ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

Chandler Papers Presentation

The personal and public papers of Albert B. Chandler will be formally presented to the University of Kentucky on November 18 at 2 PM in Seay Auditorium. The program will include a slide/tape presentation on the highlights of Governor Chandler's career. The main address will be delivered by Joseph J. Leary, Frankfort attorney and long-time friend and adviser to Chandler. A reception in the Special Collections Department will follow the program. Faculty and staff are cordially invited.

The Chandler Papers were deposited at the King Library in 1973. Now processed and open for scholarly research, the collection consists of nearly 600 boxes of correspondence and over 500 photographs and bits of memorabilia. These materials document Chandler's career from the 1920's to 1974, highlighted by two terms as Governor of Kentucky, six years in the United States Senate, and a vigorous and controversial tenure as Commissioner of Baseball.

Selected items from the collection will be on display in the Gallery, King Library North, beginning the week of November 14.

Conservation Collection Organized

The Conservation Committee has established a core collection of copies of articles relating to conservation. Committee member Robin Barnard is in charge of arrangements with the Reserve Room to make these timely articles available to the staff. Committee members hope that the staff will take advantage of this opportunity to learn about one of the most serious problems which all libraries face today - the preservation of library materials.

Publish or Perish?

Susan Miller, from Ohio State University Libraries, will be coming on November 16 to speak about the growing trend towards research and publication requirements for librarians and the effect such policies have on librarians and support staff.

Date: November 16
Time: 2:00 p. m.
Place: MIK Staff Lounge

Periodical Room Procedure

Staff members who remove an issue of any periodical or journal from the King Periodical Room - even for a short time - must sign it out at the service desk in CSR. This goes for both regular and restricted titles.

We would like to discourage the practice of "borrowing" issues from the reading room since it invariably causes service problems. If it is absolutely necessary to take something out, the Sign-out procedure will enable us to locate issues upon demand.

Thank you, Gail Kennedy.

Telephone Numbers Switched

Administrative Services and CSR have exchanged telephone numbers. Administrative Services numbers are 3-2566 & 8-2831; CSR numbers are 8-2832 & 3-2539. Be sure to change these numbers in your phone books.

PERSONNEL

University Personnel will present a program on how to deal with the public over the telephone on Monday, November 21 at 9 a.m. in the Gallery; the program will last approximately 1 hour. If you plan to come, please let Faith Harders know by Wednesday morning, November 16, as we have to give Personnel a head count so they can prepare the necessary materials.

The following staff members have changed jobs and may be found in the areas listed. Please address your mail accordingly.

Ron Lloyd - Music Listening Center
Bob Sandroek. - Media (Circulation)
Karen Boucias - AIDS (Circulation)

ARLIS MEETING

Norma Jean Gibson, Mary Owings, Karin Sandvik and Wanda Dole attended the October 29 fall meeting of the KY/TN chapter of ARLIS (Art Libraries Society) at Joint University Libraries in Nashville. Mrs. Marice Wolfe, Head of Special Collections, spoke to us about holdings and presented a small display of rare or unique materials. After the business meeting, we had lunch and a tour of the Tennessee Fine Arts Center at Cheekwood, its Galleries, Grounds and Museum Library. Ms. Tori Olin, the librarian at Cheekwood, who is cataloging the 6000 volume collection in the recently established library, spoke about the recent efforts to set up the library, and problems concerned with a small museum library operating on limited funds.
