Number 546

March 10, 1989

TOWN MEETING PLANNED

There will be a Town Meeting for all library faculty and staff on March 15, 1989, from 8:00 - 9:00 a.m. in Classroom 102, Whitehall Classroom Building.

MULLINS PHOTOS IN PEAL GALLERY

Photographs by Pictureman Mullins will be on exhibit in the Peal Gallery, King Library North, April 9-May 19. William Richardson Mullins traveled through Wise and Dickenson counties in Virginia, and Letcher and Pike counties, Kentucky, making snapshots and portraits with a roll-film box camera in the 1920s and 1930s. After World War II, he set up studios in East Jenkins and Payne Gap which he maintained until his death in 1969 at age 82. This exhibit represents four decades of Pictureman's work.

The opening will be held on Sunday, April 9, at 2:00 p.m. The poet Bob Henry Baber, who was instrumental in creating the exhibit, will provide an introduction; a reception will follow.

Other photographs by Pictureman will also be on exhibit at UK's Appalachian Center Gallery, 641 South Limestone.

These exhibits are free and open to the public; they are co-sponsored by the UK Libraries, UK's Appalachian Center and the Kentucky Humanities Council. The photographs were lent by Mullins' granddaughter, Angel Rucker of Jenkins, Kentucky. For gallery hours, call 7-8634.

THE GREAT BEAN

THE GREAT BEAN

The Great Bean is a very important part of the diet of the people of the Great West. It is a very healthy food and is very easy to digest. It is also a very good source of protein and fiber.

DESKTOP PUBLISHING SUPPORT GROUP

A new support group for University personnel involved with desktop publishing has been formed at UK. The group meets monthly and includes staff members working in publishing, television broadcasting, audio-visual software and data communications.

Any UK faculty or staff member involved in these or other related areas is encouraged to attend. The next meeting is scheduled for 11:00 a.m., Friday, March 17, in Room 231 of the Student Center. The March meeting will include a discussion of what contracts and services are available through the UK Purchasing Department.

For more information about the group, telephone Tammy Stathas at 7-6381.

NEWS FROM BIB POLICIES GROUP

The LS/2000 Bibliographic Policies and Procedures Advisory Group has issued three new bulletins (Nos. 9, 10, & 11) and a revision of bulletin #2. Summaries of these bulletins are listed below.

Bulletin #9: Authorization for Bibliographic Functions: The six processing units are responsible for the maintenance of the bibliographic records in LS/2000. On the Lexington campus, the processing units and circulation points share the responsibility of maintaining the existing item records in LS/2000. At the Medical Center Library, maintenance of item records resides in the cataloging department. Only processing units are responsible for the deletion of the final item record and corresponding bibliographic record when an item is withdrawn. Questions relating to LS/2000 database maintenance should be directed to the Head of the MIK Bibliographic Maintenance Department, Kate Seago.

Bulletin #10: Hierarchy for Cataloging Sources: This bulletin provides the processing units with guidelines for the selection of the preferred bibliographic record from among the multiple records that co-exist in OCLC for a single title. This hierarchy is designed to prevent duplicate records from entering LS/2000. In addition, it contains procedures for the resolution of existing duplicate records in LS/2000 which will be handled by the processing units. Individuals who encounter duplicates in LS/2000 should notify their processing units.

Bulletin #11: Serial Titles in Multiple Physical Form: The bibliographic record for the original physical form of publication will be used to catalog serial titles published in multiple physical forms (hard copy and microform). The form of publication will appear in the item records attached to the bibliographic record. Individuals will have to look at only one bibliographic record to determine the complete holdings of a serial title.

Bulletin #2 (revised): Consistent Use of Copy Statements: Items records for all formats will contain copy statements with two exceptions: (1) Archives and manuscripts, and (2) Medical Center Library journal titles.

Copies of the full text of these bulletins are available in the Reference Department, MIK South, or from the chair, Lynne Bowman. (Submitted by Lynne Bowman.)
