

Right Hon^{ble}.

We have formerly layd before you the Complaynts of severall Agents in the Ports appointed for the reception of the sick and wounded Seamen and Sold^r that there hath been very many sett on shore out of his Ma^{ties} Shippes, which might have been thorowly sur^v on board with full charge to his Ma^{ties} And security to the men who after they have been do daily Run away from us, but we find no remedy of these great and growing Evils, we doe therefore most earnestly beseech you to use your Authority w^{ith} the Captains and officers of the severall Shippes that this mischief may be prevented especially in the Port of Portsmouth to which place we have sent Gale Reynolds our Justice to take speedy order there and to lay the Complaynt before the Command in Chief of his Ma^{ties} Shippes there, We take Leave and Rest

Your most humble servants

W^m Boylij
2
Encl^d

Com^{rs} for sick & wounded
Santers Hall London
28th February 1664

Principall offic^r

These
To the Right Hon^{ble}, the Principall Officers & Com^{rs}
of his ma^{ty} Navy.

Com^{rs} of the Navy
To the Right Hon^{ble}, the Principall Officers & Com^{rs}
of his ma^{ty} Navy.

20 Feb 67

F. L. Pleadwell
207