

STATE OF KENTUCKY
ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE
FRANKFORT

January 23, 1920

General Roger D. Williams, Lexington, Kentucky.

My dear General Williams:

I am inclosing you a copy of a bill which has been introduced into the present legislature.

This bill embraces the opinion of Major Woodyard on all changes indicated. After you have examined it I shall be glad to have your opinion as to its merits.

I will be in Lexington on the afternoon of the 24th, and trust that I may again have the pleasure of meeting you.

Very sincerely,

The Adjutant General

D-MMF

over