To William Appleton, Esq
New York

Philad^a 17th Dec. 1844

Dear Sir

We were speaking a few days ago of Tschokke, and your volume of his stories. At the same time I alluded to the admirable translations of Allen Furness, and suggested the publication of you. Mr F. has ready for the press a volume about the size of the one issued by you, which I think would be more popular than any collection of translations now printed in America. It includes

- The Journal of a Poor Vicar in Wiltshire (1844)
- Ma at Casuarie " 1845
- Prince's Look (Sweden, 1848
- Wolpurg's Night " "
- The Dead Guest

and
The Settlement of Yellow Land, and one or two others, in all.

Those which have been printed, you can read; the others are equal to them. The price of the volume will be $25. If you do not like to publish it, Messrs Carey & Hall will immediately put it to press, as they had previously determined, though they will never do so if you desire to continue, on the terms before mentioned, your edition of Tschokke. I am very respectfully yr servt

W Appleton Esq
