

Lady Eastlake presents
her compliments to Mr. Wilkin.

She was much <sup>obliged</sup> by his testimony in favor of Edmund Daw. She also begs to assure him that she remembers his father & his house in Norwich - & that her elder Sister Miss Rigby - now living in Windsor - remembers him still better.

L. Rigby Esq.

---

26. Moor 1886