ABOUT THE LIBRARIES

Libraries' Information Coordinator

Pat Lloyd in the Director's Office is currently performing the functions of the Libraries' Information Coordinator as defined in the Library System's procedures document. The person in this position has the responsibility of disseminating general information about the facilities, staff, programs, and services of the University Libraries. (Special events sponsored by the Special Collections Department or the Library Associates are handled by David Farrell.)

Mrs. Lloyd will also coordinate the release of information for the Library System. As the Organizational Procedures document notes the coordinator will not necessarily write the information releases, but will work with departments and individuals upon request. ALL general University mailings or public release of information about the Library is to be done through the Coordinator.

Please refer any questions or suggestions to Mrs. Lloyd.

Russ Powell to Publish Handbook

Engineering Librarian, Russell Powell, will have his sabbatical project, Handbooks in Science and Technology, published by Oryx Press.
