Dear Billie: -

M words fail me at this time when I try to say something to you as there is only One who can comfort when you are bowed down with such a great sorrow but I felt I must let you know we are thinking of you and how deeply we do sympathize with you and yours. Much depends on you now but I know you will be equal to it as you have always been such a dear good boy and you will not fail your dear mother now. I wish we
