

question so that she will forgive me. Do you think it would be possible for such members of our company, as were able to do so, to go over the Tower one day? I myself have not seen it since I was 'but a tiny little boy' and I know that many of our people would welcome the chance of such a visit. I realise of course, that I may be asking something which is impossible in these days.

Yours sincerely,

John Dunsen

General Sir Ian Hamilton.

Port - Somerset