this year nor is it advisable to pay an excessive price and deprive thereby some soldier in the field of a good uniform.

AG. GRADUATES THIS MONTH

J. E. Melvin, Sedalla, J. G. Stewart, Crittenden, and Everett Bleidt, Lexington, who will receive bachelor degrees this month from the College of Agriculture, will return to their own farms to develop agricultural interests for themselves and the community.

PROF. WRITES FOR MAGAZINE

An article by Prof. Walter S. Anderson, of the College of Agriculture, entitled "The Unusual in Breeding," appeared in last month's Country Gentleman of the date of January 12, 1918. Dealing, as it does, with some freaks in the way of twins, young mules, calves, and colts bred in Kentucky, it should be of interest to every agricultural student in the University.

MOST POPULAR (Continued from Page One)

to each young woman presenting her in three poses, so that her charms may be adequately presented.

No story of the contest would be complete without at least a brief description of each fair co-ed.

Miss Dorothy Middleton, petite and charming, is known and loved for her friendly smile and the comradely wave of her hand. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity, a sophomore in the Home Economics Department, and one of the most attractive girls of the University. This is the second time Miss Middleton has received the honor of being voted one of the most popular girls in the University.

Ann Molloy, the lovable maid with the bewitching smile and dimples, is considered sweet, pretty and adorable not only by "we-uns" of the University, but by all Blue Grass society as well. Miss Molloy is a sophomore in the College of Arts and Science. She has been selected to play the leading role in "Mice and Men," the Stroller play which is to be given April 5. Miss Molloy was also chosen last year by the student body for the Vanity Fair section of the Annual.

Helen Taylor, charmingly tall with brilliant brown eyes, is a freshman in the University, planning to be a Home Economics' instructor. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity, and hails from Bowling Green.

Mary Heron, Irvington, a strikingly beautiful blonde with a smile that lingers after she has past, is also a Freshman in the Home Economics Department. She is a member of Chi Omega fraternity. Her turned up nose and wide blue eyes have already captivated the hearts of some several boys on the campus.

"Dot" Walker, occasionally known as Dorothy, is a refreshing bit of shortness from Pineville. She is a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity and is a junior in the College of Arts and Science. A wholesome bit of femininity, she delights in basketball and camping, especially on the Kentucky river.

Isabelle Dickey, also a freshman, and one of the most popular, hails from Richmond, and is strikingly attractive. She is a member of the Alpha Xi Delta fraternity. Universal friendliness is the secret of her popularity.

Nancy Buckner, Shelbyville's pride and the University's pet, is one of the most popular freshmen ever enrolled here. In five short months, she, with her trusting simplicity and big brown eyes, has captured the brave hearts of more than one member of the battalion, the list including captains, lieutenants, sergeants and high privates in the rear rank. It is rumored that even the Cuckoos have discovered her charms. No amount of petting, however, detracts from her personality, and she continues to be the same unaffected freshman she was on her arrival in September. Miss Buckner is enrolled in the Home Economics Department and is a member of Chi Omega fraternity.

SUNDAY, DAY OF PRAYER

Next Sunday evening, the universal day of prayer for students will be observed by the Young Women's and Young Men's Christian Associations of the University. An appropriate program will be arranged.

STUDENTS TALK AT THE "Y"

The Sunday evening meetings of the Association have developed into a forum where each student is given a chance to express himself. Last Sunday evening, the question "Is Christianity vital in the University of Kentucky?" was discussed.

The consensus of opinion was that there are outstanding evils in the University which Christianity can remedy, but that the average student is lacking in courage to take a stand for the right.
