

Jan. 9, 1916.

M My dear friend,
I'm so glad you sent me your address along with the dear, sweet little gift, for I made an attempt to send you just a Christmas Greeting card and it was returned to me. I'm going to enclose it in this note just to show you how faithfully Uncle Sam worked to deliver it, and also to prove my good intentions.

Thank you, dear,
for the clever, useful