

Handwritten notes on a chalkboard to the left of the first window, including mathematical symbols and text.

Handwritten notes on a chalkboard between the two windows, including a list of items and some diagrams.

Large blackboard at the front of the room containing extensive handwritten text, diagrams, and a circular diagram on the right side.

