Dear Sir

I hear from Miss Lynn of Wickham Market that old Mrs. Andrews of your Parish thinks herself in danger of going to the Union House. As she was a good deal at one time bused in my old Friend Cather's household, I do not like to neglect enquiring from you some who, she says, have been very kind to her: and I know that my friend, Mr. Miss Crabbe have never lost their interest in her. Still, the old woman may be in want, & if so, I should be glad to help her. on the other hand, she may be under some unagony terror, such as frightful one would be likely to agitate the poor old age.

I will ask you to be so good as to let me know how this is: and with you to believe me yours, &c. Mrs. Lett.

Sincerely & truly
yours,
Edw. Ferrell.

I am sorry to say that the young Mr. Crabbe - Mary - is very unwell just now.
