

Woking.
March 24. 1867.

My Dear Webster,

It has been with very sincere regret that I and my wife have heard from Churchill of your illness. - We trust that you are now improving, and shall gladly hear of your complete restoration to your usual good health - I was very glad to hear that you had placed yourself

under our friend Cantor, as I am sure you will be well cared for and skilfully treated.
I need not say that when the time has come that perhaps a little quiet change would benefit you how glad we should be to see you and make you as comfortable as we could in our humble way.

When I was last
in London I called upon you at the Theatre but did not find you.

We both send our kindest regards and wish every good wish for your speedy recovery.

Believe me to be

Dear Webster

Very sincerely yours

J. F. Fletcher
