

Monday that the Faculty adjourn one day for the consideration of cases.

until adjournment for at least one day. Prof. Stone moved that the Faculty postpone the consideration of the motion until the next meeting, carried. There being no further business the Faculty adjourned.

J. W. Newman,
Sec. Faculty.

O. and M. College, Oct. 23, 1890.

Faculty met in call session at 12 M. in President's room. Prof. Pattison submitted in writing the resolution offered by him at the last meeting. "Except in cases of breach of arrest, whenever the Faculty is convened to act on any offense charged against a student, requiring suspension from the privileges of the college, or public or private dismissal, after the evidence has been taken and the case argued, they shall adjourn for at least one day before taking final action. This rule shall not be suspended if as many as three members of the Faculty object." Resolution adopted.

Resolution of Prof. Pattison adopted.

The case against Cadet Lucas, charged with breach of arrest, was called. He was found guilty and dismissed from the college.

Cadet Lucas dismissed. Faculty declines to grant Cadet Benton the permission to establish a paper.

Cadet Benton, through Prof. Clark, asked the consent of the Faculty to the establishment of a college paper. Refused. Faculty adjourned.

J. W. Newman,
Sec. Faculty.

O. and M. College Nov. 2, 1890.

Faculty met in call session. The father of Cadet Lucas was heard in favor of his son. The Faculty sustained its former action in the case.

The former action in the case of Lucas sustained. College paper refused by the Faculty that it must be discontinued.

Cadets Benton, Pottinger, Clark and Elkin were given permission to establish and continue the publication of a college paper until notified by the Faculty that it must be discontinued.

J. W. Newman,
Sec. Faculty.