Dear Mr. Wells,

As I may not see Jermiel for some little while, and may forget again, I have sent your letter on to him.

I will look out & see if I can find the original of the B in W & D the page - I do not remember at present what became of it. If I can't I will re-draw it for you as you wish.

Poor 'Chary.' the skin (7 feet long) is hanging up by my ear - and his skeleton has gone to the Museum of the Coller of Surgeons. I missed him dreadfully. With ^{our} kind regards to Mrs Wells I remain

Yours very truly
Levee du Maurier
