SYDENHAM S.E.

My dear Westcott

You were kind enough to write me since to propose to do a Paper on Courts for Macmillan.

Have you made any progress with it. and when do you think I may hope for the ms. ? Don't make it too long. For a rough subject like that 12 or 14 pages ought to be the limit.

I saw Dollinger in Munich the other day. I had a nice talk with him. He is a hearty ^{friendly} old creature. Yours ever truly

J. Price.
