

20 Arlington St. Loo.

February 25th 87

Dear Sir Baldwyn Leighston

I am very much obliged to you for your letter, & am very sensible of the great importance of the subject to which it refers. I will confer with Mr. Ritchie upon the matter. We have at present a good many bills coming forward in the House of Lords, & I am afraid very little prospect of any of them making much way for the present in the House of Commons. But if I see any chance of making substantial advance with useful legislation upon this subject, I shall be very glad to take advantage of it.

Yours very truly

Salisbury
