

April 15th 1868.

148. Charles Street,
Boston.

My dear Mr. North:

I shall make the "Yerkebays" of the usual size, (large paper) therefore the ordinary size of heads for 8^{vo} books will suit me perfectly. The autographs I chiefly require now are not especially valuable in the market! (Mr. Tom. Taylor Mark Lemm and Missy Brooks) and any good engraved portraits of Macaulay will answer.

The plates I have already secured. Since there ~~cost~~ autographs and booklets and the picture of Pope's villa are not expensive I will buy them outright if no one appears who wishes what I possess in exchange.

Very truly
yours
Abel
