

THE MOLT,
SALCOMBE,
KINGSBRIDGE.

May 4 1891

My dear Sir Baldwyn

I should have liked well to have dined with you, to meet as well to meet Lord Stamford, but as you will see I am far away I escape from London as early in the Spring as I can. When Circumstances permit I shall be it altogether.

We have a very pretty lake down here

Lord Stamps knows it. He spent a week with us here two years ago Should you ever be tempted into the parts do not forget us and We are ever your pleasure & also showing it to you

faithfully yours
