

immediately. I am taking it for granted that you will be willing to be annoyed with me and the inconveniences and losses of preparation she has always been so kind and considerate with me that I know she will regard objection if she thought for the best. You know how a great many things that I should not have made but what you then think of best. If you approve I will do up quite any thing please. I feel so embarrassed and embarrassed if I just know what was best. I want to wait till you but the doctors will not listen to

Father will write in a few days and I will write you
 again

Jan 3rd 1881.

My dear Mother: I was never in such a dilemma in my life. I know what to do. My mother was here last night and will hear of any thing but to go in Feb. and I can't be here can get ready with you and from you. Bob, Alice and my self have talked the matter over and we all think the best plan, though something of an expense to me, will be for me to go to Louisville and everything ready made that I can, and buy the material for everything I need and then go on to Portland and
