Sec. of Faculty.

November 13th

The Faculty met as usual, all being present except Dr. Peter. Coleman was present charged with committing a nuisance in Krippenstaple's case.
Coleman denied the charge, and there being no evidence at hand, except that given by the two boys interested in the case, the investigation of the matter was postponed. Riplette's request for a change of board was granted provided he procure his father's consent.
Mr. J. E. Thompson's general conduct was reduced 10 ¢ for visiting Lexington at night without a pass. Mr. Stephend was reduced 10 ¢ in general conduct for throwing into our fruit trees.

There being no further business, the Faculty adjourned
Jan. 4. White,

Sec. of Faculty.

November 27th

for neglecting their studies. Further evidence having been obtained in the Coleman and Krippenstaple case, mention in minutes of Nov. 13th, Coleman's general conduct was reduced 20 ¢.

On motion the Faculty adjourned
Jan. 4. White,

Sec. of Faculty.

Dec. 1st

This meeting was called by Pres. Patterson to consider the actions of Chas Turner who matriculated in this College only a few days ago. Pres. Patterson stated that he (Turner) had been under the influence of whiskey for several days and had engaged in a street fight in which deadly weapons were used. Mr. Turner having been cited to appear before the Faculty that he might state any saluting circumstances in the case, if there were any, and having failed to be present it was resolved that he be publicly and dishonorably dismissed from this College. The Executive Committee were requested to provide some one to take Col. Ja Sargent's place till some other officer is sent in by the Sec. of War of U.S.

On motion the Faculty adjourned.

Jan. 4. White

Sec. of Faculty.

December 4th

The Faculty met as usual.

Mr. Frank Hays was required to pay for a glass which he broke. Mr. Shepherd's general conduct was reduced 10% for swearing. On motion the Faculty adjourned.

Sec. of Faculty.

December 11th

The Faculty met at the accustomed time and place.
 The general conduct of Messrs. Brainard, Canwell, and J. E. Thompson was reduced 10% each for writing Lexington at night without a pass. Several students applied for permission to go home a few days before the Christmas recess begins. Pres. Patterson was authorized to grant such applications when accompanied with the consent of the parents or guardians of those making the applications.
 There being no further business the Faculty adjourned.

Jan. 4. White,

Sec. of Faculty.

December 18th

The Faculty met as usual at 12 o'clock.

Several students were present to account for indebtedness to their clubs. Their excuses were satisfactory.

Mr. Shepherd asked to have the reduction of his general conduct ^{made Dec. 11th} canceled. The Faculty hoping to stop his ugly habit of swearing by holding out some inducement postponed the consideration of his request till the next Faculty meeting in this term; but instructed the Sec. to say to Mr. S. that if his conduct henceforth was perfect that his request would probably be granted.

Mr. Townsends request for permission to burn his lamp later than 9-30 P.M. was not granted.

The Faculty then adjourned.

Jan. 4. White,

Sec. of Faculty.
