Randolph, Mass.

April 12th 1891

Dear Mr. Bole;

I send

with this the Thanksgiving story, which I hope will please you. I believe I have kept it pretty close to the five thousand words limit. I think I must have one hundred and twenty-five dollars for this,
if you please, and will you kindly let me have it in acceptance?

What a very charming Easter number of the "Ladies Home Journal," and the illustrations are so pretty!

I am going to Philadelphia in the thirteenth, for a few days, and should be pleased to have you call, and see me.
I shall be with Dr. Furness, and Mrs. Foster, at 1426 Pine Street.

Very sincerely yours
Mary E. Milleris.
